

found in page 12 of this edition
The Constitution.

ROOSEVELT URGES UTILITIES CONTROL

Federal Regulation of Holding Companies Advocated in Address.

Continued from First Page.

ties should remain a function for private initiative and private capital, there were certain vital exceptions. "Where a community—a city or county or a district—is not satisfied with the service rendered or the rates charged by the private utility, it has the undeniable right as one of its functions of government, one of its functions of home rule, to set up after a fair referendum has been taken, its own governmentally owned and operated service," he said.

"That is the principle that applies to communities. I would apply the same principle to the federal and state governments."

"Reasonable Profit" Only Right. "State-owned or federal-owned power sites can and should properly be developed by the government itself. When so developed private capital should be given the first opportunity to transmit and distribute the power on the basis of the best service and the lowest rates to give a reasonable profit only."

"The right of federal government and state governments to go further and to transmit and distribute where reasonable and good service is refused by private capital gives to government, viz., the people, that very essential 'birth-right' in the cupboard."

"We have undertaken the development of the Boulder dam on the Colorado river," he continued. "The power will be sold by the United States government at a cost that will return the government investment with a 4 per cent interest in 50 years. States and municipalities were given a prior right to contract the power so generated."

Long before that we undertook the development of Muscle Shoals. The 1930 session of congress passed the bill introduced by Senator Norris for public operation of Muscle Shoals. President Hoover vetoed the bill and substantially appointed another commission favorable to the power interests which recommended leasing the great public project to private companies."

Hoover Opposes U. S. Control. "All that President Hoover offers on this vital subject as set forth in his acceptance speech is contained in the sentence, 'I have opposed the government undertaking the operation of power business and I shall continue in opposition.'"

The nominee repeated a portion of his first inaugural address as Governor of New York to show his position.

"I said then and I say now, 'The water power of the state should belong to all the people.'"

Continuing the governor said the next great hydro-electric development project that should be undertaken by the federal government should be that of the Columbia river.

"Your problem with regard to this great power is similar to our problem in the state of New York with regard to the power development of the St. Lawrence river," he added.

Mr. Roosevelt said the Boulder Dam, Muscle Shoals, Colorado river and St. Lawrence projects would be "forever a yardstick to prevent extortion against the public and to encourage the widest use of that servant of the people—electricity."

He concluded with the assertion: "Never shall the federal government part with its sovereignty and control over its power resources while I am president of the United States."

"Selfish Interests" Assailed. Governor Roosevelt said that "this lusty younger" child of the United States needs to be kept very closely under the watchful eye of its parents—the people of the United States.

"Electricity is no longer a luxury—it is a definite necessity," he added, asserting that it could relieve the drudgery of the housewife and lift a great burden off the farmers' shoulders.

He said, however, that the American people were not taking advantage of electricity as they might.

"The reason that we cannot take advantage of our own possibilities," he added, "is frankly and definitely because many selfish interests in control of light and power industries have not been sufficiently far sighted to establish reasonable rates in order to encourage widespread public use."

"The price you pay for your utility service is a determining factor in your use of it."

"Low prices to the domestic consumer will result in their using far more electrical appliances than they do today. Again, I speak plainly. Through lack of vigilance in the national government we have allowed many utility companies to get around the common law, to capitalize themselves without regard to actual investment made in property, to pyramid capital through holding companies and without restraint of law, to sell billions of dol-

Text of Roosevelt's Address Urging Utilities Regulation

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 21.—The text of Governor Roosevelt's address here tonight, follows:

I have journeyed many times to this beautiful Pacific coast but I want to assure you that I have never comprehended, as I have this time, the warmth of your hospitality, the greatness of your resources and opportunities and, I want to say with earnestness, the great importance of the problem that I am discussing tonight.

I have come, not primarily to speak but, rather, to hear—not to teach, but to learn. We are to hear your problems, to understand them and to consider them as they bear on the larger scene of national interest.

I have strengthened the belief that I have had for a long time and that I have constantly set forth in my speeches and papers in my work as governor of the state of New York, that the question of power, of electrical development and distribution, is primarily a national problem.

Speaking in the language of the navy with which I was associated for many eventful years, I want at the outset of this discussion to take my bearings, to know my destination, to chart my course. In discussing electrical power, the speaker, like a ship sailing in dangerous waters, must point out only uncharted shoals and rocky reefs—must also be on his guard against false lights on the shore. His only protection against all of these dangers is the light of the truth. Let me set the course that he must steer. Let me do that in a few sentences.

As I see it the object of government is the welfare of the people, the liberty of the people to carry on their business should not be abridged unless the larger interest of the many are concerned. When the interest of the many are concerned the interest of the few must yield. It is the purpose of government to see that the legitimate interests of the few are protected but that the welfare and rights of the many are conserved. Those are the principles which we must remember in any consideration of this question. I take it, it is sound government. . . . not politics. Those are the essential basic conditions which any government can be of service.

It is scarcely necessary to tell you this, out here on the Pacific coast. In no other section of the country has there been a greater interest in government and a more intelligent application of the principles of sound government in its administration. . . . not politics. Those are the essential basic conditions which any government can be of service.

COMMON PATRIOTISM SPIRIT OF CAMPAIGN. When questions due these are under consideration, we are not democrats, we are not republicans—we are a people united in a common cause. This is the spirit of our entire campaign. If the spirit and the method that I am applying to public questions is in line with that of our common cause, I invite them to join me now, as I have invited them many times before. In the state of New York, in the emergencies we must distinguish between parties and their leaders.

When the great possessions that belong to all of us—that belong to the nation—are at stake, we are not partisans, we are Americans. It is, therefore, fitting that I should choose this great stage of the coast to set forth my ideas respecting the power of the state should belong to all the people."

Continuing the governor said the next great hydro-electric development project that should be undertaken by the federal government should be that of the Columbia river.

"Your problem with regard to this great power is similar to our problem in the state of New York with regard to the power development of the St. Lawrence river," he added.

Mr. Roosevelt said the Boulder Dam, Muscle Shoals, Colorado river and St. Lawrence projects would be "forever a yardstick to prevent extortion against the public and to encourage the widest use of that servant of the people—electricity."

He concluded with the assertion: "Never shall the federal government part with its sovereignty and control over its power resources while I am president of the United States."

"Selfish Interests" Assailed. Governor Roosevelt said that "this lusty younger" child of the United States needs to be kept very closely under the watchful eye of its parents—the people of the United States.

"Electricity is no longer a luxury—it is a definite necessity," he added, asserting that it could relieve the drudgery of the housewife and lift a great burden off the farmers' shoulders.

He said, however, that the American people were not taking advantage of electricity as they might.

"The reason that we cannot take advantage of our own possibilities," he added, "is frankly and definitely because many selfish interests in control of light and power industries have not been sufficiently far sighted to establish reasonable rates in order to encourage widespread public use."

"The price you pay for your utility service is a determining factor in your use of it."

"Low prices to the domestic consumer will result in their using far more electrical appliances than they do today. Again, I speak plainly. Through lack of vigilance in the national government we have allowed many utility companies to get around the common law, to capitalize themselves without regard to actual investment made in property, to pyramid capital through holding companies and without restraint of law, to sell billions of doling the question of electrical power and to discuss it not only with you here in Portland and in Oregon, but with all of the people in all of the states to whom this subject is a common affecting their individual lives.

This subject has been discussed so much in complex languages, in terms which only a lawyer can understand or in figures which only accountants can understand, that there is need for bringing it back into the realm of simple, honest terms understood by millions of our citizens.

UNPRINCIPLED DRIVE OF PROPAGANDA.

This is particularly true because there has not only been lack of information—and information difficult to understand—but there has been in the past few years, as the federal trade commission has shown, a great translation of the state of unprincipled propaganda and of misinformation, of lies and falsehoods. The spreading of this information has been bought and paid for by certain great private utility corporations. It has permeated the schools, the editorial columns of newspapers, the activities of political parties, the universities and the printed literature in our book stores. A false public policy has been spread throughout the land, through the use of every means, from the innocent school teacher down to a certainly less innocent former chairman of the republican national committee itself.

Let us go back to the beginning of this subject. What is a public utility? Let me take you back 300 years to old King James, of England. The reign of this king is remembered for many great events. Two of them in particular. He gave us a great translation of the Bible and through his lord chancellor, a great statement of public policy. It was in the days when Shakespeare was writing "Hamlet" and when the English were settling Jamestown, when a public outcry arose in England from travelers who sought to cross the deep streams and rivers by means of ferries. Obviously these ferries, which were needed to connect the highway on one side with the highway on the other, were limited in number and were slow and therefore, monopolistic in their nature. The ferry boat operators, because of the privileged position which they held, had the chance to charge whatever the traffic would bear, and had service and high rates had the effect of forcing much trade and travel into long detours or to the expense of attempting to ford the streams.

The greed and avarice of some of these ferry boat owners was made known in an outrageous manner to the king, and he invited his great judge, Lord Hale, to advise him.

The old law lord replied that the ferry business was quite different from other businesses; that the ferry business was, in fact, vested with a public character; that the ferry boat was a public utility and that the direct descendants of the ferry boat operators, three, five, even 10 times the money which they themselves had put into it, they would have to pay to the public. The issue by setting forth a lot of figures, but I do not ask you to remember a few facts which are so tremendously important in our enthusiastic life.

Senator Norris, using the figures of the federal trade commission, summarized in a great speech in the senate of the United States two months ago. He pointed out the over-capitalization of many of the public utilities in this country and summed up for discussion by setting forth in round numbers these main companies had been to the extent of $250,000,000.

This means, my friends, that the people of the United States were called upon to supply profits upon this great sum of money. It meant that someone was deriving profits from the capitalization into which they had put the money. It meant that the people had to pay these unjust profits through higher rates.

COMMON PEOPLE PAYING PROFIT OF "WRITE-UPS." As Senator Norris eloquently pointed it out on the floor of the senate in these words: "Just try to comprehend what that means. With the investigation only partly finished, I believe that the figures disclosed 'write-ups' in round numbers to the amount of $250,000,000 in the case of the public utilities."

The principle was accepted, firmly established and became a basic part of our theory of government. It was the problem of how to ensure that the services of this kind should be satisfactory and cheap enough while at the same time making the safe investment of new capital.

MANY COMMISSIONS FAILURES IN PURPOSE. According to the figures of the industry itself, the American public has invested nearly $23,000,000,000 in public utilities, again excluding the railroads. Of this sum nearly $5,000,000,000 were invested in the electric light and power industry alone, during the five years that preceded the stock market collapse in 1929. In comparison, this will, with $11,000,000,000 invested in railroads, $9,000,000,000 in farm mortgages and with the national debt of the United States itself, which was something slightly less than this investment in public utilities. You will readily see that this "lusty younger child" of the United States needs to be kept very closely under the watchful eye of its parent—the people of the United States.

URGENT NECESSITY. But these cold figures do not measure the importance of the electric power in our present social order. Electricity is no longer a luxury—it is a definite necessity. It lights our homes, our places of work and it turns the wheels of most of our transportation and our factories. In the home it serves not only for light, but it can be used in the widest variety of the family in countless ways. It can relieve the drudgery of the housewife and lift the great burden of the shoulders of the hard-working farmer.

I say "can become" because we are not taking advantage of our own possibilities. The reason that we cannot take advantage of our own possibilities, he added, "is frankly and definitely because many selfish interests in control of light and power industries have not been sufficiently far sighted to establish reasonable rates in order to encourage widespread public use."

"The price you pay for your utility service is a determining factor in your use of it."

"Low prices to the domestic consumer will result in their using far more electrical appliances than they do today. Again, I speak plainly. Through lack of vigilance in the national government we have allowed many utility companies to get around the common law, to capitalize themselves without regard to actual investment made in property, to pyramid capital through holding companies and without restraint of law, to sell billions of dol-its sole function was to act as an arbitrator in a court between the public on the one side and the utility corporations on the other. I said then and I say now, 'The water power of the state should belong to all the people.'"

What prevents our American people taking full advantage of this great economic and human agency? The answer is simple. It is not because we lack undeveloped water power or unclaimed supplies of coal and oil.

"SELFISH INTERESTS" RESPONSIBLE FOR RATES.

The reason that we cannot take advantage of our own possibilities, he added, "is frankly and definitely because many selfish interests in control of light and power industries have not been sufficiently far sighted to establish reasonable rates in order to encourage widespread public use."

The price you pay for your utility service is a determining factor in your use of it."

"Low prices to the domestic consumer will result in their using far more electrical appliances than they do today. Again, I speak plainly. Through lack of vigilance in the national government we have allowed many utility companies to get around the common law, to capitalize themselves without regard to actual investment made in property, to pyramid capital through holding companies and without restraint of law, to sell billions of dol-

ing the question of electrical power and to discuss it not only with you here in Portland and in Oregon, but with all of the people in all of the states to whom this subject is a common affecting their individual lives.

This subject has been discussed so much in complex languages, in terms which only a lawyer can understand or in figures which only accountants can understand, that there is need for bringing it back into the realm of simple, honest terms understood by millions of our citizens.

OVER-CAPITALIZATION OF COMPANIES HIT.

Now, I come to another principle. In our application of having been attacked by the propaganda of certain utility companies as a dangerous development of the nation for pointing out the same plain economic facts that I state here tonight.

My answer has been, as it is tonight, to point out these plain principles that seek to protect the welfare of the people against selfish greed and other manufacture.

HOOPER OPPOSED U. S. REGULATION.

In 1925 the then secretary of commerce, now the president, said: "It is the duty of the federal government to centralize in federal government those that undermine state utility commissions and state responsibility. Somewhat later he said that the power situation is parallel with the railroads where federal regulation has been found to be necessary."

It differs in several profound respects. Power has no such interstate implication as transportation. Furthermore, there is no right of interstate commerce in the probable extent of interstate power. For economic reasons these power districts lie in but few cases, reach into many states and have the present president of the United States in opposition to federal regulation and control of power public utilities. His statement of facts has been contradicted by his own federal power commission.

SITUATION REQUIRES GOVERNMENT ACTION.

It states what I have long been saying, that power has grown into interstate business of vast proportions and that regulation and control of the federal government. They say—"Analysis of information furnished by 91 holding companies showed that 48 major projects under public utilities are subject to control by ten top companies and these groups serve 12-478 communities, a population of 120,000,000."

Let me give you an illustration, not only to show the vast extent of operation of some of these great companies but to give you the federal non-interference which the president of the United States still so valiantly maintains.

The Insull empire has grown excellent point to the truth of what I have been arguing for a long time. "Insull monstrosity" should be given the same treatment made up of a group of holding and investing companies, and exercising control over hundreds of thousands of operating companies, and had taken their money to an amount running over one and a half billion of dollars.

HOLDING COMPANIES UNSOUND IN POLICY.

The "Insull monstrosity" grew during the years of prosperity and during the years of depression it was an important factor in the lives of millions of people. The investing public did not realize then, as it does not realize now, the methods used in building up of these holding companies were wholly contrary to every sound public policy.

They did not realize that there has been an arbitrary write-ups of assets, inflation of vast capital accounts. They did not realize that excessive prices had been paid for the securities of these companies. They did not realize that the expense of financing had been capitalized. They did not realize that payments of dividends had been made out of capital. They did not realize that there had been borrowings and lendings—an interchange of assets, of liabilities and of capital between the companies and the whole. They did not realize that all these conditions necessitated terrific overcharges for service by these corporations.

INSULL FAILURE OF FACTS.

The Insull failure has opened our eyes. It shows us the danger of these financial monstrosities was such as to compel ultimate ruin; that practices had been indulged in, that suggest the old days of railroad speculation, that private manipulation had outsmarted the slow-moving power of government.

As always, the public paid and paid dearly. As always, the public is beginning to understand the need for reform after the same public has been fleeced out of millions of dollars.

I have spoken of a "new deal" for the American people. I believe that that "new deal" can be applied to the electric utility situation on the one side, and the consumer and the investor on the other. True regulation is for the benefit of the consumer, and the investor, and the only man who will suffer from true regulation is the speculator, or the unscrupulous promoter who has bribed equity from the man who buys the service are most certainly backward in the use of electricity in our American homes and on our farms. In Canada the average home uses twice as much electric power per family as we do in the United States.

What prevents our American people taking full advantage of this great economic and human agency? The answer is simple. It is not because we lack undeveloped water power or unclaimed supplies of coal and oil.

"SELFISH INTERESTS" RESPONSIBLE FOR RATES.

The reason that we cannot take advantage of our own possibilities, he added, "is frankly and definitely because many selfish interests in control of light and power industries have not been sufficiently far sighted to establish reasonable rates in order to encourage widespread public use."

The price you pay for your utility service is a determining factor in your use of it."

"Low prices to the domestic consumer will result in their using far more electrical appliances than they do today. Again, I speak plainly. Through lack of vigilance in the national government we have allowed many utility companies to get around the common law, to capitalize themselves without regard to actual investment made in property, to pyramid capital through holding companies and without restraint of law, to sell billions of dol-

ing the question of electrical power and to discuss it not only with you here in Portland and in Oregon, but with all of the people in all of the states to whom this subject is a common affecting their individual lives.

This subject has been discussed so much in complex languages, in terms which only a lawyer can understand or in figures which only accountants can understand, that there is need for bringing it back into the realm of simple, honest terms understood by millions of our citizens.

UNPRINCIPLED DRIVE OF PROPAGANDA.

This is particularly true because there has not only been lack of information—and information difficult to understand—but there has been in the past few years, as the federal trade commission has shown, a great translation of the state of unprincipled propaganda and of misinformation, of lies and falsehoods. The spreading of this information has been bought and paid for by certain great private utility corporations. It has permeated the schools, the editorial columns of newspapers, the activities of political parties, the universities and the printed literature in our book stores. A false public policy has been spread throughout the land, through the use of every means, from the innocent school teacher down to a certainly less innocent former chairman of the republican national committee itself.

Let us go back to the beginning of this subject. What is a public utility? Let me take you back 300 years to old King James, of England. The reign of this king is remembered for many great events. Two of them in particular. He gave us a great translation of the Bible and through his lord chancellor, a great statement of public policy. It was in the days when Shakespeare was writing "Hamlet" and when the English were settling Jamestown, when a public outcry arose in England from travelers who sought to cross the deep streams and rivers by means of ferries. Obviously these ferries, which were needed to connect the highway on one side with the highway on the other, were limited in number and were slow and therefore, monopolistic in their nature. The ferry boat operators, because of the privileged position which they held, had the chance to charge whatever the traffic would bear, and had service and high rates had the effect of forcing much trade and travel into long detours or to the expense of attempting to ford the streams.

The greed and avarice of some of these ferry boat owners was made known in an outrageous manner to the king, and he invited his great judge, Lord Hale, to advise him.

The old law lord replied that the ferry business was quite different from other businesses; that the ferry business was, in fact, vested with a public character; that the ferry boat was a public utility and that the direct descendants of the ferry boat operators, three, five, even 10 times the money which they themselves had put into it, they would have to pay to the public. The issue by setting forth a lot of figures, but I do not ask you to remember a few facts which are so tremendously important in our enthusiastic life.

Senator Norris, using the figures of the federal trade commission, summarized in a great speech in the senate of the United States two months ago. He pointed out the over-capitalization of many of the public utilities in this country and summed up for discussion by setting forth in round numbers these main companies had been to the extent of $250,000,000.

This means, my friends, that the people of the United States were called upon to supply profits upon this great sum of money. It meant that someone was deriving profits from the capitalization into which they had put the money. It meant that the people had to pay these unjust profits through higher rates.

COMMON PEOPLE PAYING PROFIT OF "WRITE-UPS." As Senator Norris eloquently pointed it out on the floor of the senate in these words: "Just try to comprehend what that means. With the investigation only partly finished, I believe that the figures disclosed 'write-ups' in round numbers to the amount of $250,000,000 in the case of the public utilities."

The principle was accepted, firmly established and became a basic part of our theory of government. It was the problem of how to ensure that the services of this kind should be satisfactory and cheap enough while at the same time making the safe investment of new capital.

MANY COMMISSIONS FAILURES IN PURPOSE. According to the figures of the industry itself, the American public has invested nearly $23,000,000,000 in public utilities, again excluding the railroads. Of this sum nearly $5,000,000,000 were invested in the electric light and power industry alone, during the five years that preceded the stock market collapse in 1929. In comparison, this will, with $11,000,000,000 invested in railroads, $9,000,000,000 in farm mortgages and with the national debt of the United States itself, which was something slightly less than this investment in public utilities. You will readily see that this "lusty younger child" of the United States needs to be kept very closely under the watchful eye of its parent—the people of the United States.

URGENT NECESSITY.

But these cold figures do not measure the importance of the electric power in our present social order. Electricity is no longer a luxury—it is a definite necessity. It lights our homes, our places of work and it turns the wheels of most of our transportation and our factories. In the home it serves not only for light, but it can be used in the widest variety of the family in countless ways. It can relieve the drudgery of the housewife and lift the great burden of the shoulders of the hard-working farmer.

I say "can become" because we are not taking advantage of our own possibilities. The reason that we cannot take advantage of our own possibilities, he added, "is frankly and definitely because many selfish interests in control of light and power industries have not been sufficiently far sighted to establish reasonable rates in order to encourage widespread public use."

"The price you pay for your utility service is a determining factor in your use of it."

"Low prices to the domestic consumer will result in their using far more electrical appliances than they do today. Again, I speak plainly. Through lack of vigilance in the national government we have allowed many utility companies to get around the common law, to capitalize themselves without regard to actual investment made in property, to pyramid capital through holding companies and without restraint of law, to sell billions of dol-and from the man who invests his savings in this great industry.

REMEDIAL MEASURES GIVEN IN PROGRAM.

I seek to protect both the consumer and the investor. To that end I proposed and advocated heretofore, the following remedies on the part of the government for the regulation and control of public utilities engaged in the power business and companies and corporations relating thereto:

1. Full publicity as to all capital issues of stocks, bonds and other securities; liabilities and indebtedness; capital investment; and frequent information as to gross and net earnings.

2. Publicity on stock ownership of stocks and bonds and other securities, including the stock and other interest of all officers and directors.

3. Publicity with respect to all inter-company contracts and services and interchange of power.

4. Regulation and control of holding companies by federal power commission and the same publicity with regard to such holding companies as provided for the operating companies.

5. Co-operation of federal power commission with public utilities commissions of the several states, obtaining information and data pertaining to the regulation and control of such public utilities.

6. Regulation and control of the issue of stocks and bonds and other securities on the principle of prudent investment only.

7. Abolishing by law the reproduction cost basis for rate making and establishing in place of it the actual money prudent investment principle as the basis of rate making.

8. Legislation making it a crime to publish or circulate false or deceptive matter relating to public utilities.

9. Coming to the other great problem of the relationship of the government to the development through government itself of power resources and other manufacture.

PRIVATE INITIATIVE APPROVED.

I do not hold with those who advocate government ownership or government operation of all utilities. I state to you categorically that as a broad general principle the development of public utilities should remain, with certain exceptions, a function for private initiative and private capital.

But the exceptions are of vital importance. Local state and national, and I believe that the overwhelming majority of the people in this country agree with

Again we must go back to first principles; a utility is in by no means a monopoly, and it is by no means possible in every case for government to insure at all times from mere inspection, supervision and regulation that the public shall get a fair deal—in other words, to insure adequate service and reasonable rates.

I therefore lay down the following principle: That where a community—a city or county or a district is not satisfied with the service rendered or the rates charged by the private utility, it has the undeniable right as one of its functions of government, one of its functions of home rule, to set up after a fair referendum has been taken, its own governmentally owned and operated service. That right has been rescinded in most of the states of the Union. Its general recognition by every state under the Constitution is a better service, and lower rates, it is perfectly clear to me, and to every thinking citizen, that no community can afford to ignore the plan of served well and at reasonable rates by a private utility company will seek to build or operate its own plant—in other words, to build the very fact that a community can vote of the electorate, create a yardstick of its own, will in most cases, guarantee good service, and low rates for its people. I maintain the right of the people to own and operate their own utility the "birth right" in the cupboard to be taken out only when the child gets beyond the point where a mere scolding does no good."

SAME PRINCIPLES FOR FEDERAL STATE.

That is the principle that applies to communities. I would apply the same principles to the federal and state governments.

State-owned or federal-owned power sites can and should properly be developed by government itself. When so developed private capital should be given the first opportunity to transmit and distribute the power on the basis of the best service and the lowest rates to give a reasonable profit only.

The right of the federal government and state governments to go further and to transmit and distribute where reasonable and good service is refused by private capital gives to government, viz., the people, that very essential "birth-right" in the cupboard.

This nation through its federal government, has sovereignty over the vast water power resources, in many parts of the United States. A very few of these are in process of development, and the methods used in the stage of blue prints and many others have not even been surveyed.

We have undertaken the development of the Boulder dam on the Colorado river. The power will be sold by the United States government at a cost that will return the government investment with 4 per cent interest in 50 years. States and municipalities were given a prior right to contract the power so generated.

Before that we undertook the development at Muscle Shoals. The 1930 session of congress passed the bill introduced by Senator Norris for public operation of Muscle Shoals. President Hoover vetoed the Norris bill and subsequently appointed another "commission" favorable to the power interests, which recommended leasing this great public project to private companies.

All that President Hoover offers on this vital subject as set forth in his acceptance speech is contained in the sentence, "I have opposed the government undertaking the operation of power business and I shall continue in opposition."

POWER SHOULD BELONG TO PEOPLE.

Let me repeat, let me repeat the position which I took in my first inaugural address as governor of New York, January 1, 1929, and which I have maintained ever since. "The water power of the state should belong to all the people. The title to this power must rest forever in the people. No commission—not the legislature itself—has any right to give, for any consideration whatever, a single potential kilowatt in virtual perpetuity to any person or corporation whatever. It is the duty of our representative bodies to see that this power is transferred into usable electrical energy and distributed at the lowest possible cost. It is our power—and no inordinate profits must be allowed to those who act as the people's agent in bringing this power to their homes and workshops."

We have all of you in this section of the country know, the vast possibilities of power development on the Columbia river. The next great hydro-electric development to be undertaken by the federal government must be that on the Columbia river.

BROOKHART URGES CONTROL OF CROPS

Senator Outlines Proposed Measures To Aid Farmers in Iowa Address.

ENGLAND IS FACING DAIRYMEN'S STRIKE

LONDON, Sept. 21.—(P)—Great Britain faced a country-wide holdup of milk supplies today as a result of a farmers' decision to inaugurate a "milk strike" October 1.

The decision followed a breakdown of negotiations between the farmers' representatives and representatives of the milk-distributing companies over contracts for the forthcoming year.

BY A. D. STEFFERUD.
MOVILLE, Iowa, Sept. 21.—(P)—Outlining measures he believes will solve farm problems, in an address to farm holiday sympathizers tonight, Senator Smith W. W. Brookhart outlined his plan for control of surplus crops, revision of the money standard and issuance of treasury notes for veterans' relief and public works.

More than 2,000 farmers huddled in a wind-swept lumber yard shed where, driven by the cold and rain, they heard the Iowa senator's address. Brookhart outlined his plan for control of surplus crops, revision of the money standard and issuance of treasury notes for veterans' relief and public works.

Veterans of Gray Will Convene Here

The state reunion of the United Confederate Veterans of Georgia will be held October 12-13 at the Confederate Soldiers' Home at Atlanta, instead of at Macon, as previously arranged, it was announced Wednesday.

A meeting of a committee headed by Mrs. A. O. Woodward was held Wednesday morning in the ballroom of the Henry Grady hotel, at which it was resolved that Atlanta should be the scene of this year's reunion of the few remaining heroes of the Confederacy, because of the suitability of the wide expanse of grounds at the Soldiers' Home, where it is planned to hold an old-fashioned barbecue, a "get-together" for two days, and motion picture entertainment during the two evenings of the gathering.

Low Reynolds, past commander of Camp John B. Gordon, Sons of Confederate Veterans, introduced the resolution transferring the site of the reunion from Macon to Atlanta, and it was seconded by McWhorter Milner and Martine Harmsen. Another committee meeting will be held within a few days and plans will be perfected for the October convention.

Suicide, Dead 2 Days, Found in Hotel Here

Dead for approximately two days, a man with a bullet wound through the head was found in his room at a downtown hotel late Wednesday afternoon, with a note by his side terming himself a "successful failure." Police identified him as O. Adair Earle, probably of Cincinnati, from which city he had registered himself last Saturday afternoon.

The note, dated 11 a. m., Sunday, was addressed "To whom it may concern," and stated that the man had "no money or relatives." It requested that the body be turned over to the "state medical association" or to the city, to be buried in potter's field. "I am a successful failure," it concluded.

D. B. Parks, house detective at the hotel, said, however, that Earle was alive as late as 9 o'clock Monday night, and expressed the belief that the man had been in error in dating his note. Parks entered the room at about 2:30 o'clock Wednesday when his suspicions became aroused over the man's absence about the hotel.

The body was turned over to J. Austin Dillon Co.

CITY CLUB TO STUDY EIGHT AMENDMENTS

For the next few weeks the City Club of Atlanta will conduct a study of eight constitutional amendments to be submitted to the voters of Georgia in the general elections in November, beginning today with an explanation by Edgar Watkins, Atlanta attorney, of each of the proposed amendments. Today's meeting will be held at 12:30 o'clock at the Vinecroft hotel.

In following meetings speakers for and against the amendments will outline their views, and it is hoped by the club that this series of discussions will arouse public interest in the proposed amendments. J. Frank Beck, president, will preside at today's meeting.

CHANGE OF VENUE ASKED BY PURYEAR

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Sept. 21.—(P)—A formal motion for a change of venue for Stanley A. Puryear, accused of slaying his sleeping wife and daughter with an ax, was filed in criminal court today by his counsel.

NEW DISCOVERY REACHES CAUSE OF STOMACH GAS

Dr. Carl found that poisons in the upper bowel cause stomach gas. His simple remedy Adierka washes out the upper bowel, bringing out all gas. Leading druggists.—(adv.)

TAXPAYERS' BODIES IN EVERY COUNTY ADVOCATED BY HALL

Formation of taxpayers' leagues in every county in Georgia was urged Wednesday by Jack Hall, of Macon, president of the Georgia Real Estate Association, guest speaker at the luncheon meeting of the Atlanta Real Estate Board at the Piedmont hotel. Twenty-five leagues now are in operation, he said, but these did not cover enough territory.

Asserting that if taxes were increased everybody would be working for the government, Mr. Hall said that communistic tendencies were already evident in the school system of Georgia in the form of free bus transportation, free lunches and free textbooks for children.

He reminded the realtors that the convention of the state association would be held in Atlanta on December 15-16. Daniel W. Watson, manager of the Jefferson Mortgage Company, said his company had sold 29 houses in August and 14 in September. These had been foreclosed, John J. Thompson spoke of the need of greater publicity for real estate transactions, and Kenmore Burns, of Macon, told of the work he and his committee had done in organizing tax leagues.

Miss Louise Huddleston, assistant secretary of the board, sang. She was accompanied by Mrs. Frances Le Seuer.

BIG SAVING
Set of Teeth
$7.50
10-Day Special
$30—TrueByte Teeth—$15
Hecolite Plates Big Reduction
20 Years Knowing How
D. C. A. Constantine
191 Peachtree St., Cor. Decatur

CURB MARKET PAPER IN OPEN HEARING TODAY

Lease of the old city hall site to B. C. Lewis for three years at an aggregate rental of $14,340 and an ordinance to ban curb markets will be discussed at a public hearing called for 10 o'clock this morning in the office of Mayor James L. Key.

Both measures are before Key for approval, and he has invited the public to appear. The curb market ban, which would virtually preclude sale of produce from stalls or sheds on the sidewalks, has the backing of the Atlanta Retail Food Dealers' Association.

The mayor signed practically all other measures passed to him from the meetings Monday of council and the aldermanic board.

Mayor Appointed.
UNION CITY, Tenn., Sept. 21.—(P)—Dr. W. M. Turner, a dentist, is the new mayor of Union City. Dr. Turner was appointed by the city commission late yesterday to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Mayor J. A. Prieto, who was killed last week by the accidental discharge of a shotgun while he was cleaning.

NO DIFFERENCE IN WET PLANKS, DECLARES BORAH

BOSTON, Sept. 21.—(P)—Zion's Herald today quotes Senator William E. Borah as saying in a letter in reference to the republican and democratic platforms "those who are in favor of the 18th amendment have been adroitly and effectively disfranchised so far as the presidential election is concerned."

The Herald prints a letter which it says was received from Borah in answer to one from its editor. It quotes Borah as saying "... I can see no difference whatever in the practical effect between the platforms of the two parties with reference to the 18th amendment. They both, in practical effect, mean the repeal of the 18th amendment."

"Those who are in favor of the 18th amendment have been adroitly and effectively disfranchised so far as the presidential election is concerned. Whichever way they vote, they vote for repeal."

DEFENSE ATTORNEY SENTENCED TO JAIL

MIAMI, Fla., Sept. 21.—(P)—Vincent O. Giblin, defense attorney in the trial of four men accused of operating a slot machine syndicate here last winter, was sentenced to six hours in jail this afternoon by Criminal Court Judge E. C. Collins.

The contempt sentence was pronounced after Giblin refused to adhere to a court ruling outlawing a line of questioning the defense wished to pursue.

BRITISH STRIKE PARLEY IS NEARING DEADLOCK

MANCHESTER, Eng., Sept. 21.—(P)—Negotiations for ending the cotton strike which has been going on for several weeks approached a virtual deadlock tonight. Workers and mill owners meeting in committee split on the issue of wages, neither side willing to budge from the position which caused the strike.

It was admitted that a critical point had been reached, but the committee will meet again tomorrow.

Automobile Furniture LOANS

You can get a loan here in double-quick time. Your furniture or automobile is all the collateral you need. Our interest rates are reasonable and repayment terms are made to suit your income. See us now!

HOME FINANCE SERVICE

216 VOLUNTEER BLDG. MA 5340

daily via the Santa Fe
To California
and Arizona—One Way
Good in chair cars and coaches.
The new, free, reclining chair cars on the Santa Fe provide comforts never before afforded our chair car patrons. Ladies' lounge and smoking room, with comfortable wicker chairs. Also washroom for men. Operated through from Chicago and Kansas City daily, without change.
100 pounds free baggage allowance—and liberal stopovers.
Fred Harvey lunch rooms and dining rooms save you money
J. S. ROSE, Gen. Agent
SANTA FE RY.
318 Rhodes-Haverty Bldg.
ATLANTA, GA.
Phone: Walnut 3423

PERFECT OPTICAL SERVICE
REGISTERED OPTOMETRIST
IN ATTENDANCE
Only the Finest Lenses Used Divided Payments
Terms as Low as $1.00 a Week

Save the Only Eyes You Will Ever Have
DR. L. E. POTTER
Registered Optometrist in Charge
Diamond Merchants
DUVAL JEWELRY CO.
CONVENIENT TERMS
Rhodes-Haverty Building
128 PEACHTREE ST.
Opposite Candler Building

Drink Coca-Cola

Nothing

Sure to please you
The pause that refreshes

Everything about it is pleasing. It brings a taste thrill — with a cool after-sense of refreshment. Of course it is just as happy an occasion in the home as at the soda fountain. Hence millions buy Coca-Cola in bottles at food dealers to serve at home.

Send for this valuable Book
It tells you how to be a perfect hostess. Contains 128 pages, is beautifully illustrated. Use the coupon.

TUNE IN Hear the Coca-Cola Hospitality Program
Talks by IDA BAILEY ALLEN
on home entertaining
Tuesday, Thursday, Saturday
Station WSB, 9 A. M.

COCA-COLA CO.,
584 PLUM ST., N.W.,
ATLANTA, GA.

Enclosed find 10¢ (stamps or coin to cover cost of handling and mailing) for which send me the book, "When You Entertain," by Ida Bailey Allen.

Name.....
Address.....
City.....State.....

COCA-COLA BRINGS THE PAUSE THAT REFRESHES

ALVIS JACK REDD, 55, MARBLE LEADER, DIES

Well-Known Atlantan Was Prominent in Field Here; Last Rites Friday.

Alvis Jack Redd, 55 years of age, president of the Enterprise Marble Company, died Wednesday afternoon at a private hospital.

Mr. Redd, who had been in the marble business here for 40 years, lived at 1241 Bankhead avenue and was well known in church and fraternal circles. He was a member of Bolton Lodge No. 416, F. and A. M. He is survived by his wife; two daughters, Mrs. D. C. Reed and Miss Alice Redd; two sons, Mrs. S. E. Hanes and Mrs. E. O. Troutt; and two brothers, Dr. Homer L. Redd and E. E. Redd.

The funeral will be held at 2:30 o'clock Friday at the Fortified Hills Baptist church, the Rev. T. B. Tribble and the Rev. W. P. Hines officiating. J. Austin Dillon in charge.

L. M. DUGGER ELECTED GYRO CLUB PRESIDENT

New officers for the coming year were elected at the annual meeting of the Atlanta chapter of Gyro-International with Lewis M. Dugger, statistician for the Coca-Cola Company, named president. Other officers named were E. H. Hiestand, of Sears, Roebuck & Company, and Cary Wilmer, of the Loyless Printing Company, vice presidents, and Hinton Longino, of the Retail Credit Company, secretary-treasurer.

The club, which meets twice a month on the second and fourth Monday nights, has 78 chapters in the United States and Canada. The Atlanta chapter was organized 18 months ago and is made up of 40 congenial members who held social and informal meetings.

Patrolmen Are Ordered To Report on Homicides

Chief of Police T. O. Sturdivant Wednesday issued an order directing all patrolmen to submit detailed reports of homicides which occur on their beats or which they have investigated.

"The tendency of uniformed officers is to leave all detailed investigation to detectives," Chief Sturdivant said. "Often it is 24 hours or more before detectives get on a case and clues are lost. All uniformed men in the future must make detailed reports of all crimes in order that they, as well as detectives, may assist in the solution of these cases."

RAMSPECK DISCUSSES PARTY'S PROHIBITION VIEWS

An explanation of the democratic national platform adopted at the Chicago convention made by Robert Ramspeck, fifth district congressman, featured the monthly meeting of Woman's Fulton County Democratic Club held in the ballroom of the Piedmont hotel Wednesday afternoon.

Discussing particularly the prohibition plank Ramspeck said that he was at first apprehensive of its political effect, but after coming back to Georgia at the end of the congressional session he was satisfied it had the approval of the people.

"However," the congressman added, "I am sure that the people of Georgia are not willing for New York or New Jersey to force liquor upon us. But, generally speaking, I am satisfied with the question and settle it for themselves as they think best."

The club will meet next on the second Wednesday in October, Wednesday's meeting adopted the by-laws of which Mrs. Stacy E. Hill is president and Mrs. Irene Bell, secretary.

CRISP MAY BE NAMED ON U. S. TARIFF BODY

Death of Lincoln Dixon, of Kentucky, Causes Vacancy on Commission.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—Congressman Charles R. Crisp, of Georgia, who gave up his seat in the house to make an unsuccessful campaign for the senate, may be tendered the vacant place on the federal tariff commission, it was learned here Wednesday.

There is a vacancy on the commission caused by the death of Lincoln Dixon at home in Kentucky last week. The late commissioner, like Mr. Crisp, also was once a well-known member of the house of representatives.

The place on the commission, it is expected, will go to a democrat and as Mr. Crisp is the outstanding democrat available for the post it is likely that the appointment will be tendered to him.

The last southerner to serve on the commission was former Representative Frank Clark, of Florida.

BROOKWOOD DRIVE REZONING IS URGED

The city planning commission Wednesday afternoon recommended rezoning of the north side of Brookwood drive, beginning about 100 feet from Peachtree to the present industrial zone near the Atlantic Ice & Coal Company holdings. The tract is now restricted to apartment house use, but under the recommendation would be changed to industrial.

Two petitions proposing to rezone from dwelling house to business property on the east side of English avenue, near North avenue, and the other on Josephine drive, near Birch street, were advised by the commission.

Florida Students' Book Text at Oklahoma U.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., Sept. 21. (P)—A book written by members of a class in advanced journalism at Florida State College for Women here has been adopted as a text-book for students at a University in Oklahoma, college officials announced.

The book is a collection of articles written as classroom assignments during the past two years. It was compiled and edited with an introduction by Earl Lynn Vance, associated professor of English and journalism.

Among students whose work appears in the book is Emily Lewis, of Camilla, Ga.

FRANCE GRANTS HONOR TO C. BASCOM SLEMP

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—(P)—The French government has awarded the Legion of Honor to C. Bascom Slemph, commissioner general of the United States to the French colonial exposition held in Paris last year, and to all members of the commission. Formal presentation will take place here probably next month.

INSURANCE EXECUTIVE ACCIDENTALLY KILLED

GREENSBORO, N. C., Sept. 21. (P)—Charles W. Gold, president of the Pilot Life Insurance Company, was shot and killed while hunting squirrels near Randleman, N. C., early today, his office here announced.

He was 56 years old. The company announced he died shortly after his gun accidentally discharged as he hunted during the early morning hours with Dr. Deason, assistant secretary of the Pilot company.

Catalogue Cases and Accountants' Cases

W. Z. Turner Luggage Co. 219 Peachtree St.

STATE SALARY LEVY FAVORED IN ALABAMA

House Committee Votes to Impose Occupational Tax on Workers.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Sept. 21.—(P)—The house appropriations committee of the Alabama legislature today voted a favorable report for the administration sponsored Harrison bill, imposing an occupational tax on all state, county and municipal officers whose salaries can not be reduced due to constitutional provisions.

The bill provides for taxes of 5 per cent on salaries from $1,200 to $3,000 annually; 15 per cent from $3,000 to $5,000; 20 per cent from $5,000 to $7,000; 25 per cent from $7,000 to $10,000, and 33 1/3 per cent on all others. The measure provides for payment in monthly installments.

The Sanderson bill, authorizing circuit judges to suspend sentences, passed by the house, was favorably reported by the senate judiciary committee although attacked as "a new blow at prohibition" by Senator Miller Bonner, of Wilcox.

"I am opposed to this bill, you have done enough to prohibition already," said Senator Bonner. "It is nothing but a new blow at prohibition."

"If all the prohibition laws were repealed," said Senator J. Sanford

113 1/2 ALABAMA ST.

Cor. Whitehall
Hecolite Plate $20.00
Dr. E. G. Griffin
Set of Teeth $5.00
10-Day Special
Crown and Bridge Work $4.00 per tooth.
Other work at prices in proportion.
W.A. 8570

90,000 Digest Ballots Mailed to Atlantans

Ninety thousand ballots, the second allotment for Georgia in the Literary Digest nationwide presidential referendum, have been mailed from the poll headquarters and will be distributed here in the next day or so, according to advice received Wednesday.

Atlanta's first lot of ballots in this "post-card election" was distributed here about a week ago.

William Seaver Woods, editor of the magazine, who is in charge of the poll, issued a warning that under no conditions will ballots be mailed to those requesting them individually and that the only way one may vote in this poll is to receive a ballot directly through the mail.

Mullins' Alabama's prison problems would be solved today. We've got 5,700 in prison now and if we don't do something, there will be 10,000 there in the next few years."

SEABOARD

Round Trip Excursion

SEPT. 30--OCT. 1

Atlanta to

New York City	$15.00
Washington	8.00
Baltimore	9.00
Philadelphia	14.00
Pittsburgh	14.00
Richmond	7.00
Norfolk	7.00
Raleigh	7.00

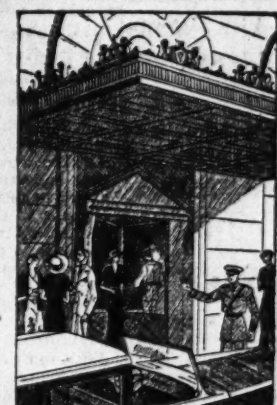

For Information Call SEABOARD
62 Luckie St., N. W.
Telephone WA. 5018-2708

SEN. COHEN WILL JOIN ROOSEVELT IN WEST

United States Senator John S. Cohen, of Georgia, vice chairman of the democratic national executive committee, left by airplane Wednesday for Los Angeles, Cal., where he will confer with Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt and other party leaders on plans for the democratic presidential campaign.

Senator Cohen stopped at Dallas, Texas, Wednesday night for dinner, leaving shortly afterward on the night plane for Los Angeles, where he will arrive this morning.

He will join Governor Roosevelt's party in Los Angeles and will accompany the democratic presidential nominee on the swing back east.

EXPERIENCED TRAVELERS IN NEW YORK

choose the St. Regis... for its quiet seclusion... for its celebrated food... for its respectful and self-respecting service... for its convenience to smart shops, theatres and residences... and for its moderate rates: single, $5 and $6; double, $8 and $9; suites from $12.

HOTEL ST. REGIS

FIFTH AVENUE AT EAST 55TH, NEW YORK

At Jacobs today!

Breaded PORK TENDERLOIN

with Cream Gravy
Candied Yams
Turnip Greens
Sliced Tomatoes
Hot Rolls and Butter
Cherry Pie
Tea or Coffee

35c

JACOBS Downtown Stores

Mr. Executive En Route To New York

Dear Sir:

Reduce travelling costs at the Taft. Only $2.50 for a splendid room with bath. Every modern service. Close to all activities. Live well... and economically!

Hotel Taft in on Georgia Hall's Taft

Taft NEW YORK

7th Avenue at 50th St., Adj. to Reg. BING & BING MANAGEMENT

End Ugly, Uninviting Complexion That Turns Men Away

Of all known methods of clearing the complexion of ruinous, unnatural impurities, blackheads, pimples, freckles and blotches, Nadinola cream is the simplest, quickest and most satisfactory.

Just apply this white, fragrant cream at bedtime—no massaging, no rubbing. Nadinola quickly brings fresh, youthful beauty to your skin; restoring a soft-textured, smooth, radiant, inviolable complexion; closing up large, ugly pores and leaving the skin ivory-white, lovely. Get a big 50c jar of Nadinola Bleaching Cream at any cosmetic counter; begin using tonight, and tomorrow you will see a hint of the wonderful results to expect. Money-back guarantee in every package. (S.V.)

Bad Legs

Varicose Veins Ulcers—Bunches

Make up your mind today that you are going to give your legs a chance to get well. No operations or injections are necessary, no enforced rest. This simple Emu-Oil home treatment permits you to go about your business as usual—while it quickly heals old sores, reduces swellings, stimulates circulation, and makes your legs as good as new. No waiting for relief! You begin to get it INSTANTLY.

Just follow the simple directions and you are sure to be helped. Lane Drug Stores won't keep your money unless you are.—(adv.)

U. S. Airways Officials Here on Long Air Tour

Nearing the completion of a 10,000-mile tour of inspection of the lighted airways facilities of the department of commerce, Fred R. Neely, chief of the aeronautical information division of the department, and L. C. Elliott, airways extension superintendent arrived at Candler field Wednesday from Birmingham on a brief stop before they return to Washington.

For the last several weeks Neely and Elliott, in a 4-passenger Bellanca plane, especially equipped with radio, have been on a national tour of inspection in which they have been checking upon rotating beacon lights, lighted intermediate fields, radio beacon courses, weather reports and radio marker beacons. Wednesday night they flew a two-hour "beat" on the "partanburg leg of the Atlanta-Washington air lanes, checking up on beacon lights and weather reports. They will leave for Washington tomorrow.

Supreme Court of Ga.

Rehearing Denied.
McCullough Bros., Inc., vs. Speer; from Barrow.
Citizens & Contractors Bank of Lithonia vs. Johnson et al.; from DeKalb.

Court of Appeals of Ga.

Judgments Affirmed.
Pyles vs. Goldstein et al.; from Fulton superior court—Judge Hamblins. Leal V. Whiddon, C. Mortimer Mason, for plaintiff. E. E. Carter, John W. Crenshaw, for defendant.

Timmons vs. Fulton Bag and Cotton Mills; from Fulton superior court—Judge Hamblins. Thomas L. Slapper, Ben C. Williford, for plaintiff. Slator & Hopkins, for defendant.

Montgomery Real Estate and Loan Company vs. Security Mortgage Company et al.; from Atlanta city court—Judge Durey. Hyman M. Morris, for plaintiff. Welborn B. Cady, for defendant.

Standard Accident Insurance Company et al. vs. Kiker; from Fulton superior court—Judge Howard. McDaniel, Neely & Marshall, Harry L. Greene, for plaintiffs in error. Marvin G. Russell, contra.

Southern Pacific Company vs. Davidson-Dixon Company; from Fulton superior court—Judge Howard. Neely & Marshall, Thomas M. Stubbs, for plaintiff in error. Houston White, John J. Poole, contra.

Whitworth et al., administrators, vs. Oliver; from Hall superior court—Judge Sutton. Wheeler & Kenyon, for plaintiffs in error. Lamar C. Rucker, John D. Elliott, R. W. Smith Jr., contra.

Stanfield vs. Darby; from Tattall superior court—Judge Daniel. M. W. Eason, D. L. Stanfield, for plaintiff in error. H. C. Beasley, contra.

Schfield's Sons Company vs. Mabry et al.; from Macon city court—Judge Hall. Brock, Sparks & Russell, Hall, Grace & Bloch, for plaintiff in error. Mabry, Reeves & Carlton, Martin, Martin, Snow & Gillette, contra.

Roddy vs. Stansbury; from Walker superior court—Judge Maddox. J. W. Farley, for plaintiff. McClure & McClure, F. M. Gleason, for defendant.

Strange vs. McCall; from Walker superior court—Judge Maddox. Julius Rink, for plaintiff. F. M. Gleason, for defendant.

Moreshead vs. Holland Brothers; from Whitfield superior court—Judge Pittman. D. W. Mitchell, for plaintiff in error. Oliver B. Hardin, contra.

Couch vs. Federal Trust Company; from Quitman city court—Judge Weston. H. Baum, Alexander & Jones, for plaintiff. H. C. Eberhardt, Franklin & Langdale, for defendant.

Employers Liability Assurance Corporation vs. Mancel Brothers Company; from Newnan city court—Judge Stallings. Boykin & Boykin, for plaintiff in error. Hall & Jones, contra.

Floyd, administrator, vs. Braswell; Tuck et al. vs. Bryant; from Walton superior court—Judge Fortson. Roberts & Roberts, for plaintiffs in error. A. M. Kelly, L. L. Oakes, contra.

Rudcliffe vs. Maddox; from Floyd city court—Judge Pate. Maddox, Matthews & Owens, for plaintiff in error. Porter & Mebane, Hugh Reed, contra.

Judgments Reversed.
Douglas vs. Central of Georgia Railway Company; from Walker superior court—Judge Maddox. Julius Rink, W. M. Henry, for plaintiff. Rosser & Shaw, Maddox, Matthews & Owens, for defendant.

Abernathy vs. News Publishing Company; from Floyd city court—Judge Hale. Porter & Mebane, for plaintiff. Maddox, Matthews & Owens, for defendant.

Cook and Henry vs. Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis Railway Company (two cases); from Floyd superior court—Judge Maddox. R. Carter Pittman, Porter & Mebane, for plaintiffs. Wright & Covington, for defendant.

Smith vs. Moore; from Baldwin city court—Judge Spooner. W. V. Carter & Son, for plaintiff in error. Hay & Gainer, contra.

Terrell et al. vs. Forest Park Consolidated School District et al.; from Clayton superior court—Judge John B. Hutchinson. Olin T. Lester, J. Wightman Bowen, for plaintiffs in error. O. J. Coggin, contra.

Yeager et al. vs. Valley Point Consolidated School District et al.; from Whitfield superior court—Judge Pittman. D. W. Mitchell, for plaintiffs in error. John C. Mitchell, solicitor-general; J. A. McFarland, contra.

Southern Railway Company vs. Hammond-tree (crossbill of exceptions); from Whitfield superior court—Judge Pittman. Oliver H. Harkin, Sapp & Maddox, Maddox, Matthews & Owens, for plaintiff in error. R. C. Pittman, W. E. Mann, W. G. Mann, contra.

Selman vs. Wallace; from Decatur city court—Judge Gause. McDaniel, Neely & Marshall, Harry L. Greene, for plaintiff in error. Breen, Finch & Padgett, contra.

Reversed in Part.
Georgia Casualty Company vs. McBichie; from Bibb superior court—Judge Jones. Jones, Eyles, Powers & Jones, for plaintiffs in error. Hall, Grace & Bloch, Watkins, Ashli & Watkins, S. Holderness, contra.

Hammon-tree vs. Southern Railway Company; from Walton superior court—Judge Pittman. Oliver H. Harkin, Sapp & Maddox, Maddox, Matthews & Owens, for plaintiff in error. R. C. Pittman, W. E. Mann, W. G. Mann, contra.

Rehearing Denied.
Turner vs. Tattall et al.; from DeKalb.

"Nature in the Raw" is seldom MILD

OUTLAW OF THE JUNGLE... "Nature in the Raw"—as portrayed by the great animal painter, Paul Bransom... inspired by the leopard's fierce fighting power and relentless hunt for prey which makes him the terror of every beast of the African jungle.

—and raw tobaccos have no place in cigarettes

They are not present in Luckies... the mildest cigarette you ever smoked

WE buy the finest, the very finest tobaccos in all the world—but that does not explain why folks everywhere regard Lucky Strike as the mildest cigarette. The fact is, we never overlook the truth that "Nature in the Raw is Seldom Mild"—so these fine tobaccos, after proper aging and mellowing, are then given the benefit of that Lucky Strike purifying process, described by the words—"It's toasted". That's why folks in every city, town and hamlet say that Luckies are such mild cigarettes.

"It's toasted" That package of mild Luckies

"If a man write a better book, preach a better sermon, or make a better mouse-trap than his neighbor, the best build his house in the woods, the world will make a beaten path to his door."—RALPH WALDO EMERSON.

Does not this explain the world-wide acceptance and approval of Lucky Strike?

Business View Encouraging, Reports of Shippers Show

Big Increase in Shipments Expected After January 1 on Basis of Encouraging Statements at Session.

Unmistakable signs of business improvement are noted in various reports to be submitted to the annual session of the Southern Shippers' Association Council here today. T. M. Healy, field secretary of the group, which is a division of the American Railway Association, said here Wednesday night.

The council is to hold a one-day meeting at the Ansley hotel.

"Reports from a wide and varied number of businesses are very encouraging," Mr. Healy said. "Though we do not expect anything of importance before the first of the year we feel confident that after January 1 there will be a general increase in shipments of all kinds of products."

Mr. Healy said that in some lines, especially brick and clay products and coal and coke, the increased shipments already are under way.

"A general improvement in the movement of brick and clay products got under way in July and is still in force," Mr. Healy said. "Movements of coal and coke also are growing and I think by October 1 the real winter shipments will be on their way."

The field secretary added that he believed the movement of cotton goods and cotton by railroads also would show an increase in the number of carloadings within the next few weeks.

"Rates have been cut to meet competition and we believe that with the outlook continuing to be good there will be increases in the movements of raw materials and in the finished products as well."

Mr. Healy said the council today would hear similar reports from shippers of road machinery, fertilizer, sweet potatoes, furniture and a large number of agricultural products.

MARATHON TO GIVE HALF OF RECEIPTS TO PENSION FUND

The police pension fund will receive 50 per cent of the receipts tonight at the marathon dance at the Palais Penetree. The police band will furnish a special musical program and there will be other special entertainment features.

Chief T. O. Sturdivant and members of city council's police committee will be special guests.

Half of Friday night's receipts will go to the firemen's pension fund.

Two couples remain in the dance as it approaches the 2,225th hour mark. They are the Walter Cox-Jean Eppley team and the Jack Kelley-Diane Luckey team. Cox Wednesday morning received a point when he was caught napping. A second point before 10:30 o'clock this morning automatically will put him out of the marathon.

TROOPS FROM BENNING HIKE TO CAMP FOSTER

ALBANY, Ga., Sept. 21.—(P)—Headed by three speedy tanks, an outfit composed of 21 officers and 400 Benning troops reached Albany at noon today en route to Camp Foster, near Jacksonville, where they will camp for two weeks.

The unit is composed of the second battalion, first tank regiment; Company P, second tank regiment; Company A, seventh engineers; the seventh ordnance company, and a small medical detachment.

The outfit is in camp at Kalmon Park, west of Albany, and will remain there until tomorrow morning, when they will start for Valdosta, where they will camp Thursday night.

Major Allen F. Kingman was in command of the unit when it reached Albany, but here he received orders to report back to Fort Benning immediately on important court-martial business, and he left Captain Donald P. Spaulding in command.

Major Kingman returned to Fort Benning in an airplane piloted by Captain Lloyd Barnett, air corps, United States army, who brought the soldiers' mail.

LONG SAYS LOUISIANA MAY BUILD NEW BRIDGE

BATON ROUGE, La., Sept. 21.—(P)—Senator Huey P. Long today said the state would take the lead instead of the railroads in the construction of a proposed highway bridge over the Mississippi river at Baton Rouge.

The state would build the bridge here, under present plans with money borrowed from the federal government. Its estimated cost is $5,000,000.

FLYER FACES PRISON IN HOLDUP CONVICTION

OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 21.—(P)—Twenty years' imprisonment faced Charles A. Merritt, handsome 38-year-old flyer, today upon conviction of participation in a daring $75,000 hold-up of a bank messenger on a busy downtown street here three years ago.

A district court jury after only 18 minutes deliberation last night found him guilty despite his alibi plea and fixed his punishment.

Outside for Hour

CAPONE APPEARS IN FEDERAL COURT, ASKS CUT IN TERM

Continued from First Page.

In the Scharton case the court was acting on an appeal in the case of a prisoner who never had actually gone to trial, while in the Capone case it will be called up to act on a writ filed in behalf of a prisoner already tried, convicted and serving a sentence.

Government Attorneys Ready.

Word came from Chicago Wednesday that though the action on behalf of Capone was unexpected the government's attorneys there already were preparing themselves to assist District Attorney Clint W. Hager and Lindsey in combating the plea.

The decision to hear the case on October 19 was made by mutual consent of Leahy and Hughes and Hager and Lindsey.

Capone uttered only one word in the courtroom. It was "thanks," which was more or less muttered to a spectator who had shouted "Good luck, Al."

During his brief appearance in the courtroom the former gang czar centered his attention on his attorneys and the judge, paying little or no attention to the large crowd of spectators which thronged the room.

Leahy and Hughes arrived from Washington Wednesday morning and immediately laid their plea before Judge Underwood, who ordered an immediate hearing. Judge Underwood ordered Marshal Louis H. Crawford to produce Capone and within an hour the gangster was brought from his prison workshop to the postoffice building.

Fee Saw Gangster.

Though the news spread like wildfire over the business district and a large crowd had gathered about the federal building, few saw him enter. The motor car of Warden A. C. Adair was taken around the rear door, through which mail is carried, and the former gangster was hurried into an elevator and upstairs. Once in the courtroom he was kept in a locked prisoners' room until his case, one of nearly a score heard during the day, was called.

After the formality of setting the hearing, Capone was rushed out of the building by the same route he was entered and taken back to prison. The gangster was dressed in the same clothes he wore the night he entered the prison last spring. The suit, rumpled as if it had been tied in a bundle showed signs of misuse, as did his pearl gray hat and shoes. Capone, however, paid little attention to his garb and concerned himself only with what was going on legally in his behalf.

STOCKS, COTTON ADVANCE SHARPLY

Continued from First Page.

position to hold their cotton for better returns.

Dispatches from Liverpool advised of increased short covering there and some advanced buying for Bombay account.

The rally in the security markets was the first sizeable upswing since the market began to dip on September 12 after its summer rise. Apparently heartened by the recent action of securities which, after resisting further liquidation, earlier this week, had become very quiet, buyers put in new orders for stocks, sending "bears" scampering to cover their short commitments.

Sales on the stock exchange reached 1,300,000 shares, against yesterday's total of 1,300,000 shares.

Wall street was encouraged by the appearance of several favorable reports from industry.

Carloadings statements issued by some railroads for the week ended September 17 show a substantial gain over the preceding week, which was interpreted to be of more than usual autumn seasonal proportions.

The weekly electric power production figures registered a slight increase for the week, although less than last year. Between August 27 and September 17, the gain this year was shown in the National Electric Light Association figures to measure 40,000,000 kilowatt hours against 25,127,000 last year.

The weekly steel trade publication, "Iron Age," reported production now stood at 16 per cent, a gain of half a point over last week, but reported that there was "widespread confidence" among consumers and steel manufacturers that the expected autumn buying movement had merely been deferred and would start up definitely this winter.

United States Steel preferred, which had been sold heavily early in the year, was an outstanding performer in the stock market, gaining $10.12 a share net to $82. United States Steel common soared $7.87 to $45.50.

American Telephone raced up $8.25 a share net to $116.50. American Can topped at $57.15, up $6.87; General Electric, $20.25, up $2.02; Westinghouse Electric, $33.75, up $4.75; General Motors, $18.37, up $2.02; and National Biscuit, $42.87, up $3.37.

Farm equipment and mail order shares reflect better prices for commodities. J. I. Case gained $0.75 to $55.75 and International Harvester was up $5.12 to $28.25. Sears, Roebuck and Montgomery Ward advanced around $3.

American Smelting was up $4.75 to $21.75, and Anaconda and Kennecott were among the star performers. In the railroad group of stocks, large buying orders were placed. Union Pacific soared to $80 a share, up 72 cents. Santa Fe at $57 was up $5.62. Southern Pacific, New York Central, Lackawanna, Illinois Central and Delaware & Hudson gained from $3 to as much as $6 a share.

Year-Old Baby Unhurt In Two-Story Plunge

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Sept. 21.—(P)—One-year-old George Middleton probably will be a football player when he grows up.

George, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Middleton, fell two stories through a stairwell in an apartment building here, but doctors today said they found no serious injury.

Atlanta Girls' Friend Given Brief Respite

MOSCOW, Sept. 21.—(P)—Miss Rhea Clyman, British and Canadian newspaper correspondent who has been on a charge of writing false news about Soviet Russia, has been granted permission to return to Moscow from Tiflis to arrange her affairs, but must leave within 48 hours.

Miss Clyman received the order of expulsion while she was at Tiflis on an automobile tour of southern Russia with Alva Christensen and Mary L. de Givie, two Atlanta, Ga., girls. The order was based on a series of articles Miss Clyman wrote for the London Daily Express on conditions in a prison camp in northern Russia.

SHIPPERS CONDEMN U. S. FREIGHT HAULING

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—(P)—More protests against government activities were heard today by the house committee investigating government competition with private industries.

James Barnes, speaking for the Merchant Marine Association, said army transports hauled freight last year valued at $1,100,000 in revenue and $2,000 worth of mail.

He contended this was unfair to private shippers and argued that the freight could be hauled cheaper for the government on privately owned vessels.

Reinstatement Delayed.

JACKSON, Miss., Sept. 21.—(P)—Students at four state institutions of higher learning began the school year this week with knowledge that applications of the four colleges for reinstatement as accredited institutions will not be considered by the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools before December.

EDGE SAILS TODAY WITH PACT DATA

Reed Finds France and Britain "Cautious" on Manchurian Issue.

PARIS, Sept. 21.—(P)—United States Ambassador Edge is starting for home tomorrow to report on negotiations for a Franco-American commercial treaty.

In a few days Senator David A. Reed, of Pennsylvania, also will sail, to report on his conversations with Premier Herriot, Prime Minister MacDonald, of Great Britain, and others regarding disarmament and the situation in the far east.

Both Mr. Reed and Ambassador Edge are expected to participate in the presidential campaign.

The embassy announced this afternoon that Mr. Edge had been summoned to Washington. After consulting with the state department there he will have a brief vacation at his home in New Jersey, returning here later with Mrs. Edge and their children, who have been in Maine this summer.

Authoritative American sources today understood France and Great Britain had given Senator Reed an impression of "caution and reserve" on the Manchurian issue.

It was pointed out emphatically that Senator Reed, who left Paris to-

France, Britain Cautious On Manchurian Problem

PARIS, Sept. 21.—(P)—France and England were understood in authoritative American circles tonight to have given Senator David A. Reed an impression of "caution and reserve" on the subjects of Manchuria and Japan.

This became known as the Pennsylvania senator left for the Riviera after conversations in London and Paris with Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald and Sir John Simon, the home secretary, of Great Britain, and Premier Edouard Herriot, of France.

It was emphatically pointed out that while Senator Reed had no official mission or authority to conclude agreements, he did receive first-hand knowledge in his capacity as a senator.

It was believed the Pennsylvania senator found both France and England "attached to the sanctity of treaties" and displaying as well, "a certain caution and reserve as to what concrete attitudes will be adopted in the Manchurian affair."

With delegates of both nations missing, Arthur Henderson, the conference chairman, openly asserted that limitation of fighting strength among the powers is now more urgent than ever. The conference, he said, has reached its most crucial stage.

FOREIGN DEBT POLICIES FLAYED BY JOHNSON

MODESTO, Cal., Sept. 21.—(P)—Criticism of foreign debt policies of the national government was voiced before the state Federation of Labor here today by United States Senator Hiram W. Johnson, republican, of California.

"Revision of the debt," he said, "is merely another name for ultimate cancellation."

day for the Riviera, had no official mission and no authority to conclude an agreement of any kind, but that he had conversations in both France and England that would give him first-hand knowledge when he discussed international affairs in the United States senate.

SOVIET WITHHOLDS ARMS DELEGATES

Russia to Support Germany's Demand for Equal Armaments.

BY STEWART BROWN.

GENEVA, Sept. 21.—(UP)—Soviet Russia joined with Germany today in declining to send representatives to the first meeting of the disarmament conference steering committee. The soviet government indicated that it supports Berlin's demand for arms equality.

With delegates of both nations missing, Arthur Henderson, the conference chairman, openly asserted that limitation of fighting strength among the powers is now more urgent than ever. The conference, he said, has reached its most crucial stage.

PARA JOINS REBELS IN BRAZILIAN 'WAR'

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil, Sept. 21.—(P)—Rebel headquarters in Sao Paulo circulated reports today that the state of Para and the district of Sao Lourenco in the state of Rio Grande do Sul had joined the rebel movement against the administration of President Getulio Vargas.

Federal reports, however, said the forces operating against the rebels in Paraty sector had taken the city of Cunha.

MEMPHIS SCHOOL ENDS DENTAL WAR BY COMPROMISE

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Sept. 21.—(P)—An agreement was signed late last night, disposing of differences between Memphis dentists and the University of Tennessee's College of Dentistry here that for a time threatened to prevent the school opening on time Monday.

Ten faculty members who had resigned were invited back under terms of the compromise, signed by resident trustees of the university for the school and by representatives of the Tenth District Dental Society and the Tennessee state board of dental examiners.

In other clauses of the agreement, both the dean and the full-time faculty members were prohibited from engaging in private practice and a committee was named to study the college's infirmity in order to determine what patients should be treated there and how it could be made of most service to dental education and to the profession.

MRS. SANDERS' BURIAL TODAY; MATE BETTER

Charles W. Sanders, 13 Peachtree place, who was stricken critically ill with a heart attack Tuesday night almost immediately after the death of his wife, as reported to be much improved Wednesday, though still in a dangerous condition.

The funeral of Mrs. Sanders will be at 11 o'clock this morning at the Spring Hill chapel, the Rev. Ellis A. Fuller and the Rev. A. J. Moncrief officiating.

Burial will be in Crest Lawn cemetery.

Hotel Astor

New York's Hotel of Character

REST OR RECREATION

inside quiet with outside gaiety

ROOMS WITH BATH $3 UP

REB A MUCH-HEARD

TIMES SQUARE NEW YORK CITY

A "stuffy" clogged-up nose robs you of sleep—spoils your day... To clear head quickly—use the new VICKS' Nose & Throat DROPS

Used in time Prevents Many Colds

ASTHMA

A pleasant smoke brings quick relief

When you are suddenly awakened in the night with those choking, gasping attacks so common to sufferers from asthma, just light a Dr. Blosser Cigarette, inhale the warm medical smoke a few times and quick relief will follow. How easy, how pleasant. No tobacco, no habit-forming drugs. Just a pleasant smoke, a safe satisfying medicine. Get a small package today and see for yourself why Dr. Blosser's are so popular with Asthma sufferers. At all druggists.—(adv.)

S.S. Paris

Reduced rates from New York to England and France... First, Tourist and Third Class. Ask any authorized travel agent, or 718 Common St., New Orleans, La. French Line

How Old?

He doesn't look a day over fifty. And feels like forty.

At the age of 62.

That's the happy state of health and pep a man enjoys when he gives his vital organs a little stimulant!

When your system is stagnant and you feel sluggish, headachy, half-alive—don't waste money on "tonics" or "regulators" or similar patent medicines. Stimulate the liver and bowels. Use a famous physician's prescription every drug store keeps. Just ask them for Dr. Caldwell's syrup pepsin.

This appetizing syrup is made from fresh laxative herbs, active senna, and pure pepsin. One dose will clear up almost any case of headache, biliousness, constipation. But if you want to keep in fine shape, feel fit the year 'round, take a spoonful of Dr. Caldwell's syrup pepsin every few days. You'll eat better, sleep better and feel better in every way. You will never need to take another laxative.

Give the children a little of this delicious syrup two or three times a week. A gentle, natural stimulant that makes them eat and keeps the bowels from clogging. And saves them from so many sick spells and colds.

Have a strong stomach, active liver and sound bowel muscles that expel every bit of waste and poison every day! Just keep a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's syrup pepsin on hand; take a stimulating spoonful every now and then. See if you don't feel new vigor in every way. Syrup pepsin isn't expensive.

ENCORE!

All You People Who Missed Sears' Last Thursday Night Party! Couldn't Get In! Didn't Get Served! Were Uncomfortably Crowded! Be Our Guests, Now!

Sears

All Anniversary Bargains on Sale During the Big Party!

46th ANNIVERSARY

NOTICE! Others May Run Competing Sales but Please Remember, SEARS WILL NOT BE UNDERSOLD

If lower prices are quoted for like merchandise, we shall (upon substantiation) meet or beat the prices.

Girls! Let's Reduce!

Rowing Machine $3.46

Nearest competitive price is $6.98. Steel construction—sturdy, strong, perfectly balanced to give co-ordinated exercises to every muscle. We won't stop the men from buying these! They also should cut a figure!

Reg. $8.98 Cowhide Leather Gladstone Bags $5.46

Regulation 24-in. size. Durably made on steel frame. To be had in brown and black. A value that will make you remember this sale for years to come.

Boys! All-Wool Suits, With Knickers $3.46 or Shorts Reg. $7.95

Sizes 4 to 14 years in grays, tans, browns and navies. Be sure not to miss this super-savings on Thursday.

In the Farmers' Market Every Farmer at Every Booth Will Have One Thursday EXTRA SPECIAL

—don't fail to shop this day. Dozens of food-stuffs of the finest quality, offered at important savings for this one day. Stock up for week-end!

Men! Here Are Thrifty 46s!

ATHLETIC SHORTS of good quality, fade - proof broadcloth in assorted stripes and fancy patterns. All features of fine 3 Pr. 46c underwear. Sizes 32 to 44.

ATHLETIC SHIRTS of full combed cotton in a very elastic Swiss rib knit. It's values like these that have made Sears 3 for 46c famous. Sizes 34 to 44.

MEN'S SOX fancy patterns of rayon and cotton in attractive fall colorings. Re-inforced toes and heels, rib knit tops. Sizes 10 to 12. 3 Pr. 46c

FINE SILK TIES hand-tailored in the best manner. Wool lined, new patterns, new fall colors. Really grand ties for. 46c

MEN'S WORK SHIRTS of good, medium weight chambray. Durably made with double sleeves from elbow down. Two flap pockets, metal buttons, triple stitched. A far better shirt than those sold elsewhere at 59c. Sizes 14 to 17. 46c

Women's Bias Cut SLIPS 46c

Flesh, Peach, White

Made of good rayon and cotton taffetas with lovely lace at top and bottom. 46-in. length. Sizes 34 to 44. Grand values!

Full Fashion, Finest Quality 59c Silk Hose, 46c

All new colors in this fine, sheer chiffon hose. Special for one day only!

Priscilla and Cottage Curtains, 46c Pair

Also tailored marquisette flat pairs. The Priscilla curtains are flowered in pastel shades.

70x80 Single Cotton Blankets 46c

These are the softest, loveliest things you ever saw for such a tiny price. Large plaids in beautiful shades of rose, blue, gray, yellow.

"Old Fashioned" Laundered Flour Sacks, 8 for 46c

Every housewife knows the many uses of these excellent, absorbent sacks. We secured a few thousand which we pass on to you at much less than actual cost.

High's 50th Anniversary! Thursday---Crowds Will Exclaim---

Reg. 25c Dr. West's
Tooth Paste

7 for

$1

What a Jubilee Dollar Day Special! Nationally Advertised—nationally used!

HIGH'S STREET FLOOR

What Dollar Day Values

50c Woodbury
Creams, 39c or

3 for $1

Cold cream for cleansing, also facial cream for powder base!

HIGH'S STREET FLOOR

Jergens' 10c Bath Tablets

Yes! 24 big cakes for $1! What a buy! What a Dollar Day value!

Violet, Jasmin, Geranium, Rose and Carnation. When these are gone—you'll have to pay 10c a cake! . . . . .

24 Cakes

25c J. & J. Talcum, 6 for $1

Specially borated for baby! None better than Johnson & Johnson talcum for soothing and protecting tender skin!

60c Djer Kiss Face Powder, 4 for $1

Fine imported face powder. Shades of Rachel, Dark Rachel, Naturelle and white. Buy for yourself—buy anticipating Christmas!

6 Cakes 25c Woodbury Soap } all $1
2 Tubes 25c Woodbury Creams } for . . .

A Positive $2 value! Choice of cold, cleansing or facial cream. Well-known, excellent soap!

HIGH'S STREET FLOOR

Furniture Special for DOLLAR DAY!

$49.50 5-Pc.

Dinette Set

With a Patented Disappearing
Extension
Leaf! $29.95

Don't delay! Genuine walnut dinette set of massive build and sturdy construction. Extension table and four good chairs as pictured.

FURNITURE—STREET FLOOR

Men! Dollar Day Feature!

2-Pants Suits

$15.85

Reg. $25!

Conservative and Young Men's Models!

Every suit all wool—of 15-oz.
worsteds in brown, gray, blue mixtures! Every suit celanese lined.

Sizes 34 to 44.

MEN'S STORE,
HIGH'S STREET FLOOR

One Day Only—Never Again!

Men! Marlboro Shirts

$1.95 to $2.50 Values!

Neckband with TWO Collars—Also

- Collar-Attached Style!
- Woven Madras, Finest Broadcloth!
- Solid White, Blue, Tan, Green; also Stripes, Checks, Dots, Figures!
- Pre-Shrunk—Vat Dyed!

Read that headline again, Men! We'd need a PAGE to do this announcement justice! But the values speak for themselves!
Brand-new, custom-built shirts—Marlboro's finest, tailored to FIT RIGHT! Sizes 13½ to 18. By all means get a supply!

MEN'S STORE—STREET FLOOR

Men's $1 and $1.50
Silk Ties, 2 for Hand-tailored—warp silk

—each silk lined. Moire, Twill, Satin, Faille.

$1.65 Sleeveless
Sweaters

For men—100% pure wool. Snappy models for young men. White, blue, tan, green. Sizes 36 to 44.

35c Shorts and Shirts, 5 for

SHORTS of fine broadcloth, fast color—SHIRTS of cotton yarn or rayon.

HIGH'S STREET FLOOR

Look! Men!

$1.95 and $2.50

Pajamas

Just about a
GIVE-AWAY
price! Chamoi-sette and broadcloth in new fast color stripes and solids.

HIGH'S STREET FLOOR

Men! Reg. 25c

Arrowhead
Socks

7 Prs. for $1

For Men! Fancy designs in bright
new fall patterns and colors.

Men's $1
Unions, 2 for Summer unions—pajama check—full cut and unusually well made.

HIGH'S STREET FLOOR

59c Curtain Sets, 3 for

Two dainty ruffled curtains, a valance and two tie-backs. Think of getting THREE Dollar Day.

HIGH'S BASEMENT

89c Sheets, 81x90, 2 for

Must be LIMITED 6 TO A CUSTOMER. No starch. Full thread count. Deep hems. Get a supply.

HIGH'S BASEMENT

19c Pillow Cases, 10 for

Thrifty women, think how you save Dollar Day!
Full-size deep hemmed cases. Wear for years.

HIGH'S BASEMENT

15c Marquisette, 15 Yds. for 40-inch widths! Fine airy mesh! Re-curtain

TODAY at such irresistible savings. Come early!

HIGH'S BASEMENT

70x80 Blankets, 2 for

Block patterned cotton blankets in blue, rose, green, lavender, or gold. Stitched edges.

HIGH'S BASEMENT

15c Cretonne, 10 Yds. for Beautiful floral patterns. Select from full bolts.

But by all means select early!

HIGH'S BASEMENT

Brown Domestic, 20 Yds. for

Reg. 10c yd! Durable, strong weave. Will bleach out readily. Hurry for your share.

HIGH'S BASEMENT

Full-Fashion Hose, 2 Pr. for Chiffons! Service!

$1

We bought in quantity for this great event! YOU get the savings! Fine quality Chiffons and Service—all new fall shades. Sizes 8½ to 10.

HIGH'S BASEMENT

Buy
and Save!

HIGH'S BARGAIN BASEMENT

The Economy Center of Atlanta

Golden
Dollar
Day!

39c Porto Rican
Gowns

4 for $1

They're hand-embroidered and hand-appliqued, too!
White. Pastels.

HIGH'S BASEMENT

39c Rayon
Underwear

4 for $1

Bloomers, Panties, Step-ins, Vests, Chemises, Tailored and trimmed styles.
Hurry DOLLAR DAY!

HIGH'S BASEMENT

79c Built-up Slips, 2 for

Regular and EXTRA SIZES! French crepe, and broadcloth. Tailored. Sizes 36 to 52.

Hurry!

HIGH'S BASEMENT

98c House Dresses, 2 for Fast color prints made into a wealth of becoming styles. Sizes 36 to 52. DOLLAR

DAY!

HIGH'S BASEMENT

79c Extra Size Undies, 2 for

RAYON! Panties. Step-ins. Bloomers. Combinations. Chemises. Full cut. Varied styles.

HIGH'S BASEMENT

39c Marquisette Panels
Look! 4 for

$1

Curtain TWO windows beautifully for only $1. They're 40-in. wide. 2½ yds. long. With silk fringe. Lovely!

HIGH'S BASEMENT

Clean Sweep---ALL Summer

Silk Dresses

2 for $1

Regardless of Former Prices!

Fair warning—be early—these will fairly EVAP-ORATE at this price! Broken sizes—some slightly soiled.

HIGH'S BASEMENT

Men's Reg. 49c Unions

4 for $1

Here's a value you'll have to see to believe. Splendid quality pajama check unions. Sizes 38 to 46.

HIGH'S BASEMENT

Men's 25c, 39c
Shirts, Shorts

7 for $1

Save from 10c to 24c
each on novelty striped SHORTS and swiss rib SHIRTS.

HIGH'S BASEMENT

Tots' Wool Sweaters, 2 for

Reg. 98c ALL-WOOL slipover styles for little
2 to 6's! Assorted colors. Save!

HIGH'S BASEMENT

Boys' 98c Knickers, 2 for Heavy serviceable mixture of cotton and wool.

Well-made. Fully lined. Sizes 8 to 16.

HIGH'S BASEMENT

Silk Hose, 4 Pair for

EVERY PAIR PERFECT! Medium weight all silk. Every fall shade. Sizes 8½ to 10.

HIGH'S BASEMENT

89c Cotton Spreads, 2 for

Wise housekeepers' favorites! 80x105 wrinkle spreads. Blue, rose, gold, or green.

HIGH'S BASEMENT

$1.59 Rayon Spreads, 80x105

A saving opportunity no wise woman will miss.
Selection of lovely bedroom colors. They'll wear!

HIGH'S BASEMENT

Men! $1.29, $1.59 Work Pants

Khaki, Gabardine, Moleskin and Covert. Sizes for all. Made to stand hard wear. Buy! Save!

HIGH'S BASEMENT

Men's 98c Overalls, 2 for

Just like TWO for the price of ONE. Blue denim.
Practical hi-back style. 32 to 44.

HIGH'S BASEMENT

Men's 59c Work Shirts, 3 for Heavy blue shirts for men who do a real man's work! Full cut, iron-stitched. Sizes 14 to 17.

HIGH'S BASEMENT

Men's 79c Pajamas, 2 for

Share this buy! Excellent quality broadcloth, A,
B, C and D. Solids and stripes.

HIGH'S BASEMENT

Boys' 59c Overalls, 3 for

Made just like Dad's. He'll rejoice in the savings, too. Heavy blue denim. 3 to 16.

HIGH'S BASEMENT

79c and 98c Shirts, 2 for

Men's Broadcloth and Madras!

$1

Fine quality shirts in solid color broadcloth and woven madras in new patterns. Sizes 14 to 17.

HIGH'S BASEMENT

HIGH'S 50th ANNIVERSARY SALE

..... Golden Jubilee

High's 50th Anniversary! Thursday--- Crowds Will Exclaim---

25c Kleenex Tissues

6 for $1

Cleansing tissues for removing all cosmetics. Pastel shades and white.

HIGH'S STREET FLOOR

What Dollar Day Values

$1 Djer Kiss Talcum

2 for $1

Big one-pound tins! Lovely for bath! Ideal for gifts!

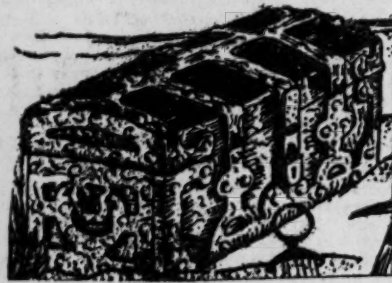

HIGH'S STREET FLOOR

The FIRST Person to Open the

Treasure Chest

WAS—
MRS. R. C. BOWDEN
598 JONES AVE.

Every day a NEW lock—Bring your key to High's—try the lock!

Flannelette Gowns

and Pajamas for Women

Dollar Day Savings!

Regular and extra size gowns—solid colors and stripes—unusually heavy quality warm flannelette. Pajamas in regular sizes—one and two-piece; print trim. Solid colors.

Reg. $1.59 Bias Cut Crepe de Chine Slips

Don't miss this chance! All silk French finish crepe de chine slip at this low price! Lace trimmed top and bottom. Flesh and tearose. Sizes 34 to 44.

HIGH'S THIRD FLOOR

Special! Children's Rain Umbrellas

Excellent buys for every mother with a boy or girl in school. Assorted colors. Fancy handles. Hurry!

HIGH'S STREET FLOOR

Broadcloth Pajamas

Women's! Reg. $1.59

Fast colors—new Fall Prints. Compare—we've never SEEN such good-looking pajamas at this low price! Small sleeve style—one and two-pc. styles. Sizes 15, 16, 17.

Dollar Day Treats!

Broadcloth Smocks

Fast color solids and prints. Breezy new fall styles and colors. Very long. Small, medium and large sizes.

HIGH'S THIRD FLOOR

$2 Boudoir Slip Covers

Glazed chintz boudoir chair slip covers. Fashioned with smart pleated ruffle.

HIGH'S STREET FLOOR

Decorated Trays

Actual $1.98 Bargains!

Sensationally low price! Charming, nickel-trimmed trays you'll be proud of.

Decorated Cookie Jars

Tempting cookie jars with borders and designs to match in yellow, green or gold.

Pewter Salts, Peppers

Two styles—both neat and plain, in good-looking pewter salt and pepper shakers.

HIGH'S STREET FLOOR

New Dresden Mesh Bags

Exquisite woven designs in Dresden mesh. Non-tarnishable frames! Lined.

$1

HIGH'S STREET FLOOR

$1.95 Sterling Pendants

Sterling silver pendants with beautiful stones. Sterling chains. Also brooches.

$1

HIGH'S STREET FLOOR

Samples! Reg. 79c Neckwear 2 for

Lace and washable neckwear in collar and cuff sets and other styles.

$1

HIGH'S STREET FLOOR

Regular 10c Kerchiefs, 20 for

Styles for women, men and children. Large variety of patterns and colors.

$1

HIGH'S STREET FLOOR

$1.50 Imported Fabric Gloves

Clever new fall styles in novelty fabric gloves. Fall colors. All sizes.

$1

HIGH'S STREET FLOOR

49c Felt Base 3 sq. yds. for

Special—cut from the roll at this price—any length you want. Excellent floor covering.

$1

HIGH'S STREET FLOOR

Men's 25c Socks, 6 prs.

Novelty styles! Standard make! New patterns and colors.

$1

HIGH'S STREET FLOOR

5-pc. Reg. $1.39 Bowl Set

Five decorated mixing bowls in sets—green only. Dollar Day feature!

$1

HIGH'S STREET FLOOR

Dollar Day Feature!

Reg. $7.95

New Autumn
DRESSES
2 for $11

Or $5.95 each

Canton Crepes! Ruff Crepes!
Travel Prints! Sheer Crepes!

Woolens!

You'll want TWO for yourself—but if you prefer—bring a friend and SHARE the bargain! Perfectly stunning! Not a single important style idea omitted! Dresses you would EXPECT to pay twice this price for. Styles for all daytime wear.

All Wanted Sizes

HIGH'S SECOND FLOOR

Fur-Trimmed

Actual

$38 to $45

Newest

Coats
$28

Lavish Trimmings of Caracul! Fox!
Marmink! Badger!
Fitch!

How they are selling! The Coat Section is fairly buzzing with enthusiasm! You fashion-alert women who wondered if it were POSSIBLE to find such coat luxury at $28... here's PROOF!

1932 Silhouettes!
Wide Shoulders!
Fall Shades!
YOU Can't Afford to Miss This!

HIGH'S SECOND FLOOR

Children's $1 Unions, 2 for

Sizes 2 to 6 yrs. Well made knitted unions for warm wear.

$1

HIGH'S THIRD FLOOR

Boys' $1.95 Sweaters

All wool! Sizes 24 to 36. Solid colors and blending two-tone effects.

$1

BOYS' STORE,
HIGH'S STREET FLOOR

Boys' $1.95 Suits

Wash Tops!
Wool Shorts!
For sizes 3 to 8! Button-on madras blouses. Warm shorts. Ideal for school.

$1

BOYS' STORE,
HIGH'S STREET FLOOR

Odd Lot Seat Covers

Automobile seat covers for coaches and coupes. For all makes of cars.

$1

HIGH'S STREET FLOOR

Very Special! Beaded Bags

For afternoon or evening. Variety of lovely woven bead bags. Silk lined. Fitted.

$1

HIGH'S STREET FLOOR

79c Rayon Underwear, 2 for

Slips, gowns, combinations, petticoats in reg. sizes. Bloomers, panties, teds, vests, reg. and extra sizes. Flesh, blush.

$1

HIGH'S THIRD FLOOR

Folding Card Tables

Rounded corners. Well braced patented locks. Durable cover for extra service.

$1

HIGH'S STREET FLOOR

7-pc. Reg. $1.29 Mixing Set

Set includes 5 bowls, 1 reamer and 1 measuring cup—green only. Special!

$1

HIGH'S STREET FLOOR

Reg. $1 Brassieres

2 for

$1

Flaming Youth and Cupform. Lace, lace and batiste and combined lace and ribbon. Sizes 32 to 36.

HIGH'S SECOND FLOOR

$1 Silk Hose

2 Pairs for

All Full-Fashioned!
Picot Top Chiffons!

Like presenting each customer with an extra dollar—to sell such silk stockings for this low price! Exquisite chiffons—fine gauge! Smooth, beautiful quality—all new colors.

Specially purchased at less than usual cost to make a feature for Dollar Day!

HIGH'S STREET FLOOR

New Fall Bags Of Real LEATHER!

Amazing values! Those "decorated" bags Vogue says are smartest for Fall! Beautiful new shapes—attractive ornaments—some with zipper fastening. Black or brown.

HIGH'S STREET FLOOR

Girls' Tub Frocks

Sizes 7 to 16

Fast Color Prints!

Dollar Day Super-Special! Mothers, take full advantage of this low price! Fast color prints—New fall styles—decidedly BETTER dresses!

Girls' Sweaters

Sizes 8 to 16 yrs. All-wool—newest fall-knits, styles and colors for school wear.

$1

Women's Sweaters

Sizes 34 to 40. All-wool—clever new knits—popular fall styles and colors.

$1

HIGH'S THIRD FLOOR

$2.50 Oval Bath Mats

All wool! Rose or blue. Serviceable bath mats—will launder beautifully.

$1

HIGH'S STREET FLOOR

16-Pc. Grill Set

Topaz or Green Glass!

As pictured—new square design. Set consists of 4 plates, 4 footed glasses, 4 teacups, 4 saucers.

$1

Metal Vanity Lamps

Attractively decorated lamps in wide assortment of colors. Silk shades. Rose, green, lavender.

$1

HIGH'S STREET FLOOR

HIGH'S 50th ANNIVERSARY SALE

..... Golden Jubilee

THE CONSTITUTION

CLARK HOWELL
Editor and General Manager
Clark Howell Jr., Business ManagerEntered at the Postoffice at Atlanta as second-class mail matter.
Telephone WAL. 4525.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES

Daily and Sunday... $1.00 per week
Daily... $2.00 per month
Daily... $5.00 per quarter
Daily... $15.00 per year
Single Copies... 10c

THE CONSTITUTION is on sale in New York City by J. P. Morgan & Co. Inc. at 230 Broadway and Forty-third Street (Time Building corner). Atlanta: J. P. Morgan & Co. Inc. at 230 Broadway and Forty-third Street (Time Building corner). Atlanta: J. P. Morgan & Co. Inc. at 230 Broadway and Forty-third Street (Time Building corner).

The Constitution is not responsible for the return of money to subscribers who have not received their copies. It is not responsible for the return of money to subscribers who have not received their copies. It is not responsible for the return of money to subscribers who have not received their copies.

Member of The Associated Press.
The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to use for publication of all news dispatches credited to it and also the local news published here.

ATLANTA, GA., SEPT. 22, 1932.

GOOD NEWS FOR NEW YORK.

The decision of Supreme Court Justice McKeehan, of New York, that Mayor McKee is entitled to hold office until January 1, 1934, means, judging from the official steps already taken by Mayor Jimmie Walker's successor, that New York's municipal government is in for one of its most thorough cleanings.

The quiet and scholarly, but evidently forceful and determined, McKee has lost no time in putting the ax to waste and extravagance and in eliminating politics to a marked degree from the government of which he is the head.

Starting his economy drive by lopping $15,000 from his own salary, he has pruned the pay received by various city officials to a point more in keeping with present conditions. Again starting with himself, he has announced that the $18,000 foreign-built automobile which was the pride of Jimmie Walker will go, along with dozens of other expensive cars being furnished to various and sundry department heads and subheads and operated at the expense of the taxpayers.

It is evident that Mayor McKee intends to go to the very heart of the waste and extravagance in the New York municipal government. He has found it difficult to understand, for instance, why the large band composed of members of one of the city departments should be rehearsed and conduct concerts on the city's time. A new central municipal tax service is to be set up and every city employee using one of the city cars must state plainly in writing for what official business it is wanted.

The vigorous stand taken by Mayor McKee should have a healthy effect on government of every kind, state, county or municipal, throughout the country. There is no reason why a public official should be paid any more than he could earn in the business world; nor is there excuse for his being given an automobile for his private and personal use.

The way Mayor McKee is going about being chief executive is the manner in which the head of every government in the country should guard the interests of those who put him in office.

The huge sum being spent annually by the people of the United States for government, make it the biggest business of the country. It should be so directed and it is to be hoped that, for the moral effect in every state in the Union, Mayor McKee will be able to finish his job of serving the people in the same efficient and straightforward manner in which he has started it.

A BISHOP SPEAKS PLAINLY.
The Protestant churches of America may well take to heart the call for a reunited church world sounded by the Anglican bishop of London, following the union of the three branches of the Methodist church in Great Britain.

Expressing the hope that the reunion of the Methodists is only a prelude to the greater reunion of all Christian faiths, Bishop Ingram says:

Why confine this reunited church to Wesleyan and the Church of England? Why should not the Baptists, Presbyterians, Greeks, old Catholics and at last a reformed Roman Catholic church, all join with the million of one holy catholic church throughout the world?

Not in centuries has the church been faced with a more serious crisis in its affairs than has grown up during the past quarter of a century.

To a distressing extent heart service has become lip service with millions of former earnest Christians, and the church is not holding the same appeal to the young as it once did.

Whatever the reasons for the loss in vitality in the church—whether it be that it has not kept proper pace with the changes of modern life, or whether the dabbling of

THE WORLD'S WINDOW

BY PIERRE VAN PAASEN.

Price of Women Down.

The Grand Council of Moslems in Jugo-Slavia has been limited in the price paid for brides among the adherents of the Mohammedan faith in that country. There are about half a million Moslems in Jugo-Slavia. A certain amount of money was placed on the table of the bride's father and if he took it, the young lady was sold, so to speak. She was not married before, but by the way, that is why we can refer to the transaction as selling. The average price until recently was about 10,000 dinars, or for 10,000 you can buy a nice little house with a garden inclusive. Many young men preferred to buy the house and lot. Probably on the famous principle which is well known to all, the price of the world as a woman is only a woman but a good cigar is a smoke.

The Grand Council proposed that women should henceforth be paid for on the installment plan. But this was too obviously a move in favor of the in-laws. The young Believers would have none of it. As a matter of fact, the installment plan frightened them as well it might. Then it was simply decided to lower the price to 2,500 dinars, a quarter of the old capital in-laws' idea. The price of women has become law and then there is going to be a wholesale marriage performance.

There is some hitch, however. The fathers-in-law are dissatisfied. Daughters are no longer being sold, but investment to those people. Four daughters now only represent 10,000, where formerly they meant 40,000. It's a awful call on the part of the fathers-in-law in Jugo-Slavia. We all have to make sacrifices these days.

(Copyright, 1932, for The Constitution.)

Announcement by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation that the way has been cleared for direct relief to the "small fellow" in business, will come as welcome news to business interests which, for one reason or another, have not yet been able to secure the aid contemplated when the finance corporation was created by congress.

The corporation has rendered invaluable service in stabilizing the banking situation and in extending vitally needed aid to large corporations, but so far the benefits have not spread to the rank and file of business concerns to the extent hoped.

Fortunately the finance corporation board realized that its advances have not been receiving the general circulation hoped for and steps have been taken to broaden the scope of the loans made. Now that the plan under which direct loans will be made to the "little fellow" have been formulated, the corporation officials announce that an enlarged corps of business experts have been engaged to speed up this direct relief to companies needing to bolster their finances in order to launch drives for increased business.

Much of the money put out by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation has been used for strengthening and bolstering purposes. That which will be distributed in future will be more generally used for business promotion and sales increase purposes.

As a result the dollars to be put out in future are calculated to have a more reviving and invigorating effect on the economic condition than those loaned with the chief aim of saving corporations on the verge of collapse.

CHINA'S WISEST COURSE.
The suggestion of Sino-Japanese accord in the working out of the Manchurian problems, made by Dr. Heinrich Schnee, German member of the League of Nations committee, which has just returned from the far east, offers by far the wisest course for China to follow in her efforts to retain at least some of her former dominance in the territory of the new Manchukuo government.

So does this one. The instructions for restoring breathing in persons apparently drowned, or victims of gas poisoning, directed by the electric shock include this erratic bit:

4. Stretch his right arm forward, parallel with his body and the left arm for his head to rest on. Face should be turned aside to allow air.

The error is the bending of one arm to place it under the head. Both arms should be stretched out forward above the head. There is neither scientific justification nor sense in lifting the head upon one arm.

The American Red Cross and all other organizations to the contrary notwithstanding. Schaefer who gave this method of artificial respiration to the world directed both arms of the subject's arms be extended above the head, and the face be turned to one side for the entrance of air. Whoever had the idea of this method of artificial respiration one taught by the Red Cross and other agencies in this country, did so without good and sufficient reason.

Believe that the lifting of the subject's head, the twisting of the wrist or forearm may be the straw which turns the scales against success in some instances, and that alone should be enough to cause the error. The Red Cross method of artificial respiration for the change. The lifting of the head tends to interfere with the drainage of any fluid from the bronchial passages.

(Copyright, 1932, for The Constitution.)

Mussolini is writing a book. We confidently make the prediction that all the critics in Italy will be enthusiastic in their reception of it.

We went on vacation for change, but came back without any.

Tortoise eggs require 13 months to hatch—Science Service note. And the outcome is uniformly disappointing—they always hatch tortoises.

Fifty kinds of fish produce musical sounds, we read. The catfish, however, has no scales.

A skeleton of some prehistoric animal recently unearthed in Georgia is said to be 30,000,000 years old. In other words, nearly as old as the idea of a candidate that he can get any office he wants by promising to reduce taxes.

An Alabama woman won a contest by throwing a rolling pin 67 yards. We suggest that her husband go in training for the 100-yard dash.

If all those people who served on Hoover commissions are going to vote the republican ticket this fall, things look rather dark for the democrats.

A housewife in a western state won a national prize for making apple sauce. We hasten to add that no politicians were allowed to compete.

THE WORLD'S WINDOW

BY PIERRE VAN PAASEN.

Price of Women Down.

The Grand Council of Moslems in Jugo-Slavia has been limited in the price paid for brides among the adherents of the Mohammedan faith in that country. There are about half a million Moslems in Jugo-Slavia. A certain amount of money was placed on the table of the bride's father and if he took it, the young lady was sold, so to speak. She was not married before, but by the way, that is why we can refer to the transaction as selling. The average price until recently was about 10,000 dinars, or for 10,000 you can buy a nice little house with a garden inclusive. Many young men preferred to buy the house and lot. Probably on the famous principle which is well known to all, the price of the world as a woman is only a woman but a good cigar is a smoke.

The Grand Council proposed that women should henceforth be paid for on the installment plan. But this was too obviously a move in favor of the in-laws. The young Believers would have none of it. As a matter of fact, the installment plan frightened them as well it might. Then it was simply decided to lower the price to 2,500 dinars, a quarter of the old capital in-laws' idea. The price of women has become law and then there is going to be a wholesale marriage performance.

There is some hitch, however. The fathers-in-law are dissatisfied. Daughters are no longer being sold, but investment to those people. Four daughters now only represent 10,000, where formerly they meant 40,000. It's a awful call on the part of the fathers-in-law in Jugo-Slavia. We all have to make sacrifices these days.

(Copyright, 1932, for The Constitution.)

Announcement by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation that the way has been cleared for direct relief to the "small fellow" in business, will come as welcome news to business interests which, for one reason or another, have not yet been able to secure the aid contemplated when the finance corporation was created by congress.

The corporation has rendered invaluable service in stabilizing the banking situation and in extending vitally needed aid to large corporations, but so far the benefits have not spread to the rank and file of business concerns to the extent hoped.

Fortunately the finance corporation board realized that its advances have not been receiving the general circulation hoped for and steps have been taken to broaden the scope of the loans made. Now that the plan under which direct loans will be made to the "little fellow" have been formulated, the corporation officials announce that an enlarged corps of business experts have been engaged to speed up this direct relief to companies needing to bolster their finances in order to launch drives for increased business.

Much of the money put out by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation has been used for strengthening and bolstering purposes. That which will be distributed in future will be more generally used for business promotion and sales increase purposes.

As a result the dollars to be put out in future are calculated to have a more reviving and invigorating effect on the economic condition than those loaned with the chief aim of saving corporations on the verge of collapse.

CHINA'S WISEST COURSE.
The suggestion of Sino-Japanese accord in the working out of the Manchurian problems, made by Dr. Heinrich Schnee, German member of the League of Nations committee, which has just returned from the far east, offers by far the wisest course for China to follow in her efforts to retain at least some of her former dominance in the territory of the new Manchukuo government.

So does this one. The instructions for restoring breathing in persons apparently drowned, or victims of gas poisoning, directed by the electric shock include this erratic bit:

4. Stretch his right arm forward, parallel with his body and the left arm for his head to rest on. Face should be turned aside to allow air.

The error is the bending of one arm to place it under the head. Both arms should be stretched out forward above the head. There is neither scientific justification nor sense in lifting the head upon one arm.

The American Red Cross and all other organizations to the contrary notwithstanding. Schaefer who gave this method of artificial respiration to the world directed both arms of the subject's arms be extended above the head, and the face be turned to one side for the entrance of air. Whoever had the idea of this method of artificial respiration one taught by the Red Cross and other agencies in this country, did so without good and sufficient reason.

Believe that the lifting of the subject's head, the twisting of the wrist or forearm may be the straw which turns the scales against success in some instances, and that alone should be enough to cause the error. The Red Cross method of artificial respiration for the change. The lifting of the head tends to interfere with the drainage of any fluid from the bronchial passages.

(Copyright, 1932, for The Constitution.)

Mussolini is writing a book. We confidently make the prediction that all the critics in Italy will be enthusiastic in their reception of it.

We went on vacation for change, but came back without any.

Tortoise eggs require 13 months to hatch—Science Service note. And the outcome is uniformly disappointing—they always hatch tortoises.

Fifty kinds of fish produce musical sounds, we read. The catfish, however, has no scales.

A skeleton of some prehistoric animal recently unearthed in Georgia is said to be 30,000,000 years old. In other words, nearly as old as the idea of a candidate that he can get any office he wants by promising to reduce taxes.

An Alabama woman won a contest by throwing a rolling pin 67 yards. We suggest that her husband go in training for the 100-yard dash.

If all those people who served on Hoover commissions are going to vote the republican ticket this fall, things look rather dark for the democrats.

A housewife in a western state won a national prize for making apple sauce. We hasten to add that no politicians were allowed to compete.

Whatver the reasons for the loss in vitality in the church—whether it be that it has not kept proper pace with the changes of modern life, or whether the dabbling of

Not in centuries has the church been faced with a more serious crisis in its affairs than has grown up during the past quarter of a century.

To a distressing extent heart service has become lip service with millions of former earnest Christians, and the church is not holding the same appeal to the young as it once did.

Whatever the reasons for the loss in vitality in the church—whether it be that it has not kept proper pace with the changes of modern life, or whether the dabbling of

The More a Man Hates His Failure, the Less He Likes Those Who Witnessed It

By Robert Quillen

If you wish to win or keep an individual's friendship, never share an experience of which he will feel ashamed.

Some years ago a young man named Smith, having proven his worth as a branch manager, was invited to the metropolis to meet the big men of his company.

Smith was modest, unworldly and innocent of guile. His experience of inquiry had been limited to an occasional glass of illicit brew at the home of a friend; dirty stories shamed and disgusted him; and he promptly deserted any group that began to talk about women.

The big men of his company knew nothing of his private life. Their purpose in calling him to headquarters was to estimate his character and determine his fitness for a bigger job.

At the home office he met the president, the treasurer and the manager and was invited to dine with them.

He drank to the health of a gay evening and Smith did his best to share the holiday spirit of his hosts.

He drank with the president and became equally tipsy; he swapped dirty stories with the treasurer; he talked about women as the manager did.

In short, he hid his own tastes and standards and personality and dutifully kept the pace set by his superiors. He was eager to please.

Next day he was sent back to his small-town job.

The president, the treasurer and the manager had discussed him frankly and decided that he was unfit for higher company.

"He drinks too much," said the president.

"He talks disgusting stories," said the treasurer.

"He talks about women," said the manager.

Of course this was unfair to Smith, but they had to judge him by the little they had seen.

The president had drunk as much as Smith, but such drinking was unbecoming to him. He was ashamed of it and he disliked Smith for sharing his shame.

The treasurer and manager, being tipsy, had told dirty stories and talked about women, but they knew they were gentlemen despite the lapse, while Smith apparently made a practice of such things. Anyway they didn't care to associate with a man who had seen them at their worst. Without knowing just why, they blamed him for their bad showing.

(Copyright, 1932, for The Constitution.)

TALMADGE TO BACK AMENDMENT FIGHT

Continued from First Page.

would not be collected by the state. Judge A. J. Little, of Valdosta, said that if the amendment had been drawn in the office of the public utilities "it couldn't have suited them better."

"We want to make it clear," O. W. Franklin, city attorney of Valdosta, said "that we do not condemn a constitutional amendment which properly classifies property. This piece of legislation is misleading and dangerous. It is a piece of legislation which is actually strikes out five-sixths of the law now on the books."

Freeman Urges Defeat.

Judge Freeman, in offering the resolution to defeat the amendment, said: "The proposed constitutional amendment, which we are considering, if ratified, will prohibit the counties, municipalities and school districts of this state from levying taxes on intangible property, such as money, notes, accounts and stocks. This is the first step in a well-directed campaign that has been and is being waged in Georgia to strip the state of its revenue."

"It will be insisted that the owners of intangible property will honestly return such property for taxation if it can only be taxed by the state and a full tax rate is levied. Intangibles are exempted from taxation and do not honestly return it and it is my thought the best plan to reach such property is to enact laws under which it can be taxed and its owners forced to return it for taxation."

"The people of Georgia are indebted to Hon. James L. Key, mayor of the city of Atlanta, for his important matter to their attention and inviting representatives from all sections of the state to meet in Atlanta to consider the amendment."

The resolution adopted.

"Now, therefore, resolved by the said representatives that it is our opinion that the proposed amendment should not be ratified because its adoption would strip the state of its revenue, deprive the counties, municipalities and school districts of the state for the support of schools and other public purposes, impair the public credit of the state and result in a discriminatory tax in favor of intangibles because such intangibles are exempted from county, municipal and school taxation while the tangible property, such as real estate and intangibles, and further would increase taxation on real estate in order to make up the deficit in levying intangibles from such taxation."

"Resolved, further, that we advise the people of Georgia to vote against the ratification of the proposed amendment and respectfully request the governing authorities of the counties, municipalities and school districts of the state to adopt resolutions opposing the amendment and to urge the voters of their respective jurisdictions to vote against its ratification."

"Resolved, further, that the daily and weekly newspapers throughout the state be and are hereby requested to publish these resolutions and resolutions so that the people of Georgia may be informed of the effect of the proposed amendment and to urge the voters of their respective jurisdictions to vote against its ratification."

"Resolved, further, that a publicity committee of ten be appointed by the chairman of this meeting, of which he shall be an official member, to bring this resolution to the attention of the officials and voters in all of the local tax units in the state of Georgia."

Willis A. Sutton, superintendent of Atlanta public schools and former president of the National Education Association, Wednesday advised Mayor Key he has initiated a fight on the proposed amendment, which would strip the state of its revenue, deprive the counties, municipalities and school districts of the state for the support of schools and other public purposes, impair the public credit of the state and result in a discriminatory tax in favor of intangibles because such intangibles are exempted from county, municipal and school taxation while the tangible property, such as real estate and intangibles, and further would increase taxation on real estate in order to make up the deficit in levying intangibles from such taxation.

Alabama Prosecutor

Ignores Federal Court

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Sept. 20.—(AP)—Because state officials refused to prosecute him in federal court, the case of F. A. McGinty, former-federal agent charged with murder in the slaying last year of A. E. Day, alleged bootlegger, again was continued by Judge Charles B. Kennamer.

When the case was called, District Attorney Arthur P. Chilton requested that the case be continued until the case of McGinty, who was charged with the slaying of Day, was tried in federal court, in which the latter said he had no further interest in the case.

Miss Chilton and W. W. Hill, McGinty's attorney, requested that the case be nolle prossed because of the position taken by the state, but Judge Kennamer said he felt the state should not be allowed to postpone the case a few days longer.

The case was continued once previously. The trial was removed from state to federal court.

Alabama Woman Dies

In Twelve-Story Fall

DALLAS, Texas, Sept. 21.—(AP)—A young woman who plunged to her death this afternoon from the twelfth floor of the Gulf building in Houston was tentatively identified tonight as Miss Eloise Hyatt, 35, of Dallas.

Miss Hyatt, an unemployed stenographer and bookkeeper, came to Dallas about July 1 from Atlanta, Ga., and rented a room in the Gulf building. She was found by a neighbor, Miss Gladys Haden. The sister said tonight she was certain her sister was the woman killed in Houston. She said her sister had been a frequent visitor to the Gulf building and left early today, saying she was going to Houston.

The body will be sent to Atlanta for burial.

FREEDOM SOUGHT FOR W. D. MANLEY

Continued from First Page.

former banker at his trial here, said the application for freedom was made to them and that they knew nothing of Manley's move for freedom. Advice from North Carolina did not reveal the identity of the lawyers filing the writ.

Manley was convicted here on October 24, 1929, a jury finding him guilty on the charge of a second-degree murder in connection with the operations of the Bankers' Trust Company. The banker was tried three times after the indictment was returned.

Manley was taken to the federal prison immediately after receiving his writ. Some months ago he was transferred to the prison camp at Fort Bragg, N. C., where he still is confined and therefore is under the jurisdiction of the federal district court of that section.

The former banker was assessed a fine of $10,000 in addition to the cost of his defense. He became eligible for parole in February of this year, but as far as could be learned Wednesday no effort has been made to obtain his freedom by such method.

COUNTY TO MAKE APPEAL TO R. F. C.

Continued from First Page.

That Paul S. Etheridge as chairman of the board of commissioners, succeeding to the duties of the late Mayor C. C. Chiles, is authorized to execute all agreements and contracts.

In a separate resolution referring to an "understanding and agreement" between the city and the county, the board of commissioners is authorized to ask the city of Atlanta to adopt an ordinance evidencing the city's obligation to the county.

The board of commissioners is authorized to ask the city of Atlanta to adopt an ordinance evidencing the city's obligation to the county.

The board of commissioners is authorized to ask the city of Atlanta to adopt an ordinance evidencing the city's obligation to the county.

The board of commissioners is authorized to ask the city of Atlanta to adopt an ordinance evidencing the city's obligation to the county.

The board of commissioners is authorized to ask the city of Atlanta to adopt an ordinance evidencing the city's obligation to the county.

The board of commissioners is authorized to ask the city of Atlanta to adopt an ordinance evidencing the city's obligation to the county.

The board of commissioners is authorized to ask the city of Atlanta to adopt an ordinance evidencing the city's obligation to the county.

The board of commissioners is authorized to ask the city of Atlanta to adopt an ordinance evidencing the city's obligation to the county.

The board of commissioners is authorized to ask the city of Atlanta to adopt an ordinance evidencing the city's obligation to the county.

The board of commissioners is authorized to ask the city of Atlanta to adopt an ordinance evidencing the city's obligation to the county.

The board of commissioners is authorized to ask the city of Atlanta to adopt an ordinance evidencing the city's obligation to the county.

The board of commissioners is authorized to ask the city of Atlanta to adopt an ordinance evidencing the city's obligation to the county.

The board of commissioners is authorized to ask the city of Atlanta to adopt an ordinance evidencing the city's obligation to the county.

The board of commissioners is authorized to ask the city of Atlanta to adopt an ordinance evidencing the city's obligation to the county.

The board of commissioners is authorized to ask the city of Atlanta to adopt an ordinance evidencing the city's obligation to the county.

The board of commissioners is authorized to ask the city of Atlanta to adopt an ordinance evidencing the city's obligation to the county.

The board of commissioners is authorized to ask the city of Atlanta to adopt an ordinance evidencing the city's obligation to the county.

LEDGORD VICTOR IN PRIMARY RACE

Continued from First Page.

with 93,149, and Lankford had 75,791. On the face of the official returns Hamilton, in a statement issued through Judge A. J. Tuten, his attorney, announced his intention to "prosecute this fight to the very end, if necessary carry it to the floor of the convention in order that the right of the people might be vindicated."

Treasurer Ledford said Wednesday that he had retained his nephew, Claud Christopher, to represent him at a hearing before the state county committee Saturday, when Hamilton plans to make a contest on the county's returns. The popular vote there, as reported by Miss Akin, was Ledford, 205; Lankford, 103, and Hamilton, 70.

Miss Akin said she was reported the nominee for attorney-general. He carried 66 counties with 146 unit votes, to 38 counties for Howie Cobb, with 120 unit votes. Howie Cobb got 45 counties and 114 unit votes, and Gus Huddleston 10 counties with 30 unit votes.

In the attorney-general's race also, the second man got the most popular votes. Cobb's popular vote was 54,497, to 75,791 for Howie Cobb, 25,791 for Duskworth, and 28,166 for Huddleston.

In Georgia, the democratic nomination, which is considered tantamount to election, is based on the county unit vote. Each county has two unit votes as it has representatives in the legislature, and in the state totals, 100 counties and 100 unit votes. The man getting most popular votes in a county gets a county's unit vote.

Treasurer Race Closed.

The county commission showed Eugene Talmadge, commissioner of agriculture, carried 114 of the 150 counties in his race for the gubernatorial nomination. Talmadge got 264 unit votes. Howie Cobb got 120 unit votes, and John B. Huddleston 70 unit votes.

Miss Akin said that it took the county unit vote, the 150 counties to decide the winner of the treasurer's race. Delayed receipt of returns from Clarke and Upon counties held up the official consolidation in all races.

NEWSPAPER HONOR WON BY 'WAR CRY'

Press Association Awards Trophy to Salvation Army Publication.

TIFFIN, Ga., Sept. 21.—(P)—For performing the most outstanding service of the year for the community, the War Cry, Salvation Army publication in Atlanta, was awarded the Rutledge trophy of the Georgia Press Association today at the annual convention of the organization here.

The trophy is donated by W. G. Rutledge, managing editor of the Savannah Press. Special mention was made of the War Cry's editorial aid for the service to the community.

The Tifton Gazette, host newspaper to this year's convention, received two prizes, one for the best printing of letter heads and the other the Bankston trophy for publication of the greatest percentage of local news. For the Bankston trophy, given by W. Ross Bankston, special mention was made of the Cartersville Tribune, the Bartow Herald and the Covington News.

The Lavonia Times won second in the contest for better letter heads, and the Windsor News, third.

The Cobb County Times, of Marietta, was awarded the Hal M. Stanley trophy for the best typographical appearance, and the Dalton Citizen received honorable mention.

The trophy donated by Austin Dean, of the Gainesville Eagle, in honor of his father, the late H. H. Dean, was awarded the Rutledge trophy to the "Shakespeare Right" for its editorial "Shakespeare Right."

Mrs. Nora Lawrence Smith, editor of the Wrensburg Farmer, of Ashburn, paid tribute to the late John H. Herring, editor of the Tifton Gazette, and his family, who are running the paper. She praised the Herring family for the high standard on which they have kept the paper.

Today's program ended with a trip to Albany and Radium Springs. After electing officers and hearing the year's meeting place the convention will adjourn tomorrow.

The motorcade of editors was set in Albany by the staff of the Albany Herald, headed by T. McIntosh, editor, and J. A. Davis, business manager. A short ride over the city followed, after which the editors went to Radium Springs.

Swimming, canoeing and other forms of amusements were indulged in at Radium Springs, followed by a buffet supper served in the casino. The supper was followed by a dance and shortly before midnight the motorcade returned to Tifton.

Georgia News Told in Brief

SAVANNAH, Ga., Sept. 21.—(P)—Arrived: Elizabeth, Miami. Sailed: Tortugas, Norway; Dunkirk, Capetown; Maru, Japan; O. T. Waring, Baton Rouge; City of Birmingham, Boston via New York.

Souls to Speak. ATHENS, Ga., Sept. 21.—Dr. Andrew M. Soule, president of the Georgia State College of Agriculture, has been selected to deliver an address before the joint sessions of the sections on education of the Association of Land-Grant Colleges and Universities at the meeting of that organization in Washington, D. C., early in November. The subject assigned Dr. Soule is, "The Readjustment of Our Curricula to Meet the New Economic Situation."

Home Burns. MONTEZUMA, Ga., Sept. 21.—A fire of undetermined origin completely destroyed the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. King Tuesday morning. The family escaped without injury but nearly everything was destroyed. Loss was partially covered by insurance.

New Chairman. SAVANNAH, Ga., Sept. 21.—A. M. Ormond has been named chairman of the engineers council of the Savannah Chamber of Commerce. He succeeds Major Douglas L. Went, U. S. A., who is being transferred from Savannah, where he served as United States district engineer, to a post in Mississippi river work at Vicksburg. Major Went was given a farewell dinner by the council.

District Delegates. VALDOSTA, Ga., Sept. 21.—Harley Langdale, J. S. Wilkes, H. B. Parramore and D. H. Roberts have been named by Braxwell Dean as delegates to the eighth congressional convention which meets in Alma September 27. Mr. Dean was the successful candidate for congress in this district, defeating W. C. Lankford, present incumbent.

Sumter Delegates. AMERICUS, Ga., Sept. 21.—Delegates have been named to represent Sumter county at the state democratic convention when that body meets in Macon on October 3. They are as follows: George Ellis, J. E. Ellis, J. E. Henry, Henry Clay, John T. Martin, Brown Hodges, E. L. Bell, Sherrod Horne, George W. Wiggins and Frank Timmerman. The delegation was named by Eugene Talmauer, mayor of Americus, and the names were given to the state executive committee by Secretary James A. Fort, of the Sumter county organization.

Beautiful Homes Winners. WAYCROSS, Ga., Sept. 21.—The Lions Club's "Beautiful Homes Cup" for 1932 was awarded today to Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Stephens and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cox, who live on Howe street between Gilmore and Brunel streets.

WIVES Read Carefully

Men suffering from stomach ills caused by gastric hyper-acidity or less serious troubles, or men who are always irritable, despondent, and hard to please. No matter how hard you try to prepare tempting food, the sick man with no appetite, or who suffers after eating, is grouchy and even against his own will is unappreciative. His condition can surely and simply be corrected in a remarkably short time through the use of Von's Pink Tablets especially prepared for the purpose. The above, of course, also applies to women. If you or any member of your family are so afflicted, don't suffer longer. Get Von's Pink Tablets from your local drug store or write today (use postal card) to Atlanta Von Company, 700-D Walton Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for free symptom booklet and other valuable information.—(adv.)

Representative

Marvin G. Pound, who was nominated in last week's democratic primary as member of the state legislature from Hancock county.

CONVENTION IN SIXTH NAMES CARL VINSON

MACON, Ga., Sept. 21.—(P)—The democratic convention of the sixth congressional district of Georgia today formally nominated Carl Vinson its representative in congress and adopted a platform plugging the convention's support to the nominee.

The district's executive for the next two years was organized with J. Ellis Wainwright, attorney, chairman, John D. Watterson, of Eatonton, was named secretary. Members of the committee are from 16 middle Georgia counties.

The convention went on record that "the election of the democratic nominee and the fulfilling of party platform pledges are essential to the revival of business and industry, the restoration of confidence and credit and the rehabilitation of agriculture." The platform of the committee described the present tariff laws as "iniquitous," and favored the passage in its stead a "sane and reasonable law." The convention's resolution also favored the buying power of the people, the federal reserve board, and pledged the convention's efforts toward an expansion of currency so as to increase the buying power of the people.

The convention also favored restoration of agriculture, better financing of farm mortgages through reorganized farm banks at low rates of interest, insurance of bank deposits in national banks and "immediate and drastic reduction in government expense."

TWO WARE OFFICIALS IN VOLUNTARY PAY CUT

WAYCROSS, Ga., Sept. 21.—D. A. Woodward, commissioner of roads and revenues for Ware county, and J. D. Mitchell, clerk of the superior court and clerk of the county commissioners, announce that they will reduce their salaries by one-third beginning October 1.

These reductions in salaries are being made voluntarily following a communication by W. S. Booth, chairman of the Ware County Taxpayers' League. Mr. Booth read letters from these two officials announcing the reduction at a meeting of the Taxpayers' League Monday night. He read also a letter from Judge J. L. Crawford, the city clerk, saying that he would not reduce his salary as the salary reductions do not constitute the substantial method of reducing county expenses.

State Deaths And Funerals

MRS. CORNELIA DAY. AUGUSTA, Ga., Sept. 21.—Mrs. Cornelia Day, 84, member of the prominent Baltimore (Md.) family and for 30 years a resident of Augusta, died here today. She was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Brantley. Funeral services will be in Baltimore.

REV. M. R. LITTLE. LOUISVILLE, Ga., Sept. 21.—Rev. M. R. Little, 72, Baptist minister, died at his home at Watley Monday night. Rev. Mr. Little served as pastor of the Watley Baptist church for 15 years. He was a member of the Mount Vernon, Washington, Episcopalian, and other associations of the denomination in this section of Georgia. He is survived by his wife, and one daughter, Mrs. L. L. Little, Jr., county school commissioner of Wilkes county. The funeral was conducted Wednesday morning at Watley.

MRS. NANNIE A. CLOFFY. AMERICUS, Ga., Sept. 21.—Funeral services were held in Pleasant Grove church, near Americus, today for Mrs. Nannie A. Cloffy, 80, who died Monday at her home near Huntington. The services were conducted by Rev. J. M. Moore, pastor of the congregation. Interment was in Pleasant Grove cemetery. Mrs. Cloffy is survived by her husband, J. W. Cloffy, son, daughter, Mrs. S. E. Wade, of Perry, Ga.; Mrs. R. A. Aldrich, of Atlanta, and two sons, a number of other relatives.

MRS. JAMES W. CASEY. GAINESVILLE, Ga., Sept. 21.—Mrs. James W. Casey, 60, of Gainesville, died at the home of her son, James W. Casey, Jr., in Gainesville, on Monday. Funeral services will be held from the local Baptist church at 4:30 p.m. today, with the Rev. R. D. Hawkins, of Gainesville, in charge. Surviving are her husband, James W. Casey, of Gainesville; seven daughters, Mrs. M. A. Aldrich, Mrs. Claude Thompson, of Gainesville; Mrs. Clara, of Gainesville; Mrs. George Watkins, of Atlanta, and Mrs. George Mills, of Irvington, N. J.; three sons, Gordon, of Gainesville; B. Parks, of Coral Gables, Fla.; and James W. Casey, Jr., of Gainesville. The funeral was held at 4:30 p.m. today, with the Rev. R. D. Hawkins, of Gainesville, in charge. Surviving are her husband, James W. Casey, of Gainesville; seven daughters, Mrs. M. A. Aldrich, Mrs. Claude Thompson, of Gainesville; Mrs. Clara, of Gainesville; Mrs. George Watkins, of Atlanta, and Mrs. George Mills, of Irvington, N. J.; three sons, Gordon, of Gainesville; B. Parks, of Coral Gables, Fla.; and James W. Casey, Jr., of Gainesville. The funeral was held at 4:30 p.m. today, with the Rev. R. D. Hawkins, of Gainesville, in charge. Surviving are her husband, James W. Casey, of Gainesville; seven daughters, Mrs. M. A. Aldrich, Mrs. Claude Thompson, of Gainesville; Mrs. Clara, of Gainesville; Mrs. George Watkins, of Atlanta, and Mrs. George Mills, of Irvington, N. J.; three sons, Gordon, of Gainesville; B. Parks, of Coral Gables, Fla.; and James W. Casey, Jr., of Gainesville. The funeral was held at 4:30 p.m. today, with the Rev. R. D. Hawkins, of Gainesville, in charge. Surviving are her husband, James W. Casey, of Gainesville; seven daughters, Mrs. M. A. Aldrich, Mrs. Claude Thompson, of Gainesville; Mrs. Clara, of Gainesville; Mrs. George Watkins, of Atlanta, and Mrs. George Mills, of Irvington, N. J.; three sons, Gordon, of Gainesville; B. Parks, of Coral Gables, Fla.; and James W. Casey, Jr., of Gainesville. The funeral was held at 4:30 p.m. today, with the Rev. R. D. Hawkins, of Gainesville, in charge. Surviving are her husband, James W. Casey, of Gainesville; seven daughters, Mrs. M. A. Aldrich, Mrs. Claude Thompson, of Gainesville; Mrs. Clara, of Gainesville; Mrs. George Watkins, of Atlanta, and Mrs. George Mills, of Irvington, N. J.; three sons, Gordon, of Gainesville; B. Parks, of Coral Gables, Fla.; and James W. Casey, Jr., of Gainesville. The funeral was held at 4:30 p.m. today, with the Rev. R. D. Hawkins, of Gainesville, in charge. Surviving are her husband, James W. Casey, of Gainesville; seven daughters, Mrs. M. A. Aldrich, Mrs. Claude Thompson, of Gainesville; Mrs. Clara, of Gainesville; Mrs. George Watkins, of Atlanta, and Mrs. George Mills, of Irvington, N. J.; three sons, Gordon, of Gainesville; B. Parks, of Coral Gables, Fla.; and James W. Casey, Jr., of Gainesville. The funeral was held at 4:30 p.m. today, with the Rev. R. D. Hawkins, of Gainesville, in charge. Surviving are her husband, James W. Casey, of Gainesville; seven daughters, Mrs. M. A. Aldrich, Mrs. Claude Thompson, of Gainesville; Mrs. Clara, of Gainesville; Mrs. George Watkins, of Atlanta, and Mrs. George Mills, of Irvington, N. J.; three sons, Gordon, of Gainesville; B. Parks, of Coral Gables, Fla.; and James W. Casey, Jr., of Gainesville. The funeral was held at 4:30 p.m. today, with the Rev. R. D. Hawkins, of Gainesville, in charge. Surviving are her husband, James W. Casey, of Gainesville; seven daughters, Mrs. M. A. Aldrich, Mrs. Claude Thompson, of Gainesville; Mrs. Clara, of Gainesville; Mrs. George Watkins, of Atlanta, and Mrs. George Mills, of Irvington, N. J.; three sons, Gordon, of Gainesville; B. Parks, of Coral Gables, Fla.; and James W. Casey, Jr., of Gainesville. The funeral was held at 4:30 p.m. today, with the Rev. R. D. Hawkins, of Gainesville, in charge. Surviving are her husband, James W. Casey, of Gainesville; seven daughters, Mrs. M. A. Aldrich, Mrs. Claude Thompson, of Gainesville; Mrs. Clara, of Gainesville; Mrs. George Watkins, of Atlanta, and Mrs. George Mills, of Irvington, N. J.; three sons, Gordon, of Gainesville; B. Parks, of Coral Gables, Fla.; and James W. Casey, Jr., of Gainesville. The funeral was held at 4:30 p.m. today, with the Rev. R. D. Hawkins, of Gainesville, in charge. Surviving are her husband, James W. Casey, of Gainesville; seven daughters, Mrs. M. A. Aldrich, Mrs. Claude Thompson, of Gainesville; Mrs. Clara, of Gainesville; Mrs. George Watkins, of Atlanta, and Mrs. George Mills, of Irvington, N. J.; three sons, Gordon, of Gainesville; B. Parks, of Coral Gables, Fla.; and James W. Casey, Jr., of Gainesville. The funeral was held at 4:30 p.m. today, with the Rev. R. D. Hawkins, of Gainesville, in charge. Surviving are her husband, James W. Casey, of Gainesville; seven daughters, Mrs. M. A. Aldrich, Mrs. Claude Thompson, of Gainesville; Mrs. Clara, of Gainesville; Mrs. George Watkins, of Atlanta, and Mrs. George Mills, of Irvington, N. J.; three sons, Gordon, of Gainesville; B. Parks, of Coral Gables, Fla.; and James W. Casey, Jr., of Gainesville. The funeral was held at 4:30 p.m. today, with the Rev. R. D. Hawkins, of Gainesville, in charge. Surviving are her husband, James W. Casey, of Gainesville; seven daughters, Mrs. M. A. Aldrich, Mrs. Claude Thompson, of Gainesville; Mrs. Clara, of Gainesville; Mrs. George Watkins, of Atlanta, and Mrs. George Mills, of Irvington, N. J.; three sons, Gordon, of Gainesville; B. Parks, of Coral Gables, Fla.; and James W. Casey, Jr., of Gainesville. The funeral was held at 4:30 p.m. today, with the Rev. R. D. Hawkins, of Gainesville, in charge. Surviving are her husband, James W. Casey, of Gainesville; seven daughters, Mrs. M. A. Aldrich, Mrs. Claude Thompson, of Gainesville; Mrs. Clara, of Gainesville; Mrs. George Watkins, of Atlanta, and Mrs. George Mills, of Irvington, N. J.; three sons, Gordon, of Gainesville; B. Parks, of Coral Gables, Fla.; and James W. Casey, Jr., of Gainesville. The funeral was held at 4:30 p.m. today, with the Rev. R. D. Hawkins, of Gainesville, in charge. Surviving are her husband, James W. Casey, of Gainesville; seven daughters, Mrs. M. A. Aldrich, Mrs. Claude Thompson, of Gainesville; Mrs. Clara, of Gainesville; Mrs. George Watkins, of Atlanta, and Mrs. George Mills, of Irvington, N. J.; three sons, Gordon, of Gainesville; B. Parks, of Coral Gables, Fla.; and James W. Casey, Jr., of Gainesville. The funeral was held at 4:30 p.m. today, with the Rev. R. D. Hawkins, of Gainesville, in charge. Surviving are her husband, James W. Casey, of Gainesville; seven daughters, Mrs. M. A. Aldrich, Mrs. Claude Thompson, of Gainesville; Mrs. Clara, of Gainesville; Mrs. George Watkins, of Atlanta, and Mrs. George Mills, of Irvington, N. J.; three sons, Gordon, of Gainesville; B. Parks, of Coral Gables, Fla.; and James W. Casey, Jr., of Gainesville. The funeral was held at 4:30 p.m. today, with the Rev. R. D. Hawkins, of Gainesville, in charge. Surviving are her husband, James W. Casey, of Gainesville; seven daughters, Mrs. M. A. Aldrich, Mrs. Claude Thompson, of Gainesville; Mrs. Clara, of Gainesville; Mrs. George Watkins, of Atlanta, and Mrs. George Mills, of Irvington, N. J.; three sons, Gordon, of Gainesville; B. Parks, of Coral Gables, Fla.; and James W. Casey, Jr., of Gainesville. The funeral was held at 4:30 p.m. today, with the Rev. R. D. Hawkins, of Gainesville, in charge. Surviving are her husband, James W. Casey, of Gainesville; seven daughters, Mrs. M. A. Aldrich, Mrs. Claude Thompson, of Gainesville; Mrs. Clara, of Gainesville; Mrs. George Watkins, of Atlanta, and Mrs. George Mills, of Irvington, N. J.; three sons, Gordon, of Gainesville; B. Parks, of Coral Gables, Fla.; and James W. Casey, Jr., of Gainesville. The funeral was held at 4:30 p.m. today, with the Rev. R. D. Hawkins, of Gainesville, in charge. Surviving are her husband, James W. Casey, of Gainesville; seven daughters, Mrs. M. A. Aldrich, Mrs. Claude Thompson, of Gainesville; Mrs. Clara, of Gainesville; Mrs. George Watkins, of Atlanta, and Mrs. George Mills, of Irvington, N. J.; three sons, Gordon, of Gainesville; B. Parks, of Coral Gables, Fla.; and James W. Casey, Jr., of Gainesville. The funeral was held at 4:30 p.m. today, with the Rev. R. D. Hawkins, of Gainesville, in charge. Surviving are her husband, James W. Casey, of Gainesville; seven daughters, Mrs. M. A. Aldrich, Mrs. Claude Thompson, of Gainesville; Mrs. Clara, of Gainesville; Mrs. George Watkins, of Atlanta, and Mrs. George Mills, of Irvington, N. J.; three sons, Gordon, of Gainesville; B. Parks, of Coral Gables, Fla.; and James W. Casey, Jr., of Gainesville. The funeral was held at 4:30 p.m. today, with the Rev. R. D. Hawkins, of Gainesville, in charge. Surviving are her husband, James W. Casey, of Gainesville; seven daughters, Mrs. M. A. Aldrich, Mrs. Claude Thompson, of Gainesville; Mrs. Clara, of Gainesville; Mrs. George Watkins, of Atlanta, and Mrs. George Mills, of Irvington, N. J.; three sons, Gordon, of Gainesville; B. Parks, of Coral Gables, Fla.; and James W. Casey, Jr., of Gainesville. The funeral was held at 4:30 p.m. today, with the Rev. R. D. Hawkins, of Gainesville, in charge. Surviving are her husband, James W. Casey, of Gainesville; seven daughters, Mrs. M. A. Aldrich, Mrs. Claude Thompson, of Gainesville; Mrs. Clara, of Gainesville; Mrs. George Watkins, of Atlanta, and Mrs. George Mills, of Irvington, N. J.; three sons, Gordon, of Gainesville; B. Parks, of Coral Gables, Fla.; and James W. Casey, Jr., of Gainesville. The funeral was held at 4:30 p.m. today, with the Rev. R. D. Hawkins, of Gainesville, in charge. Surviving are her husband, James W. Casey, of Gainesville; seven daughters, Mrs. M. A. Aldrich, Mrs. Claude Thompson, of Gainesville; Mrs. Clara, of Gainesville; Mrs. George Watkins, of Atlanta, and Mrs. George Mills, of Irvington, N. J.; three sons, Gordon, of Gainesville; B. Parks, of Coral Gables, Fla.; and James W. Casey, Jr., of Gainesville. The funeral was held at 4:30 p.m. today, with the Rev. R. D. Hawkins, of Gainesville, in charge. Surviving are her husband, James W. Casey, of Gainesville; seven daughters, Mrs. M. A. Aldrich, Mrs. Claude Thompson, of Gainesville; Mrs. Clara, of Gainesville; Mrs. George Watkins, of Atlanta, and Mrs. George Mills, of Irvington, N. J.; three sons, Gordon, of Gainesville; B. Parks, of Coral Gables, Fla.; and James W. Casey, Jr., of Gainesville. The funeral was held at 4:30 p.m. today, with the Rev. R. D. Hawkins, of Gainesville, in charge. Surviving are her husband, James W. Casey, of Gainesville; seven daughters, Mrs. M. A. Aldrich, Mrs. Claude Thompson, of Gainesville; Mrs. Clara, of Gainesville; Mrs. George Watkins, of Atlanta, and Mrs. George Mills, of Irvington, N. J.; three sons, Gordon, of Gainesville; B. Parks, of Coral Gables, Fla.; and James W. Casey, Jr., of Gainesville. The funeral was held at 4:30 p.m. today, with the Rev. R. D. Hawkins, of Gainesville, in charge. Surviving are her husband, James W. Casey, of Gainesville; seven daughters, Mrs. M. A. Aldrich, Mrs. Claude Thompson, of Gainesville; Mrs. Clara, of Gainesville; Mrs. George Watkins, of Atlanta, and Mrs. George Mills, of Irvington, N. J.; three sons, Gordon, of Gainesville; B. Parks, of Coral Gables, Fla.; and James W. Casey, Jr., of Gainesville. The funeral was held at 4:30 p.m. today, with the Rev. R. D. Hawkins, of Gainesville, in charge. Surviving are her husband, James W. Casey, of Gainesville; seven daughters, Mrs. M. A. Aldrich, Mrs. Claude Thompson, of Gainesville; Mrs. Clara, of Gainesville; Mrs. George Watkins, of Atlanta, and Mrs. George Mills, of Irvington, N. J.; three sons, Gordon, of Gainesville; B. Parks, of Coral Gables, Fla.; and James W. Casey, Jr., of Gainesville. The funeral was held at 4:30 p.m. today, with the Rev. R. D. Hawkins, of Gainesville, in charge. Surviving are her husband, James W. Casey, of Gainesville; seven daughters, Mrs. M. A. Aldrich, Mrs. Claude Thompson, of Gainesville; Mrs. Clara, of Gainesville; Mrs. George Watkins, of Atlanta, and Mrs. George Mills, of Irvington, N. J.; three sons, Gordon, of Gainesville; B. Parks, of Coral Gables, Fla.; and James W. Casey, Jr., of Gainesville. The funeral was held at 4:30 p.m. today, with the Rev. R. D. Hawkins, of Gainesville, in charge. Surviving are her husband, James W. Casey, of Gainesville; seven daughters, Mrs. M. A. Aldrich, Mrs. Claude Thompson, of Gainesville; Mrs. Clara, of Gainesville; Mrs. George Watkins, of Atlanta, and Mrs. George Mills, of Irvington, N. J.; three sons, Gordon, of Gainesville; B. Parks, of Coral Gables, Fla.; and James W. Casey, Jr., of Gainesville. The funeral was held at 4:30 p.m. today, with the Rev. R. D. Hawkins, of Gainesville, in charge. Surviving are her husband, James W. Casey, of Gainesville; seven daughters, Mrs. M. A. Aldrich, Mrs. Claude Thompson, of Gainesville; Mrs. Clara, of Gainesville; Mrs. George Watkins, of Atlanta, and Mrs. George Mills, of Irvington, N. J.; three sons, Gordon, of Gainesville; B. Parks, of Coral Gables, Fla.; and James W. Casey, Jr., of Gainesville. The funeral was held at 4:30 p.m. today, with the Rev. R. D. Hawkins, of Gainesville, in charge. Surviving are her husband, James W. Casey, of Gainesville; seven daughters, Mrs. M. A. Aldrich, Mrs. Claude Thompson, of Gainesville; Mrs. Clara, of Gainesville; Mrs. George Watkins, of Atlanta, and Mrs. George Mills, of Irvington, N. J.; three sons, Gordon, of Gainesville; B. Parks, of Coral Gables, Fla.; and James W. Casey, Jr., of Gainesville. The funeral was held at 4:30 p.m. today, with the Rev. R. D. Hawkins, of Gainesville, in charge. Surviving are her husband, James W. Casey, of Gainesville; seven daughters, Mrs. M. A. Aldrich, Mrs. Claude Thompson, of Gainesville; Mrs. Clara, of Gainesville; Mrs. George Watkins, of Atlanta, and Mrs. George Mills, of Irvington, N. J.; three sons, Gordon, of Gainesville; B. Parks, of Coral Gables, Fla.; and James W. Casey, Jr., of Gainesville. The funeral was held at 4:30 p.m. today, with the Rev. R. D. Hawkins, of Gainesville, in charge. Surviving are her husband, James W. Casey, of Gainesville; seven daughters, Mrs. M. A. Aldrich, Mrs. Claude Thompson, of Gainesville; Mrs. Clara, of Gainesville; Mrs. George Watkins, of Atlanta, and Mrs. George Mills, of Irvington, N. J.; three sons, Gordon, of Gainesville; B. Parks, of Coral Gables, Fla.; and James W. Casey, Jr., of Gainesville. The funeral was held at 4:30 p.m. today, with the Rev. R. D. Hawkins, of Gainesville, in charge. Surviving are her husband, James W. Casey, of Gainesville; seven daughters, Mrs. M. A. Aldrich, Mrs. Claude Thompson, of Gainesville; Mrs. Clara, of Gainesville; Mrs. George Watkins, of Atlanta, and Mrs. George Mills, of Irvington, N. J.; three sons, Gordon, of Gainesville; B. Parks, of Coral Gables, Fla.; and James W. Casey, Jr., of Gainesville. The funeral was held at 4:30 p.m. today, with the Rev. R. D. Hawkins, of Gainesville, in charge. Surviving are her husband, James W. Casey, of Gainesville; seven daughters, Mrs. M. A. Aldrich, Mrs. Claude Thompson, of Gainesville; Mrs. Clara, of Gainesville; Mrs. George Watkins, of Atlanta, and Mrs. George Mills, of Irvington, N. J.; three sons, Gordon, of Gainesville; B. Parks, of Coral Gables, Fla.; and James W. Casey, Jr., of Gainesville. The funeral was held at 4:30 p.m. today, with the Rev. R. D. Hawkins, of Gainesville, in charge. Surviving are her husband, James W. Casey, of Gainesville; seven daughters, Mrs. M. A. Aldrich, Mrs. Claude Thompson, of Gainesville; Mrs. Clara, of Gainesville; Mrs. George Watkins, of Atlanta, and Mrs. George Mills, of Irvington, N. J.; three sons, Gordon, of Gainesville; B. Parks, of Coral Gables, Fla.; and James W. Casey, Jr., of Gainesville. The funeral was held at 4:30 p.m. today, with the Rev. R. D. Hawkins, of Gainesville, in charge. Surviving are her husband, James W. Casey, of Gainesville; seven daughters, Mrs. M. A. Aldrich, Mrs. Claude Thompson, of Gainesville; Mrs. Clara, of Gainesville; Mrs. George Watkins, of Atlanta, and Mrs. George Mills, of Irvington, N. J.; three sons, Gordon, of Gainesville; B. Parks, of Coral Gables, Fla.; and James W. Casey, Jr., of Gainesville. The funeral was held at 4:30 p.m. today, with the Rev. R. D. Hawkins, of Gainesville, in charge. Surviving are her husband, James W. Casey, of Gainesville; seven daughters, Mrs. M. A. Aldrich, Mrs. Claude Thompson, of Gainesville; Mrs. Clara, of Gainesville; Mrs. George Watkins, of Atlanta, and Mrs. George Mills, of Irvington, N. J.; three sons, Gordon, of Gainesville; B. Parks, of Coral Gables, Fla.; and James W. Casey, Jr., of Gainesville. The funeral was held at 4:30 p.m. today, with the Rev. R. D. Hawkins, of Gainesville, in charge. Surviving are her husband, James W. Casey, of Gainesville; seven daughters, Mrs. M. A. Aldrich, Mrs. Claude Thompson, of Gainesville; Mrs. Clara, of Gainesville; Mrs. George Watkins, of Atlanta, and Mrs. George Mills, of Irvington, N. J.; three sons, Gordon, of Gainesville; B. Parks, of Coral Gables, Fla.; and James W. Casey, Jr., of Gainesville. The funeral was held at 4:30 p.m. today, with the Rev. R. D. Hawkins, of Gainesville, in charge. Surviving are her husband, James W. Casey, of Gainesville; seven daughters, Mrs. M. A. Aldrich, Mrs. Claude Thompson, of Gainesville; Mrs. Clara, of Gainesville; Mrs. George Watkins, of Atlanta, and Mrs. George Mills, of Irvington, N. J.; three sons, Gordon, of Gainesville; B. Parks, of Coral Gables, Fla.; and James W. Casey, Jr., of Gainesville. The funeral was held at 4:30 p.m. today, with the Rev. R. D. Hawkins, of Gainesville, in charge. Surviving are her husband, James W. Casey, of Gainesville; seven daughters, Mrs. M. A. Aldrich, Mrs. Claude Thompson, of Gainesville; Mrs. Clara, of Gainesville; Mrs. George Watkins, of Atlanta, and Mrs. George Mills, of Irvington, N. J.; three sons, Gordon, of Gainesville; B. Parks, of Coral Gables, Fla.; and James W. Casey, Jr., of Gainesville. The funeral was held at 4:30 p.m. today, with the Rev. R. D. Hawkins, of Gainesville, in charge. Surviving are her husband, James W. Casey, of Gainesville; seven daughters, Mrs. M. A. Aldrich, Mrs. Claude Thompson, of Gainesville; Mrs. Clara, of Gainesville; Mrs. George Watkins, of Atlanta, and Mrs. George Mills, of Irvington, N. J.; three sons, Gordon, of Gainesville; B. Parks, of Coral Gables, Fla.; and James W. Casey, Jr., of Gainesville. The funeral was held at 4:30 p.m. today, with the Rev. R. D. Hawkins, of Gainesville, in charge. Surviving are her husband, James W. Casey, of Gainesville; seven daughters, Mrs. M. A. Aldrich, Mrs. Claude Thompson, of Gainesville; Mrs. Clara, of Gainesville; Mrs. George Watkins, of Atlanta, and Mrs. George Mills, of Irvington, N. J.; three sons, Gordon, of Gainesville; B. Parks, of Coral Gables, Fla.; and James W. Casey, Jr., of Gainesville. The funeral was held at 4:30 p.m. today, with the Rev. R. D. Hawkins, of Gainesville, in charge. Surviving are her husband, James W. Casey, of Gainesville; seven daughters, Mrs. M. A. Aldrich, Mrs. Claude Thompson, of Gainesville; Mrs. Clara, of Gainesville; Mrs. George Watkins, of Atlanta, and Mrs. George Mills, of Irvington, N. J.; three sons, Gordon, of Gainesville; B. Parks, of Coral Gables, Fla.; and James W. Casey, Jr., of Gainesville. The funeral was held at 4:30 p.m. today, with the Rev. R. D. Hawkins, of Gainesville, in charge. Surviving are her husband, James W. Casey, of Gainesville; seven daughters, Mrs. M. A. Aldrich, Mrs. Claude Thompson, of Gainesville; Mrs. Clara, of Gainesville; Mrs. George Watkins, of Atlanta, and Mrs. George Mills, of Irvington, N. J.; three sons, Gordon, of Gainesville; B. Parks, of Coral Gables, Fla.; and James W. Casey, Jr., of Gainesville. The funeral was held at 4:30 p.m. today, with the Rev. R. D. Hawkins, of Gainesville, in charge. Surviving are her husband, James W. Casey, of Gainesville; seven daughters, Mrs. M. A. Aldrich, Mrs. Claude Thompson, of Gainesville; Mrs. Clara, of Gainesville; Mrs. George Watkins, of Atlanta, and Mrs. George Mills, of Irvington, N. J.; three sons, Gordon, of Gainesville; B. Parks, of Coral Gables, Fla.; and James W. Casey, Jr., of Gainesville. The funeral was held at 4:30 p.m. today, with the Rev. R. D. Hawkins, of Gainesville, in charge. Surviving are her husband, James W. Casey, of Gainesville; seven daughters, Mrs. M. A. Aldrich, Mrs. Claude Thompson, of Gainesville; Mrs. Clara, of Gainesville; Mrs. George Watkins, of Atlanta, and Mrs. George Mills, of Irvington, N. J.; three sons, Gordon, of Gainesville; B. Parks, of Coral Gables, Fla.; and James W. Casey, Jr., of Gainesville. The funeral was held at 4:30 p.m. today, with the Rev. R. D. Hawkins, of Gainesville, in charge. Surviving are her husband, James W. Casey, of Gainesville; seven daughters, Mrs. M. A. Aldrich, Mrs. Claude Thompson, of Gainesville; Mrs. Clara, of Gainesville; Mrs. George Watkins, of Atlanta, and Mrs. George Mills, of Irvington, N. J.; three sons, Gordon, of Gainesville; B. Parks, of Coral Gables, Fla.; and James W. Casey, Jr., of Gainesville. The funeral was held at 4:30 p.m. today, with the Rev. R. D. Hawkins, of Gainesville, in charge. Surviving are her husband, James W. Casey, of Gainesville; seven daughters, Mrs. M. A. Aldrich, Mrs. Claude Thompson, of Gainesville; Mrs. Clara, of Gainesville; Mrs. George Watkins, of Atlanta, and Mrs. George Mills, of Irvington, N. J.; three sons, Gordon, of Gainesville; B. Parks, of Coral Gables, Fla.; and James W. Casey, Jr., of Gainesville. The funeral was held at 4:30 p.m. today, with the Rev. R. D. Hawkins, of Gainesville, in charge. Surviving are her husband, James W. Casey, of Gainesville; seven daughters, Mrs. M. A. Aldrich, Mrs. Claude Thompson, of Gainesville; Mrs. Clara, of Gainesville; Mrs. George Watkins, of Atlanta, and Mrs. George Mills, of Irvington, N. J.; three sons, Gordon, of Gainesville; B. Parks, of Coral Gables, Fla.; and James W. Casey, Jr., of Gainesville. The funeral was held at 4:30 p.m. today, with the Rev. R. D. Hawkins, of Gainesville, in charge. Surviving are her husband, James W. Casey, of Gainesville; seven daughters, Mrs. M. A. Aldrich, Mrs. Claude Thompson, of Gainesville; Mrs. Clara, of Gainesville; Mrs. George Watkins, of Atlanta, and Mrs. George Mills, of Irvington, N. J.; three sons, Gordon, of Gainesville; B. Parks, of Coral Gables, Fla.; and James W. Casey, Jr., of Gainesville. The funeral was held at 4:30 p.m. today, with the Rev. R. D. Hawkins, of Gainesville, in charge. Surviving are her husband, James W. Casey, of Gainesville; seven daughters, Mrs. M. A. Aldrich, Mrs. Claude Thompson, of Gainesville; Mrs. Clara, of Gainesville; Mrs. George Watkins, of Atlanta, and Mrs. George Mills, of Irvington, N. J.; three sons, Gordon, of Gainesville; B. Parks, of Coral Gables, Fla.; and James W. Casey, Jr., of Gainesville. The funeral was held at 4:30 p.m. today, with the Rev. R. D. Hawkins, of Gainesville, in charge. Surviving are her husband, James W. Casey, of Gainesville; seven daughters, Mrs. M. A. Aldrich, Mrs. Claude Thompson, of Gainesville; Mrs. Clara, of Gainesville; Mrs. George Watkins, of Atlanta, and Mrs. George Mills, of Irvington, N. J.; three sons, Gordon, of Gainesville; B. Parks, of Coral Gables, Fla.; and James W. Casey, Jr., of Gainesville. The funeral was held at 4:30 p.m. today, with the Rev. R. D. Hawkins, of Gainesville, in charge. Surviving are her husband, James W. Casey, of Gainesville; seven daughters, Mrs. M. A. Aldrich, Mrs. Claude Thompson, of Gainesville; Mrs. Clara, of Gainesville; Mrs. George Watkins, of Atlanta, and Mrs. George Mills, of Irvington, N. J.; three sons, Gordon, of Gainesville; B. Parks, of Coral Gables, Fla.; and James W. Casey, Jr., of Gainesville. The funeral was held at 4:30 p.m. today, with the Rev. R. D. Hawkins, of Gainesville, in charge. Surviving are her husband, James W. Casey, of Gainesville; seven daughters, Mrs. M. A. Aldrich, Mrs. Claude Thompson, of Gainesville; Mrs. Clara, of Gainesville; Mrs. George Watkins, of Atlanta, and Mrs. George Mills, of Irvington, N. J.; three sons, Gordon, of Gainesville; B. Parks, of Coral Gables, Fla.; and James W. Casey, Jr., of Gainesville. The funeral was held at 4:30 p.m. today, with the Rev. R. D. Hawkins, of Gainesville, in charge. Surviving are her husband, James W. Casey, of Gainesville; seven daughters, Mrs. M. A. Aldrich, Mrs. Claude Thompson, of Gainesville; Mrs. Clara, of Gainesville; Mrs. George Watkins, of Atlanta, and Mrs. George Mills, of Irvington, N. J.; three sons, Gordon, of Gainesville; B. Parks, of Coral Gables, Fla.; and James W. Casey, Jr., of Gainesville. The funeral was held at 4:30 p.m. today, with the Rev. R. D. Hawkins, of Gainesville, in charge. Surviving are her husband, James W. Casey, of Gainesville; seven daughters, Mrs. M. A. Aldrich, Mrs. Claude Thompson, of Gainesville; Mrs. Clara, of Gainesville; Mrs. George Watkins, of Atlanta, and Mrs. George Mills, of Irvington, N. J.; three sons, Gordon, of Gainesville; B. Parks, of Coral Gables, Fla.; and James W. Casey, Jr., of Gainesville. The funeral was held at 4:30 p.m. today, with the Rev. R. D. Hawkins, of Gainesville, in charge. Surviving are her husband, James W. Casey, of Gainesville; seven daughters, Mrs. M. A. Aldrich, Mrs. Claude Thompson, of Gainesville; Mrs. Clara, of Gainesville; Mrs. George Watkins, of Atlanta, and Mrs. George Mills, of Irvington, N. J.; three sons, Gordon, of Gainesville; B. Parks, of Coral Gables, Fla.; and James W. Casey, Jr., of Gainesville. The funeral was held at 4:30 p.m. today, with the Rev. R. D. Hawkins, of Gainesville, in charge. Surviving are her husband, James W. Casey, of Gainesville; seven daughters, Mrs. M. A. Aldrich, Mrs. Claude Thompson, of Gainesville; Mrs. Clara, of Gainesville; Mrs. George Watkins, of Atlanta, and Mrs. George Mills, of Irvington, N. J.; three sons, Gordon, of Gainesville; B. Parks, of Coral Gables, Fla.; and James W. Casey, Jr., of Gainesville. The funeral was held at 4:30 p.m. today, with the Rev. R. D. Hawkins, of Gainesville, in charge. Surviving are her husband, James W. Casey, of Gainesville; seven daughters, Mrs. M. A. Aldrich, Mrs. Claude Thompson, of Gainesville; Mrs. Clara, of Gainesville; Mrs. George Watkins, of Atlanta, and Mrs. George Mills, of Irvington, N. J.; three sons, Gordon, of Gainesville; B. Parks, of Coral Gables, Fla.; and James W. Casey, Jr., of Gainesville. The funeral was held at 4:30 p.m. today, with the Rev. R. D. Hawkins, of Gainesville, in charge. Surviving are her husband, James W. Casey, of Gainesville; seven daughters, Mrs. M. A. Aldrich, Mrs. Claude Thompson, of Gainesville; Mrs. Clara, of Gainesville; Mrs. George Watkins, of Atlanta, and Mrs. George Mills, of Irvington, N. J.; three sons, Gordon, of Gainesville; B. Parks, of Coral Gables, Fla.; and James W. Casey, Jr., of Gainesville. The funeral was held at 4:30 p.m. today, with the Rev. R. D. Hawkins, of Gainesville, in charge. Surviving are her husband, James W. Casey, of Gainesville; seven daughters, Mrs. M. A. Aldrich, Mrs. Claude Thompson, of Gainesville; Mrs. Clara, of Gainesville; Mrs. George Watkins, of Atlanta, and Mrs. George Mills, of Irvington, N. J.; three sons, Gordon, of Gainesville; B. Parks, of Coral Gables, Fla.; and James W. Casey, Jr., of Gainesville. The funeral was held at 4:30 p.m. today, with the Rev. R. D. Hawkins, of Gainesville, in charge. Surviving are her husband, James W. Casey, of Gainesville; seven daughters, Mrs. M. A. Aldrich, Mrs. Claude Thompson, of Gainesville; Mrs. Clara, of Gainesville; Mrs. George Watkins, of Atlanta, and Mrs. George Mills, of Irvington, N. J.; three sons, Gordon, of Gainesville; B. Parks, of Coral Gables, Fla.; and James W. Casey, Jr., of Gainesville. The funeral was held at 4:30 p.m. today, with the Rev. R. D. Hawkins, of Gainesville, in charge. Surviving are her husband, James W. Casey, of Gainesville; seven daughters, Mrs. M. A. Aldrich, Mrs. Claude Thompson, of Gainesville; Mrs. Clara, of Gainesville; Mrs. George Watkins, of Atlanta, and Mrs. George Mills, of Irvington, N. J.; three sons, Gordon, of Gainesville; B. Parks, of Coral Gables, Fla.; and James W. Casey, Jr., of Gainesville. The funeral was held at 4:30 p.m. today, with the Rev. R. D. Hawkins, of Gainesville, in charge. Surviving are her husband, James W. Casey, of Gainesville; seven daughters, Mrs. M. A. Aldrich, Mrs. Claude Thompson, of Gainesville; Mrs. Clara, of Gainesville; Mrs. George Watkins, of Atlanta, and Mrs. George Mills, of Irvington, N. J.; three sons, Gordon, of Gainesville; B. Parks, of Coral Gables, Fla.; and James W. Casey, Jr., of Gainesville. The funeral was held at 4:30 p.m. today, with the Rev. R. D. Hawkins, of Gainesville, in charge. Surviving are her husband, James W. Casey, of Gainesville; seven daughters, Mrs. M. A. Aldrich, Mrs. Claude Thompson, of Gainesville; Mrs. Clara, of Gainesville; Mrs. George Watkins, of Atlanta, and Mrs. George Mills, of Irvington, N. J.; three sons, Gordon, of Gainesville; B. Parks, of Coral Gables, Fla.; and James W. Casey, Jr., of Gainesville. The funeral was held at 4:30 p.m. today, with the Rev. R. D. Hawkins, of Gainesville, in charge. Surviving are her husband, James W. Casey, of Gainesville; seven daughters, Mrs. M. A. Aldrich, Mrs. Claude Thompson, of Gainesville; Mrs. Clara, of Gainesville; Mrs. George Watkins, of Atlanta, and Mrs. George Mills, of Irvington, N. J.; three sons, Gordon, of Gainesville; B. Parks, of Coral Gables, Fla.; and James W. Casey, Jr., of Gainesville. The funeral was held at 4:30 p.m. today, with the Rev. R. D. Hawkins, of Gainesville, in charge. Surviving are her husband, James W. Casey, of Gainesville; seven daughters, Mrs. M. A. Aldrich, Mrs. Claude Thompson, of Gainesville; Mrs. Clara, of Gainesville; Mrs. George Watkins, of Atlanta, and Mrs. George Mills, of Irvington, N. J.; three sons, Gordon, of Gainesville; B. Parks, of Coral Gables, Fla.; and James W. Casey, Jr., of Gainesville. The funeral was held at 4:30 p.m. today, with the

Child Welfare Report Read To Association By Miss Newell

The report of Miss Mary Newell, executive secretary of the Child Welfare Association to the board of directors at the September meeting brought memories to many of the members of Lester's book store the first day of school. Miss Newell told graphically of the gathering of the children who were beginning school and their boarding mothers as they came for supplies to the rooms of the association.

While books are had through the school, the supplies are left for parents to purchase, and since the welfare association is in loco parentis regarding all monetary outlay and the boarding mothers are the wonderful substitute mothers for the erstwhile motherless wards of the association, it took the combined efforts to equip the 80 children for the new school term. There were pencils, hard and soft lead, drawing materials, paper, pens, erasers, crayons, all the exciting equipment that the child himself uses. Possibly that is why it is more thrilling than books, one doesn't have a chance to make or do something with one's own hand with a completely finished product like a book!

Around these "boarding mothers," centers the entire work of the Child Welfare Association, for were it not for the willingness of these women to accept and care for the forlorn waifs the children would never have the chance to approximate the natural home living that is the divine right of every human being born into the world.

While the association, through its funds of Community Chest, county and city, takes all the children it can afford, there are many by way of being left behind, many that come knocking at the door of relief and are rebuffed by reason of "no funds," the entrance that might reconstruct their lives by the sad news of "no funds." Sometimes there are family connections and friends who are able to pay board but for some reason or other are not equipped to keep the child. If so, the Child Welfare Association has a list of homes ready to care for some of these children. Many times there is a father who can pay something toward the board of his child but has no way of keeping a home for it; sometimes friends or interested persons. Contributions to the Chest is the best way to ease these situations . . . contribute and save the moral as well as physical life of a child!

Colonial Club Gives Dance.

The initial social event of the Colonial Club was held Saturday evening at its log cabin clubhouse, located on the Bankhead highway one mile east of Austell. The club members and their friends were entertained with a flow of music and at intermission a popular comedy team of Joe and Ray in songs and dancing.

Members and guests for the week-end were Misses Augusta Smith, Mollie Broadwater, Lillian Lee, Dot Bailey, Pearl Brown, Elizabeth Bailey, Miss Bailey, Margaret Lloyd, Rose Hubner, Helen Clay, Edna Robbins, Frances Jackson, and Bill Brown, Tom Kingston, Frank Bailey, Wilmer Leach, Roy Kingston, George McGuire, Jimmie Jacobs and Ed Posey. Chaperons were Mrs. F. M. Bailey and Mrs. F. E. Davenport.

A midnight moonlight hike over the 125-acre ranch was held. The rifle teams held light practice, with Wilmer Leach getting highest score. Additional guests for the dance were Miss Aileen Alexander, Miss Douschka Alewyn, Bob Blair, Joe Bailey, Miss Mildred Bugg, Miss Jewell Bugg, Miss Etta Mae Bray, Howard Brown, Edwin Bassett, G. A. Black, Les Bush, Joe Brown, Joe Bartlett, J. T. Barnes, Morris Cornelison, Jimmie Corbett, Homer Connor, Miss Margaret Connor, E. W. Castlelaw, Miss Clara Copeland, Miss Elizabeth Durden, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Dyson, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Dorsch, Gerald Davis, Bill Duret, J. C. Dobbs, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Elliott, Miss Bettie Elfers, Miss Martha Fowler, Miss Katherine Fisher, Jack Gaines, W. H. Gurley, J. H. George, Dowdy W. Grimes, Miss Billie Gossett, Dick Harrison, Miss Kittie Gear, Sam Hubbard, Charlie Herron, Carl Herbig, Miss Frances Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Johnson, Miss Margaret Lee, Frank McKinley, Miss Janet McNeal, Walter Meadows, Miss Catherine McCleskey, Gilbert Mobley, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. McGregor, Miss Marjorie Martin, Saranoe O'Connor, J. R. Owens, A. H. Parker, Miss Gladys Platt, W. T. Rogers, Griffin Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Reeves, Miss Betha Robinson, H. H. Renfro, Miss Martha Rutherford, Ben Stripling, Miss Rosemary Stanley, Kid Shaw, Miss Gladys Smith, O. D. Stump, Miss Willa Simmons, Mrs. E. Thornton, Mr. and Mrs. And Tucker, W. P. Vaughn, Miss Edna Vines, Charles Welch, Miss Willie Woodall, Miss Charlotte Woodall, Miss Cornelia Wilson, Louis Williams, Robert E. Wilson Jr., W. M. Williams and Jimmie Harmon.

The Colonial Club was organized to give the young people the opportunity of participating in the highest type of sports and entertainment. All socials will be held the third week-end of each month at Colonial tavern and admission will be by card only. Members are chosen and membership is limited. The next social will be held the week-end of October 15 and will be a Halloween costume ball.

Ward-Belmont College Belles En Route to Nashville

The attractive group of college belles waving good-by from the observation coach of the train were photographed recently in Atlanta while en route to Ward-Belmont College in Nashville, Tenn. Reading from left to right, are Misses Mary Jane Foote, of Daytona Beach, Fla.; Betsy Roach, of Danville, Va.; Rebecca Powell, of Greenville, S. C.; Helen Conley and Anne Shaw, of Albany, Ga.; and Miss Mary Mullino, of Montezuma, Ga. Photo by Sandy Sanders, staff photographer.

Woman's Division Holds Dinner Meeting

Dinner meeting of the woman's division of the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce was held at the Atlanta Woman's Club Monday evening. The tables were decorated by Mrs. D. R. Stauffer. The president, Mrs. Nellie Nix Edwards, presided and introduced a number of new members and visitors. The division stood in silence for two minutes as a tribute to the memory of Kithel Christopherson, a member of the division who passed away in Waco, Texas, this month.

The division is planning to put on a membership campaign in October, to be headed by Miss Elma Burnette and Mrs. A. E. Sansbury. The class in Spanish, taught by Dr. Cecil Stockard, will begin work again October 1 and those desiring to join should register by calling the office. Valued 1880. The class in dancing will also begin work the first of October and other classes are being considered.

Mrs. W. P. Dunn, president of the Woman's Club, gave a resume of the history and development of the Woman's Club with an outline of its plan of work. Miss Elizabeth Greene, accompanied by Miss Helen Battle, sang a group of songs, including "April Morn," by Batten; "The Cuckoo," by Lahman; and "L'Amour Toujours," by Lamour, by Priml.

The address of the evening was made by T. Guy Woodford, president of the Retail Forestry Association, and of the Georgia Forestry Association. Mr. Woodford selected "Forestry" as his subject.

Mrs. Nisbet Honored By Mrs. Allan.

Mrs. J. P. R. Allan entertained yesterday at luncheon at her home on Peachtree road in compliment to Mrs. John Lord Nisbet, of Tallahassee, Fla., the guest of Mrs. Willie Martin Hurt. The exquisitely appointed table was covered with lace cloth and adorned with a basket filled with white roses and delphinium.

Invited to meet the honor guest were Mesdames Nisbet Mayre, Joseph Winslip, Calhoun McDougall, Thomas H. Daniel, George T. Hiner, Carl Dodd, Edward Lewis, B. M. Boykin, Robert H. Martin, R. L. Turman, John Myrick, formerly of Baltimore; J. W. Spears and James English.

For Memphis Guests.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Robinson will entertain at a bridge party Friday evening at their home on Lindbergh drive in honor of their brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Eanford, of Memphis, Tenn., who are their guests. The guests will include 12 friends.

Miss Dedmon, of Fort Worth, Weds Mr. McBride, of Atlanta

FORT WORTH, Texas, Sept. 21. A vested choir of 26 voices sang the "Lohengrin" wedding march Saturday evening for the entrance of the bride party when Miss Roberta Dedmon, of Fort Worth, became the bride of J. M. McBride, of Atlanta, Ga., at the Hempall Presbyterian church, where the bride has been organist for several years. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. B. King.

The bridesmaids, Misses Christine Dedmon, Cora Mae Massey, Anna Mary Dedmon and Winnie Robertson, advanced down aisles opposite Landon Freear, Hal Starrett, Cecil Massey and Joe Ingraham, respectively. The girls wore lime yellow velvet gowns and carried bouquets of imported Heliconia in yellow and orange tones, tied with satin ribbons. The maid of honor, Miss Lida Hayes, and the matron of honor, Mrs. Melvin J. Miller, were gowned in rust brown velvet robes, and carried straw flowers in shades of wine, brown and orange. The best man was E. F. Mahaney, of Chicago.

The bride, who entered with her uncle, V. M. Blow, wore a gown of Chantilly lace over satin, fashioned on princess lines with puffed shoulder and long tight sleeves. She carried a shower bouquet of Johanna Hill roses and lilies of the valley. The wedding reception was held on the lawn of the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. P. G. Dedmon, 2401 Oakland boulevard, Mr. and Mrs. McBride left for a six-week trip to New York and Florida, after which they will reside in Atlanta, Ga.

Mrs. McBride has occupied a prominent place in Fort Worth music circles for several years. She studied at the Losh Institute of Music here, in New York two years, and has been a pupil of William Beller and Edwin Hughes. She is a graduate of Texas Christian University, and the bridegroom graduated at Oklahoma University. The bride has been a member of the Harmony Club here and has had music classes.

Rich's Great September Sale of Housewares offers Regular $42.50 General Electric de Luxe Vacuum Cleaners

The following guests were present: Mr. and Mrs. T. Guy Woodford, Dr. and Mrs. C. T. McGregor, Miss Marjorie Martin, Saranoe O'Connor, J. R. Owens, A. H. Parker, Miss Gladys Platt, W. T. Rogers, Griffin Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Reeves, Miss Betha Robinson, H. H. Renfro, Miss Martha Rutherford, Ben Stripling, Miss Rosemary Stanley, Kid Shaw, Miss Gladys Smith, O. D. Stump, Miss Willa Simmons, Mrs. E. Thornton, Mr. and Mrs. And Tucker, W. P. Vaughn, Miss Edna Vines, Charles Welch, Miss Willie Woodall, Miss Charlotte Woodall, Miss Cornelia Wilson, Louis Williams, Robert E. Wilson Jr., W. M. Williams and Jimmie Harmon.

Your Last Chance to Buy!

The children will need sox and more sox for school—so economize while you can and buy a dozen pairs. Anklets and half styles in plain and fancy patterns. Sizes 6 to 94.

—RICH'S, STREET FLOOR

Women's 69c Kayser Union Suits, 44c

Made of a fine knit with tight knee and built-in shoulder. White and pink in sizes 36 to 42.

—RICH'S, STREET FLOOR

Values to $10 Electric Clocks $1.98

Only 25 of these remarkable values for Thrift Thursday! Guaranteed standard make electric clocks at give-away prices!

—RICH'S, STREET FLOOR

10c Novelty Stationery 6 Pkgs. 25c

You need not put off writing any longer for here are 8 sheets of paper and 8 envelopes neatly wrapped in cellophane, 6 packages for 25c.

—RICH'S, STREET FLOOR

10c Novelty Stationery 6 Pkgs. 25c

You need not put off writing any longer for here are 8 sheets of paper and 8 envelopes neatly wrapped in cellophane, 6 packages for 25c.

—RICH'S, STREET FLOOR

10c Novelty Stationery 6 Pkgs. 25c

You need not put off writing any longer for here are 8 sheets of paper and 8 envelopes neatly wrapped in cellophane, 6 packages for 25c.

—RICH'S, STREET FLOOR

10c Novelty Stationery 6 Pkgs. 25c

You need not put off writing any longer for here are 8 sheets of paper and 8 envelopes neatly wrapped in cellophane, 6 packages for 25c.

—RICH'S, STREET FLOOR

Miss Reynolds Will Be Honored At Tea Today

Miss Wylene Reynolds, whose marriage to Thomas Wharton Meighan will be an interesting event taking place Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Arthur Lester Reynolds, on St. Charles place, will be central figure at the tressau tea to be given this afternoon by Mrs. Reynolds.

Invited to meet the attractive young honor guest are a group of the younger social contingent. Mrs. W. L. Cary will preside at the tea table and Mrs. Reynolds will be assisted in receiving by the honor guest and a group of close friends.

Among the out-of-town guests who will attend the wedding are Mr. and Mrs. Clarence F. Reynolds, uncle and aunt of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wheeler, of Mayfield; Horace Stamford, of Opelika, Ala.; Charles Lawrence, of Macon, and George Morion, of New York, and Miss Susie Yarbrough, of Sparta.

Miss Ginn Weds J. Y. Guber, Jr.

Mrs. L. E. Ginn announces the marriage of her daughter, Miss Marjorie Lee Ginn, to J. Y. Guber Jr., the ceremony having taken place Saturday evening at the home of the bride on Grant Park place. The Rev. E. M. Altman, of the Grant Park Baptist church, performed the ceremony in the presence of relatives and friends.

The bride was attended by Miss Mamie Coker, and acting as best man was L. C. Johnson. The bride wore a stunning ensemble of black and white, made along simple lines, with which she wore black accessories. Her flowers were a shoulder bouquet of pink rosebuds.

Mr. Guber and his bride will make their home in Atlanta.

Mrs. Skipper Honors Little Daughter.

Mrs. H. V. Skipper Jr. recently entertained her home at Port McPherson, honoring her little daughter, Betty Jacqueline, on her third birthday anniversary. She was assisted in entertaining by George N. Poulos. Prizes were won by little Jimmie Mayo and Jane Palmer.

The little guests were Marshall Mayo, Anne Mayo, Roy Mayo, Juanita Rutledge, Bill Rutledge, Martha Mayo, Jimmie Mayo, Louise Mayo, Dorothy Mayo, Alvin Wren Mayo, George N. Poulos Jr., Jane Palmer, Alice Stockton, Elizabeth Montablon, Lois Jenkins, Agnes Jenkins, Eula Starnes, Mrs. W. M. Mayo, Mrs. George N. Poulos, Mrs. Alene Palmer, Mrs. Nina Williams, Mrs. W. M. Mayo Jr., Mrs. Odessa M. Graham, Mrs. Nelson Montablon, Mrs. Almond Mayo, Mrs. Minnie Porter.

Mrs. W. P. Dunn, president of the Woman's Club, gave a resume of the history and development of the Woman's Club with an outline of its plan of work. Miss Elizabeth Greene, accompanied by Miss Helen Battle, sang a group of songs, including "April Morn," by Batten; "The Cuckoo," by Lahman; and "L'Amour Toujours," by Lamour, by Priml.

The address of the evening was made by T. Guy Woodford, president of the Retail Forestry Association, and of the Georgia Forestry Association. Mr. Woodford selected "Forestry" as his subject.

The following guests were present: Mr. and Mrs. T. Guy Woodford, Dr. and Mrs. C. T. McGregor, Miss Marjorie Martin, Saranoe O'Connor, J. R. Owens, A. H. Parker, Miss Gladys Platt, W. T. Rogers, Griffin Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Reeves, Miss Betha Robinson, H. H. Renfro, Miss Martha Rutherford, Ben Stripling, Miss Rosemary Stanley, Kid Shaw, Miss Gladys Smith, O. D. Stump, Miss Willa Simmons, Mrs. E. Thornton, Mr. and Mrs. And Tucker, W. P. Vaughn, Miss Edna Vines, Charles Welch, Miss Willie Woodall, Miss Charlotte Woodall, Miss Cornelia Wilson, Louis Williams, Robert E. Wilson Jr., W. M. Williams and Jimmie Harmon.

The Colonial Club was organized to give the young people the opportunity of participating in the highest type of sports and entertainment. All socials will be held the third week-end of each month at Colonial tavern and admission will be by card only. Members are chosen and membership is limited. The next social will be held the week-end of October 15 and will be a Halloween costume ball.

The address of the evening was made by T. Guy Woodford, president of the Retail Forestry Association, and of the Georgia Forestry Association. Mr. Woodford selected "Forestry" as his subject.

The following guests were present: Mr. and Mrs. T. Guy Woodford, Dr. and Mrs. C. T. McGregor, Miss Marjorie Martin, Saranoe O'Connor, J. R. Owens, A. H. Parker, Miss Gladys Platt, W. T. Rogers, Griffin Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Reeves, Miss Betha Robinson, H. H. Renfro, Miss Martha Rutherford, Ben Stripling, Miss Rosemary Stanley, Kid Shaw, Miss Gladys Smith, O. D. Stump, Miss Willa Simmons, Mrs. E. Thornton, Mr. and Mrs. And Tucker, W. P. Vaughn, Miss Edna Vines, Charles Welch, Miss Willie Woodall, Miss Charlotte Woodall, Miss Cornelia Wilson, Louis Williams, Robert E. Wilson Jr., W. M. Williams and Jimmie Harmon.

The Colonial Club was organized to give the young people the opportunity of participating in the highest type of sports and entertainment. All socials will be held the third week-end of each month at Colonial tavern and admission will be by card only. Members are chosen and membership is limited. The next social will be held the week-end of October 15 and will be a Halloween costume ball.

The address of the evening was made by T. Guy Woodford, president of the Retail Forestry Association, and of the Georgia Forestry Association. Mr. Woodford selected "Forestry" as his subject.

The following guests were present: Mr. and Mrs. T. Guy Woodford, Dr. and Mrs. C. T. McGregor, Miss Marjorie Martin, Saranoe O'Connor, J. R. Owens, A. H. Parker, Miss Gladys Platt, W. T. Rogers, Griffin Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Reeves, Miss Betha Robinson, H. H. Renfro, Miss Martha Rutherford, Ben Stripling, Miss Rosemary Stanley, Kid Shaw, Miss Gladys Smith, O. D. Stump, Miss Willa Simmons, Mrs. E. Thornton, Mr. and Mrs. And Tucker, W. P. Vaughn, Miss Edna Vines, Charles Welch, Miss Willie Woodall, Miss Charlotte Woodall, Miss Cornelia Wilson, Louis Williams, Robert E. Wilson Jr., W. M. Williams and Jimmie Harmon.

The Colonial Club was organized to give the young people the opportunity of participating in the highest type of sports and entertainment. All socials will be held the third week-end of each month at Colonial tavern and admission will be by card only. Members are chosen and membership is limited. The next social will be held the week-end of October 15 and will be a Halloween costume ball.

The address of the evening was made by T. Guy Woodford, president of the Retail Forestry Association, and of the Georgia Forestry Association. Mr. Woodford selected "Forestry" as his subject.

The following guests were present: Mr. and Mrs. T. Guy Woodford, Dr. and Mrs. C. T. McGregor, Miss Marjorie Martin, Saranoe O'Connor, J. R. Owens, A. H. Parker, Miss Gladys Platt, W. T. Rogers, Griffin Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Reeves, Miss Betha Robinson, H. H. Renfro, Miss Martha Rutherford, Ben Stripling, Miss Rosemary Stanley, Kid Shaw, Miss Gladys Smith, O. D. Stump, Miss Willa Simmons, Mrs. E. Thornton, Mr. and Mrs. And Tucker, W. P. Vaughn, Miss Edna Vines, Charles Welch, Miss Willie Woodall, Miss Charlotte Woodall, Miss Cornelia Wilson, Louis Williams, Robert E. Wilson Jr., W. M. Williams and Jimmie Harmon.

The Colonial Club was organized to give the young people the opportunity of participating in the highest type of sports and entertainment. All socials will be held the third week-end of each month at Colonial tavern and admission will be by card only. Members are chosen and membership is limited. The next social will be held the week-end of October 15 and will be a Halloween costume ball.

The address of the evening was made by T. Guy Woodford, president of the Retail Forestry Association, and of the Georgia Forestry Association. Mr. Woodford selected "Forestry" as his subject.

The following guests were present: Mr. and Mrs. T. Guy Woodford, Dr. and Mrs. C. T. McGregor, Miss Marjorie Martin, Saranoe O'Connor, J. R. Owens, A. H. Parker, Miss Gladys Platt, W. T. Rogers, Griffin Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Reeves, Miss Betha Robinson, H. H. Renfro, Miss Martha Rutherford, Ben Stripling, Miss Rosemary Stanley, Kid Shaw, Miss Gladys Smith, O. D. Stump, Miss Willa Simmons, Mrs. E. Thornton, Mr. and Mrs. And Tucker, W. P. Vaughn, Miss Edna Vines, Charles Welch, Miss Willie Woodall, Miss Charlotte Woodall, Miss Cornelia Wilson, Louis Williams, Robert E. Wilson Jr., W. M. Williams and Jimmie Harmon.

The Colonial Club was organized to give the young people the opportunity of participating in the highest type of sports and entertainment. All socials will be held the third week-end of each month at Colonial tavern and admission will be by card only. Members are chosen and membership is limited. The next social will be held the week-end of October 15 and will be a Halloween costume ball.

The address of the evening was made by T. Guy Woodford, president of the Retail Forestry Association, and of the Georgia Forestry Association. Mr. Woodford selected "Forestry" as his subject.

The following guests were present: Mr. and Mrs. T. Guy Woodford, Dr. and Mrs. C. T. McGregor, Miss Marjorie Martin, Saranoe O'Connor, J. R. Owens, A. H. Parker, Miss Gladys Platt, W. T. Rogers, Griffin Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Reeves, Miss Betha Robinson, H. H. Renfro, Miss Martha Rutherford, Ben Stripling, Miss Rosemary Stanley, Kid Shaw, Miss Gladys Smith, O. D. Stump, Miss Willa Simmons, Mrs. E. Thornton, Mr. and Mrs. And Tucker, W. P. Vaughn, Miss Edna Vines, Charles Welch, Miss Willie Woodall, Miss Charlotte Woodall, Miss Cornelia Wilson, Louis Williams, Robert E. Wilson Jr., W. M. Williams and Jimmie Harmon.

The Colonial Club was organized to give the young people the opportunity of participating in the highest type of sports and entertainment. All socials will be held the third week-end of each month at Colonial tavern and admission will be by card only. Members are chosen and membership is limited. The next social will be held the week-end of October 15 and will be a Halloween costume ball.

The address of the evening was made by T. Guy Woodford, president of the Retail Forestry Association, and of the Georgia Forestry Association. Mr. Woodford selected "Forestry" as his subject.

The following guests were present: Mr. and Mrs. T. Guy Woodford, Dr. and Mrs. C. T. McGregor, Miss Marjorie Martin, Saranoe O'Connor, J. R. Owens, A. H. Parker, Miss Gladys Platt, W. T. Rogers, Griffin Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Reeves, Miss Betha Robinson, H. H. Renfro, Miss Martha Rutherford, Ben Stripling, Miss Rosemary Stanley, Kid Shaw, Miss Gladys Smith, O. D. Stump, Miss Willa Simmons, Mrs. E. Thornton, Mr. and Mrs. And Tucker, W. P. Vaughn, Miss Edna Vines, Charles Welch, Miss Willie Woodall, Miss Charlotte Woodall, Miss Cornelia Wilson, Louis Williams, Robert E. Wilson Jr., W. M. Williams and Jimmie Harmon.

The Colonial Club was organized to give the young people the opportunity of participating in the highest type of sports and entertainment. All socials will be held the third week-end of each month at Colonial tavern and admission will be by card only. Members are chosen and membership is limited. The next social will be held the week-end of October 15 and will be a Halloween costume ball.

The address of the evening was made by T. Guy Woodford, president of the Retail Forestry Association, and of the Georgia Forestry Association. Mr. Woodford selected "Forestry" as his subject.

The following guests were present: Mr. and Mrs. T. Guy Woodford, Dr. and Mrs. C. T. McGregor, Miss Marjorie Martin, Saranoe O'Connor, J. R. Owens, A. H. Parker, Miss Gladys Platt, W. T. Rogers, Griffin Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Reeves, Miss Betha Robinson, H. H. Renfro, Miss Martha Rutherford, Ben Stripling, Miss Rosemary Stanley, Kid Shaw, Miss Gladys Smith, O. D. Stump, Miss Willa Simmons, Mrs. E. Thornton, Mr. and Mrs. And Tucker, W. P. Vaughn, Miss Edna Vines, Charles Welch, Miss Willie Woodall, Miss Charlotte Woodall, Miss Cornelia Wilson, Louis Williams, Robert E. Wilson Jr., W. M. Williams and Jimmie Harmon.

The Colonial Club was organized to give the young people the opportunity of participating in the highest type of sports and entertainment. All socials will be held the third week-end of each month at Colonial tavern and admission will be by card only. Members are chosen and membership is limited. The next social will be held the week-end of October 15 and will be a Halloween costume ball.

The address of the evening was made by T. Guy Woodford, president of the Retail Forestry Association, and of the Georgia Forestry Association. Mr. Woodford selected "Forestry" as his subject.

The following guests were present: Mr. and Mrs. T. Guy Woodford, Dr. and Mrs. C. T. McGregor, Miss Marjorie Martin, Saranoe O'Connor, J. R. Owens, A. H. Parker, Miss Gladys Platt, W. T. Rogers, Griffin Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Reeves, Miss Betha Robinson, H. H. Renfro, Miss Martha Rutherford, Ben Stripling, Miss Rosemary Stanley, Kid Shaw, Miss Gladys Smith, O. D. Stump, Miss Willa Simmons, Mrs. E. Thornton, Mr. and Mrs. And Tucker, W. P. Vaughn, Miss Edna Vines, Charles Welch, Miss Willie Woodall, Miss Charlotte Woodall, Miss Cornelia Wilson, Louis Williams, Robert E. Wilson Jr., W. M. Williams and Jimmie Harmon.

The Colonial Club was organized to give the young people the opportunity of participating in the highest type of sports and entertainment. All socials will be held the third week-end of each month at Colonial tavern and admission will be by card only. Members are chosen and membership is limited. The next social will be held the week-end of October 15 and will be a Halloween costume ball.

The address of the evening was made by T. Guy Woodford, president of the Retail Forestry Association, and of the Georgia Forestry Association. Mr. Woodford selected "Forestry" as his subject.

The following guests were present: Mr. and Mrs. T. Guy Woodford, Dr. and Mrs. C. T. McGregor, Miss Marjorie Martin, Saranoe O'Connor, J. R. Owens, A. H. Parker, Miss Gladys Platt, W. T. Rogers, Griffin Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Reeves, Miss Betha Robinson, H. H. Renfro, Miss Martha Rutherford, Ben Stripling, Miss Rosemary Stanley, Kid Shaw, Miss Gladys Smith, O. D. Stump, Miss Willa Simmons, Mrs. E. Thornton, Mr. and Mrs. And Tucker, W. P. Vaughn, Miss Edna Vines, Charles Welch, Miss Willie Woodall, Miss Charlotte Woodall, Miss Cornelia Wilson, Louis Williams, Robert E. Wilson Jr., W. M. Williams and Jimmie Harmon.

The Colonial Club was organized to give the young people the opportunity of participating in the highest type of sports and entertainment. All socials will be held the third week-end of each month at Colonial tavern and admission will be by card only. Members are chosen and membership is limited. The next social will be held the week-end of October 15 and will be a Halloween costume ball.

The address of the evening was made by T. Guy Woodford, president of the Retail Forestry Association, and of the Georgia Forestry Association. Mr. Woodford selected "Forestry" as his subject.

The following guests were present: Mr. and Mrs. T. Guy Woodford, Dr. and Mrs. C. T. McGregor, Miss Marjorie Martin, Saranoe O'Connor, J. R. Owens, A. H. Parker, Miss Gladys Platt, W. T. Rogers, Griffin Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Reeves, Miss Betha Robinson, H. H. Renfro, Miss Martha Rutherford, Ben Stripling, Miss Rosemary Stanley, Kid Shaw, Miss Gladys Smith, O. D. Stump, Miss Willa Simmons, Mrs. E. Thornton, Mr. and Mrs. And Tucker, W. P. Vaughn, Miss Edna Vines, Charles Welch, Miss Willie Woodall, Miss Charlotte Woodall, Miss Cornelia Wilson, Louis Williams, Robert E. Wilson Jr., W. M. Williams and Jimmie Harmon.

The Colonial Club was organized to give the young people the opportunity of participating in the highest type of sports and entertainment. All socials will be held the third week-end of each month at Colonial tavern and admission will be by card only. Members are chosen and membership is limited. The next social will be held the week-end of October 15 and will be a Halloween costume ball.

SOCIETY EVENTS

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 22.
Debutante Club meets at 3 o'clock at the Piedmont Driving Club.

Dr. and Mrs. Roy Kracke will be hosts at a bridge-supper honoring the members of their bridge club.

Cheshire Bridge Garden Club gives a benefit bridge party this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at Camp Victor, the home of Mrs. V. H. Kreighshaber.

Al fresco dinner-dance will be given this evening at Brookhaven Country Club.

The manufacturers' and distributors' dinner will be sponsored by the ladies of woman's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church this evening in the parlors of that church from 6:30 until 8 o'clock.

Third division Rebekahs celebrate their anniversary at 7:30 o'clock at the Piedmont Rebekah lodge.

Pi Pi Club will entertain at dinner at the Atlanta Athletic Club this evening.

Mrs. Arthur Lester Reynolds entertains at a tressau-tea honoring her daughter, Miss Wylene Reynolds, at her home on St. Charles place.

Atlanta Chapter D.A.R. Gives Luncheon Friday

Among events of Friday will be the luncheon followed by a bridge party to be given by the Atlanta chapter. Daughters of the American Revolution at 12:30 o'clock, Friday, September 23, at Craigie House. Mrs. Moreland Speer is chairman of arrangements and Mrs. John Rice, co-chairman. Guests wishing to remain after the luncheon to play bridge are requested to bring cards and pencils. Score pads will be provided.

Mrs. Speer and Mrs. Rice will be assisted in entertaining by Mesdames James D. Cromer, regent; John William Smith, Thomas Coke Mell, Arthur Allen, William Cox Carpenter, Slaughter Linthicum, Harry C. Malone, Lucius McConnell, William Halton Snav, Harry Ellis, Charles Broder, James Gwin, Misses Hazel Kirk, Eloise Pittman, Alberta Malone, Fannie Smith and Lillian Fidler.

Mrs. George Breitenbucher and Mrs. W. E. Beckman will preside over the coffee table. For reservations telephone Mrs. Moreland Speer, Hemlock 3671, or Mrs. John Rice, Hemlock 7354-J. Price of reservations for luncheon is 35 cents; for luncheon and bridge 50 cents. Reservations are limited to 100 guests.

Rathbun-Bucknell Marriage Rites To Be Fashionable Event Sept. 24

NEW YORK, N. Y., Sept. 21.—The wedding of William Harlan Bucknell, of New York, son of Dr. and Mrs. Howard Bucknell, of Atlanta, Ga., to Miss Anita Reed Rathbun, lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edw. Harris Rathbun, of Woonsocket, R. I., is to take place next Saturday afternoon in the Tiverton Episcopal church, Tiverton, R. I. A reception will follow the ceremony at Far-A-Fields, the country home of the bride-elect's family at Little Compton, R. I.

Miss Rathbun will be attended by her sister, Mrs. Albert B. Ashforth Jr., of Greenwich, Conn., and by the future bridegroom's only sister, Mrs. Dixon B. Potter, of 375 Park avenue, New York, who before her marriage was the beautiful Miss Sue Bucknell, Atlanta belle. Mr. Potter will be Mr. Bucknell's best man, and acting as ushers will be Albert B. Ashforth Jr., H. Adams Ashforth, Lawrence Rathbun and George Beattie. Mr. Bucknell is giving his bachelor's dinner at Ferry's, here, tonight.

News of Society In Brookhaven

Clifford Sewell, of Montezuma, Ga., is visiting relatives in Brookhaven, Georgia.

Mrs. J. E. Creel is spending this week in Norcross, Ga.

The senior B. Y. P. U. of the Baptist church held a wiener roast Friday evening at the church.

Mrs. W. R. Fallow is ill at her home on University drive.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Black and children, Richard and Charles Black, and Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Kinzie and daughter, Mrs. J. E. Britt and Rev. and Mrs. C. J. Buice at Stone Mountain Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Echols and family visited Mr. and Mrs. O.

THE GUMPS—ONE VOTE FOR ANDY GUMP

LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE—STOP THIEF!

MOON MULLINS—A GENTLE REMINDER

SMITTY—ON THE SPOT

GASOLINE ALLEY—COMING EVENTS

WINNIE WINKLE, THE BREADWINNER—THE LATE MR. WINKLE

RIDERS OF THE PURPLE SAGE

A Shot at Lassiter.

By Zane Grey

Midsummer Madness

By Sterling North

STYMOIS. Barbara (Bobby) Manners, beautiful Chicago office girl, goes away on her two-week vacation, determined to forget Eddie Carlson, formerly of her office, with whom she stopped associating when she discovered his friends were of questionable reputation. At the invitation of her employer, Vincent Holloway, Chicago architect, she goes to a lodge in a wild section of Wisconsin and there meets a handsome young man who calls himself Jack Horner. She gives her name as Bobby Manners. Jack tells her he has heard the lodge is haunted. He stays at a cottage near by. He acts mysteriously. Through a secret panel Bobby discovers a subterranean apartment and, frightened, starts in a canoe across the lake. She is caught in a storm, loses her ankle and is rescued by Jack and taken to a cabin where he tells her he loves her. At a dance Bobby sees Eddie Carlson, who fights with Jack and shoots him, inflicting a scalp wound. Jack tells Eddie he is a scoundrel and a liar. Jack and Bobby receive a warning to leave the lodge. NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY.

INSTALLMENT XXVIII.

He still experienced a still rage when he thought of Eddie Carlson—Eddie, who perhaps had had nothing to do with the mystery, but who, to Jack, symbolized the whole insidious affair.

It was clear to Jack now just how the liquor-running gang did its work. The big plane was used to run the stuff across from Canada. The boot brought the valuable cargo from the plane to the lodge. Later, at prearranged intervals, the liquor was taken across Fawn lake to the state highway, which passed through the summer colony, loaded on trucks and started for Chicago.

At least that seemed the logical explanation to Jack as he lay breathing hard, thankful for his life.

But what did liquor gangs, or the harrowing experiences of the night, or anything else matter to a young man in love, who suddenly realized that he was not to live, but that he was to die? Perhaps it was the smooth, white beauty of the kitchen floor, scrubbed white, which felt so cool to his hot body. Perhaps it was the wind blowing into the window, or perhaps it was the fact that after all she was no longer his.

Jack remembered with mingled pride and regret the way Bobby had struggled in his arms as he carried her to the trophy room. She had a will of her own that girl. She was far from the clinging vine type of female. She was as modern as tomorrow, as strong as a sleek little panther and as graceful as a sky scraper rising in slender beauty against a distant sky.

Jack had never thought of a girl in just those terms before, but they seemed endearing and properly descriptive. A girl like a slender, beautifully proportioned building, like a sleek fast car, like a yacht.

Bobby was all of that and more. But also she was like a high-spirited and unbroken colt, a mettlesome fine young thing to be handled with great care. Jack felt that he had used too rough a hand in his attempt to "curb" her.

Thinking of the manner in which he had swept her off her feet and carried her bodily to the trophy room, he began to worry about her. What must she be thinking and feeling all this time locked in that dark hole with moose heads and bear rugs and an army of guns?

He hurriedly arose from his resting place on the kitchen floor, crossed the dark room and hall at a bound, walked rapidly across the living room and rapped gently at the door of the trophy room.

"There was no answer."

This time he rapped more loudly and fumbling for his key, finally opened the door.

"Bobby," he called.

"There was no answer."

Feeling panic clutching at his heart, he lit a bracket lamp and searched the room.

"There was no doubt about it—Bobby was gone."

When Bobby was left in the trophy room with a pearl handled gun and two boxes of cartridges and the door securely locked from the outside by Jack, she stared and sobbed for a while, then wiped her eyes with a quick, determined little movement and decided she would show Jack Horner a thing or two. It was the last thing she did in her life.

Lighting one of the bracket lamps on the wall, she reread the note which had been sent up on the dumb waiter a few moments before, the note she had refused to let Jack read and which had precipitated the quarrel with Jack, which landed her in the trophy room.

"Meet me at the secret entrance near the cove!"

It was signed with the same circle and cross which had been the signature to the first note, and the mark on the cellar wall. But this time there were two small initials after the symbol.

It was those initials which had made Bobby's heart almost stop beating and which had made her refuse to show Jack the note. They were "E. C."

Bobby had had no intention of keeping that rendezvous when she had first read the note, but now that Jack had been such a brute to her, yes, an absolute brute, had picked her up bodily while she kicked and struggled, and locked her against her will in that musty old room, she suddenly had acquired a mad, wild impulse to do something desperate.

He couldn't treat her like that and get away with it! She would show him that no one, not even the man she loved, could force her to be a docile, mild little doll with no mind of her own.

It would serve Jack right if she went right out there into the darkness and met "E. C." at the secret entrance to the cellar near the cove. She would do it! She had made up her mind!

Besides, she was beginning to feel a warm thrill. What a lark to see Eddie once more and whisper a few words to him there in the darkness. All the old inexplicable feeling she had for him in the past welled up within her and made her anxious to be near him. But how?

There were two small windows in the room, one on each side of the fireplace, and both some six feet from the floor. They would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a chair and began working at the rusted fastenings. At last they yielded. The small square window opened inward on its hinges, revealing a wide stone sill beyond. She blew out the light.

Placing her gun and cartridges on the sill she would probably admit the passage of her body through them if she could get them open, and she wasn't afraid to drop to the ground on the other side.

Quickly she climbed on a

FRIENDLY COUNSEL

BY CAROLINE CHATFIELD

Problems of general interest submitted by readers will be discussed in this column. Correspondence invited. Your name held in confidence. Write Miss Chatfield, care The Atlanta Constitution.

Dear Miss Chatfield: For seven years I have worked hard at public work and during leisure hours I have devoted myself to hobbies. I have believed the old saying that "Love searched for is seldom found while the search for something else is in progress." Now I am 27 and my heart's desire is a home of my own, a good husband, one of the rare sort if they exist. A man that is satisfied first with a clean, wholesome, friendship and one who after marriage will be faithful, generous, devoted to his wife and home. I want a husband who will be considerate and attentive, one who doesn't smoke, drink nor gamble. I want a husband that will be tender and loving, honest and industrious, fond of children and capable of being a friend to me, willing to acknowledge that he is not a fountain of wisdom but capable of being wrong and of making mistakes. They say one can get anything in this world by sticking at it long enough.

I have dreamed of meeting this Prince Charming, and I have waited in vain for him to come. Must I wait indefinitely? Is it too late for me to get my heart's desire?

DISCOURAGED.
Answer: My dear young woman, it is an angel you are looking for, not a husband. You will never find the angel on this side of the grave. So long as you hold out waiting to meet this paragon of virtue, just so long will you remain disappointed, for he is the figment of the imagination.

If the miracle were to come to pass and you should find this model man that you dream about, what would you do with him? He would necessarily be one of these creatures the poet describes as being "lily perfect, splendidly null." His very perfection would bore you to tears. When you were in a bad humor yourself (as all wives are sometimes) and he met that had humor with loving tenderness you would want to kick him. When you looked to him for the last word in some important decision and he reminded you that he was not the fountain of wisdom, you would want to kick him down the back steps, where generally go the men that are foolish enough to acknowledge the truth to their wives—that they don't know it all.

The worst bored wives of my acquaintance are the ones married to men that are perfectionists. When you take away from a woman the pleasure of quarreling with and about her husband's faults you have robbed her of one of her main sources of pride and pleasure. When a woman is housed day in and day out with a companion that agrees with everything she says and gives her everything she wants and goes everywhere she wants him to go and does everything she wants him to do she goes as stale as sponge cake that is baked and left on the shelf too long.

No, my dear young woman, life to be really exciting and enjoyable must have some hills and hollows, some sand bunkers and some water hazards, and there is no better way to incorporate them in your life than to marry a real man—one that is full of faults as a dog is of fleas. Then you have the delightful pleasure of picking off the fleas, applying the insect powder and listening to the yelps he emits in protest against your good offices. He may bark at you, he may even snap at you, but he will come again and lie at your feet to be petted and patted and made over. You will find also a great pleasure in according to these silent requests.

Don't give up him yet. Don't lower your ideals but rather try the

KEEP YOUR HUSBAND'S LOVE

The pain that women suffer every month is bad enough. But the trouble it causes at home is worse. Men are tireless. What is a woman to do?

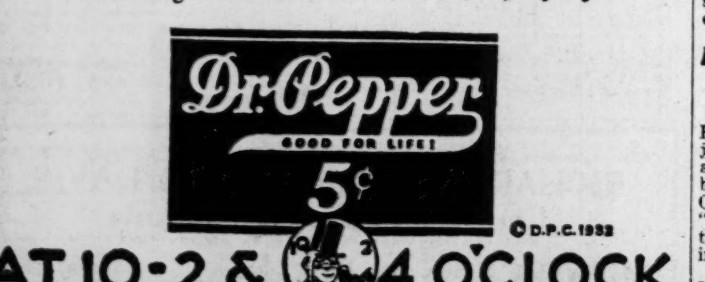

Generation after generation has found the answer in this Vegetable Compound. As Mrs. June says, "There is nothing better for that tired feeling we all know so well. It helped my nervousness and built me up."

Try Lydia E. Pinkham's VEGETABLE COMPOUND

FOR "A" IN DEPARTMENT AND HEALTH

Show us a lad who says: "Yessum" . . . who washes behind his ears . . . eats his vegetables . . . gets his lessons . . . does his chores . . . and we'll show you a lad who "collects" his Dr. Pepper at 10, 2 and 4 o'clock. One wouldn't call it a bribe; rather the reward of a hero who has paid the price for fame. Bottled energy in the ice box beats a big stick for results.

AT 10-2 & 4 O'CLOCK

WOMEN'S MEETINGS

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 22.

Atlanta Better Films committee meets in Rich's tea room. The board meeting begins at 10 o'clock and the luncheon meeting will open at 12 o'clock.

Fulton High School P-T. A. meets in the Fulton high school auditorium at 2:30 o'clock.

Executive board of Hillside Cottages meets at 10:30 o'clock at Avairill cottage.

Annie E. West Preschool Circle meets at the school at 2:30 o'clock.

Grant Park Garden Club meets at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. E. L. Almond, 374 Park avenue, southeast.

Fifty-Fifty Study Club meets with Mrs. Flawellyn on Gaston street at 10:45 o'clock.

Cherokee Rose Lodge No. 806, Ladies' Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, meets at 2:30 o'clock at the Red Men's wigwam.

Garden division of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Railway Mail Association meets at the home of Mrs. E. B. Townsend, 1056 Donnelly avenue, S. W., at 3:30 o'clock.

Executive board of Moreland P-T. A. meets at 9:30 o'clock.

Georgia Chapter No. 127, O. E. S., meets this evening at 8 o'clock in Ogleshorpe Masonic temple, 1983 Georgia avenue, southwest.

North Atlanta Chapter No. 36 meets at the Masonic temple, 1002 1/2 Hemphill avenue, N. W., this evening.

W. M. U. of Inman Park Baptist church meets in all-day session. The Bible study begins at 10:30 o'clock, followed by a missionary program.

Annie E. West P-T. A. executive board meets at 10 o'clock in the school auditorium.

Executive board of Ponce de Leon P-T. A. meets at the school at 10 o'clock this morning.

Mrs. Robert M. McFarland, president of the Atlanta Presbyterial, calls a meeting of the executive committee of the Sue Haley group of business women this evening at 7:30 o'clock in the activity building of the North Avenue Presbyterian church.

Twentieth Century Coterie meets at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. C. P. Roberts on Adams street in Decatur.

Georgia Delta chapter of Pi Omicron sorority meets at 10 o'clock at Eggleston hall.

Mrs. Price Smith

Announces Scholarship

Mrs. Price Smith, gift scholarship chairman of the Georgia Federation of Women's Clubs, announces that "The purpose of the scholarship committee of the Georgia Federation of Women's Clubs is not only to give the students an opportunity to enlist in these great institutions and become self-supporting, but the broad human understanding and friendliness play a vital part in the big field of life, making each one realize the responsibility of self. All collegiate scholarships have been awarded. The scholarship committee wishes to thank the papers and the school officials for their good will and spirit of co-operation."

The following musical scholarships are available: Baril School of Music, Miss Louise Baril, voice; Mrs. Alfredo Baril, piano; Miss Edna Baril, piano; Benjamin Potter, piano, voice; Miss Ethel Beyer, organ; Miss Grace Lee Townsend, of the Atlanta Conservatory of Music, voice; Miss Lulu Clark Kinsie, voice; Miss Margaret Hecht, voice; Mary Griffith School of Music, harp; Mary Douglas, of the Atlanta Conservatory of Music, violin; Miss Mae Tucker, piano. Applicants are requested to apply in writing, enclosing three references, to Mrs. Price Smith, chairman gift scholarships, 69 Eleventh street, N. E., Atlanta.

Clouds But No Rain

Forecast for Today

A cloudy, but rainless morning, followed by bright Indian summer weather is indicated for Atlanta and vicinity today in the official outlook of the Atlanta weather bureau, issued Wednesday afternoon by Arthur H. Scott, observer. The range of temperatures will be approximately that of Wednesday, he said.

Beginning with a chilling low of 65 degrees early Wednesday morning, the official thermometer ran up to a summer calibration of 80 during the afternoon, and breezes were all that kept Atlantans from realizing that the first day of autumn had arrived.

COUNTRY SAUSAGE

ARRIVES IN ATLANTA

The first shipment of Copeland's country sausage arrived in Atlanta today and is for sale at all Atlantic & Pacific Tea Company stores, the management announced Wednesday.

For a number of years this meat product has been sold in Atlanta during the fall and winter. It comes to Atlanta fresh from the Copeland Brothers' plant in south Georgia by motor and rail express.

Copeland's famous country sausage is made from a recipe used by the Copeland family of south Georgia for generations. Connoisseurs of fine foods here in Atlanta say that it is the most delicious sausage made in the south.

Only the choicest Georgia porkers are used in making Copeland's sausage. Only the most select portions of the pork, such as hams, shoulders and tenderloins go into it. Selected spices and peppers, together with other fine condiments give it that secret flavor so well known to thousands of southern people.

DR. DODGE TO SPEAK

BEFORE NEGRO CLUB

Dr. D. Witherspoon Dodge, of the Radio church, has chosen for his subject to be delivered Sunday afternoon at the First Congregational church before the forum of the Twenty-seven Club, a well known negro organization. "The World's Economic Dilemma and the Way Out." The general public is invited.

Following the address there will be 30 minutes devoted to asking and answering questions from the floor.

Entertains Atlanta Hospital Alumnae.

Mrs. Thomas H. Hancock was hostess recently at party at the Atlanta hospital, given in honor of alumnae. The dining room was decorated with pink roses; delicious refreshments were served. Mrs. Mary Goodelock and Mrs. Leonard F. Johnson, mother of the hostess, assisted in entertaining.

Invited were Misses Mildred Arnold, Vertice Boss, Catherine Clark, Florida Dutton, Lucille Grubbs, Gladys Hyde, Myrtle Jolly, Madge Heaton, Mary McGarity, Katie Paine, Evelyn Russell, Annie Belle Washington, Sadie Ransom, Leona Moore and Bertha Moulton; Mesdames Caroline Brown, Mary Denson, Katie Farrell, Gertrude Huey, Elizabeth Logan, Ruby Moore, E. L. Hunter, Jessie Meadows, Harold McNeely, Harold Naylor, Evelyn Priest, W. B. Parker, W. B. Pope, Betty Piper, F. B. Peyton, Ola Schreiner, G. J. Shirley, George Strain, Charles Lanford, T. E. Lyons, C. L. Wood and Pauline Yarborough.

Personal Intelligence

R. R. Patillo, F. D. Burge and R. H. White Jr., are at the Roosevelt hotel in New York.

Miss Elizabeth Patterson, Miss Ethel L. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Williams, W. F. Taylor and Gibson Howell are at the Hotel Everglades, in Miami, Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Ryan, High Point, N. C.; N. McKnight, Savannah, Ga.; C. A. Smith, Erwin, Tenn.; A. Hoover, A. R. Smith, Louisville, Ky.; J. O. Gill, Mobile; Miss Juliette E. Sherman, Hollywood, Cal.; T. B. Baker, Philadelphia, Pa.; H. S. Farrow, Wilmington, Del.; R. Werner, New York city; W. E. Rogers, Hartford, Conn.; Dr. and Mrs. Charles Dillard, Huntsville, Ala.; F. W. Hook, Chattanooga, Tenn.; George G. Payne, Washington, D. C.; Harry Harrison, Brooklyn, N. Y.; F. D. Cloggett, Miami, Fla.; John Norvin, Washington, D. C.; J. B. Milmo, Birmingham, Ala.; J. S. Curiton, Greenville, S. C.; and W. C. Addison are at the Biltmore.

Miss Katherine Ober, of St. Paul, Minn., and Ramon Souto, of New York, are at the Georgia Terrace.

Miss Clarabell Duke, of Detroit, Mich., has returned after a three-month visit with Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Nix, of 1316 Hill street, and Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Moss, of Campbellton road.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Meadows, of 278 Milton avenue, are visiting relatives in Philomath and Crawfordville, Ga.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Beasley and Percy Beasley, of Crew street, are visiting relatives in Philomath, Ga.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Fanford, accompanied by their children, Ellanora and Mary Elizabeth, of Memphis, Tenn., are visiting their brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Robinson, at their home on Lindbergh drive.

Mrs. E. C. Barwick has returned to her home in Memphis, Tenn., after a visit with her mother, Mrs. J. W. Young, in West End.

Edwin Settle leaves Sunday for Gainesville, Fla., to resume his studies at Riverside Academy.

Mrs. Grant Card spent the past week in Chattanooga, Tenn., visiting relatives.

Mrs. William T. Brown is convalescing from a recent illness at her home on Sherwood road.

Mrs. E. F. DeFreese has returned from a visit with relatives in Birmingham.

Mrs. T. E. Roberts is convalescing from a recent illness at her home on Cascade road.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Edwards are visiting relatives in Glenn and St. Mary and other points in Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Lankford, who have made their home in West End for a number of years, leave at an early date for Americus, where they will reside in the future.

Mrs. W. W. Norman and Miss Elizabeth Norman have returned to Griffin after spending several days in Atlanta.

Mrs. Elton Drake and children are in Monroe, where they are visiting Mrs. C. L. Barrett.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Harris and Miss Anne Harris, of Portland, Me., arrived Wednesday to visit Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Sullivan at their home on West Wesley avenue.

Mrs. Bomar Olds, who underwent an operation at a private hospital last week, will return home today. Dr. Olds and Mrs. Olds have recently moved into their new home at 17 Demorest avenue, N. E.

Mrs. H. G. Deutsch, of New Orleans, La., is visiting Mrs. Isaac Schoen and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wenar, of North Decatur road.

Mrs. J. S. Watson and children, of New York city, are spending some time with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Braswell in Decatur.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Daniel have returned from the Bermuda islands.

Mrs. Frank Holland and her daughter, Mrs. Charles McAllister, have returned from Highlands, N. C., where they spent the past two months.

Mrs. Moore Hostess To Forget-Me-Not Club

Forget-Me-Not Club met at the home of Mrs. Elmo Moore Friday for the 18th birthday of the club. The song, "Where the Sweet Forget-Me-Not Remember" was rendered by Mrs. W. O. Browne, assisted at the piano by Mrs. W. J. Milam. The history of the club was given by Mrs. Ruby W. Braswell.

New names were drawn for the inner circle, these of the revealed at the Christmas dinner. Three new brides who were welcomed included Mrs. A. B. Cobb, Mrs. C. D. Hamner and Mrs. R. J. Knox.

Club members present were Mesdames R. H. Crockett, Edgar Davis, Ruby W. Braswell, W. O. Browne, H. C. Buchanan, C. E. Sams, F. F. Whitney, A. S. Stallings, Claire Kimball, R. E. F. W. M. Mitcham, Othella Poole, J. W. Plunkett, F. F. Edwards, H. W. Newcomer, W. J. Milam, A. T. Owens, R. T. Kingston, Elmo Moore and C. C. Player.

Mrs. Moore was assisted by Miss Elizabeth Moore.

Miss Elizabeth Allen Is Honor Guest.

Mrs. Oliver P. Allen entertained at a tresson-tee yesterday at her home on Highland View in honor of her daughter, Miss Elizabeth Allen, a charming bride-elect of Saturday.

Garden flowers were arranged throughout the home, the color motif of pink and green being carried out in the artistic appointments.

Assisting in entertaining were Misses Anne Moore, Tommie Hennessey, Mrs. Mary Baggett and Mrs. William Cohen.

Kie Club Party.

Mrs. C. E. McCarty, of SST Confederate avenue, S. W., was the hostess at the week-day party of the Kie Club Wednesday.

The following members were present: Mesdames G. C. James, J. I. Coleman, L. S. Moss, J. L. Murphy, Flo Newcomer, A. D. Everett, C. A. Ryder, Callie Lanham, J. A. Hollis, T. O. Sturdivant, Frank Golden. Visiting were Mrs. H. M. McCullough and Mrs. Grace Cooper.

JUNIOR SHOP THIRD FLOOR

Schoolgirl

Blouses

of checked gingham

$1.00

Smart little blouses of red, blue or brown checked gingham, to be worn as guimpes with the new jumpers. Other styles, too, in white and colors. Sizes 6 to 14.

Smart little blouses of red, blue or brown checked gingham, to be worn as guimpes with the new jumpers. Other styles, too, in white and colors. Sizes 6 to 14.

Smart little blouses of red, blue or brown checked gingham, to be worn as guimpes with the new jumpers. Other styles, too, in white and colors. Sizes 6 to 14.

Smart little blouses of red, blue or brown checked gingham, to be worn as guimpes with the new jumpers. Other styles, too, in white and colors. Sizes 6 to 14.

Smart little blouses of red, blue or brown checked gingham, to be worn as guimpes with the new jumpers. Other styles, too, in white and colors. Sizes 6 to 14.

Smart little blouses of red, blue or brown checked gingham, to be worn as guimpes with the new jumpers. Other styles, too, in white and colors. Sizes 6 to 14.

Smart little blouses of red, blue or brown checked gingham, to be worn as guimpes with the new jumpers. Other styles, too, in white and colors. Sizes 6 to 14.

Smart little blouses of red, blue or brown checked gingham, to be worn as guimpes with the new jumpers. Other styles, too, in white and colors. Sizes 6 to 14.

Smart little blouses of red, blue or brown checked gingham, to be worn as guimpes with the new jumpers. Other styles, too, in white and colors. Sizes 6 to 14.

Smart little blouses of red, blue or brown checked gingham, to be worn as guimpes with the new jumpers. Other styles, too, in white and colors. Sizes 6 to 14.

Smart little blouses of red, blue or brown checked gingham, to be worn as guimpes with the new jumpers. Other styles, too, in white and colors. Sizes 6 to 14.

Smart little blouses of red, blue or brown checked gingham, to be worn as guimpes with the new jumpers. Other styles, too, in white and colors. Sizes 6 to 14.

Smart little blouses of red, blue or brown checked gingham, to be worn as guimpes with the new jumpers. Other styles, too, in white and colors. Sizes 6 to 14.

Smart little blouses of red, blue or brown checked gingham, to be worn as guimpes with the new jumpers. Other styles, too, in white and colors. Sizes 6 to 14.

Smart little blouses of red, blue or brown checked gingham, to be worn as guimpes with the new jumpers. Other styles, too, in white and colors. Sizes 6 to 14.

Smart little blouses of red, blue or brown checked gingham, to be worn as guimpes with the new jumpers. Other styles, too, in white and colors. Sizes 6 to 14.

Smart little blouses of red, blue or brown checked gingham, to be worn as guimpes with the new jumpers. Other styles, too, in white and colors. Sizes 6 to 14.

Smart little blouses of red, blue or brown checked gingham, to be worn as guimpes with the new jumpers. Other styles, too, in white and colors. Sizes 6 to 14.

Smart little blouses of red, blue or brown checked gingham, to be worn as guimpes with the new jumpers. Other styles, too, in white and colors. Sizes 6 to 14.

Smart little blouses of red, blue or brown checked gingham, to be worn as guimpes with the new jumpers. Other styles, too, in white and colors. Sizes 6 to 14.

Smart little blouses of red, blue or brown checked gingham, to be worn as guimpes with the new jumpers. Other styles, too, in white and colors. Sizes 6 to 14.

Miss Spalding Fetes Betrothed Couple.

Miss Frances Spalding was hostess at a dinner party last evening at her home on Rivers road in honor of Miss Adair McCarley and her fiancé, John Pye Woodall, whose marriage takes place Saturday evening, September 24. Mr. and Mrs. John S. Spalding assisted their daughter in entertaining. The guests were seated at tables set for four and decorated by vases of roses, dahlias and other garden flowers. A progressive idea was carried out, the men at each table proceeding to the table ahead after each course.

The guests included Misses Anne McCarley, Janet Branch, Marguerite Anderson, Sally Spalding, Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Branch Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Gatewood, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Hill, Mr. and Mrs. P. D. McCarley.

Mr. and Mrs. McWhorter Milner, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Croon Partridge, John Nesbitt, Norris Pye, James Harris, Bob Bryan and Will Woodall.

Golden Rule Chapter No. 110, O. E. S., meets at the Red Men's wigwam Friday, September 23, at 8 o'clock. Members of the order are invited.

Golden Rule Chapter No. 110, O. E. S., meets at the Red Men's wigwam Friday, September 23, at 8 o'clock. Members of the order are invited.

Golden Rule Chapter No. 110, O. E. S., meets at the Red Men's wigwam Friday, September 23, at 8 o'clock. Members of the order are invited.

Golden Rule Chapter No. 110, O. E. S., meets at the Red Men's wigwam Friday, September 23, at 8 o'clock. Members of the order are invited.

Golden Rule Chapter No. 110, O. E. S., meets at the Red Men's wigwam Friday, September 23, at 8 o'clock. Members of the order are invited.

Golden Rule Chapter No. 110, O. E. S., meets at the Red Men's wigwam Friday, September 23, at 8 o'clock. Members of the order are invited.

Golden Rule Chapter No. 110, O. E. S., meets at the Red Men's wigwam Friday, September 23, at 8 o'clock. Members of the order are invited.

Golden Rule Chapter No. 110, O. E. S., meets at the Red Men's wigwam Friday, September 23, at 8 o'clock. Members of the order are invited.

Golden Rule Chapter No. 110, O. E. S., meets at the Red Men's wigwam Friday, September 23, at 8 o'clock. Members of the order are invited.

Golden Rule Chapter No. 110, O. E. S., meets at the Red Men's wigwam Friday, September 23, at 8 o'clock. Members of the order are invited.

Golden Rule Chapter No. 110, O. E. S., meets at the Red Men's wigwam Friday, September 23, at 8 o'clock. Members of the order are invited.

Golden Rule Chapter No. 110, O. E. S., meets at the Red Men's wigwam Friday, September 23, at 8 o'clock. Members of the order are invited.

Golden Rule Chapter No. 110, O. E. S., meets at the Red Men's wigwam Friday, September 23, at 8 o'clock. Members of the order are invited.

Golden Rule Chapter No. 110, O. E. S., meets at the Red Men's wigwam Friday, September 23, at 8 o'clock. Members of the order are invited.

Golden Rule Chapter No. 110, O. E. S., meets at the Red Men's wigwam Friday, September 23, at 8 o'clock. Members of the order are invited.

Golden Rule Chapter No. 110, O. E. S., meets at the Red Men's wigwam Friday, September 23, at 8 o'clock. Members of the order are invited.

Golden Rule Chapter No. 110, O. E. S., meets at the Red Men's wigwam Friday, September 23, at 8 o'clock. Members of the order are invited.

Golden Rule Chapter No. 110, O. E. S., meets at the Red Men's wigwam Friday, September 23, at 8 o'clock. Members of the order are invited.

Golden Rule Chapter No. 110, O. E. S., meets at the Red Men's wigwam Friday, September 23, at 8 o'clock. Members of the order are invited.

Golden Rule Chapter No. 110, O. E. S., meets at the Red Men's wigwam Friday, September 23, at 8 o'clock. Members of the order are invited.

Golden Rule Chapter No. 110, O. E. S., meets at the Red Men's wigwam Friday, September 23, at 8 o'clock. Members of the order are invited.

Golden Rule Chapter No. 110, O. E. S., meets at the Red Men's wigwam Friday, September 23, at 8 o'clock. Members of the order are invited.

Golden Rule Chapter No. 110, O. E. S., meets at the Red Men's wigwam Friday, September 23, at 8 o'clock. Members of the order are invited.

Golden Rule Chapter No. 110, O. E. S., meets at the Red Men's wigwam Friday, September 23, at 8 o'clock. Members of the order are invited.

Golden Rule Chapter No. 110, O. E. S., meets at the Red Men's wigwam Friday, September 23, at 8 o'clock. Members of the order are invited.

Golden Rule Chapter No. 110, O. E. S., meets at the Red Men's wigwam Friday, September 23, at 8 o'clock. Members of the order are invited.

Golden Rule Chapter No. 110, O. E. S., meets at the Red Men's wigwam Friday, September 23, at 8 o'clock. Members of the order are invited.

Golden Rule Chapter No. 110, O. E. S., meets at the Red Men's wigwam Friday, September 23, at 8 o'clock. Members of the order are invited.

Golden Rule Chapter No. 110, O. E. S., meets at the Red Men's wigwam Friday, September 23, at 8 o'clock. Members of the order are invited.

Golden Rule Chapter No. 110, O. E. S., meets at the Red Men's wigwam Friday, September 23, at 8 o'clock. Members of the order are invited.

Golden Rule Chapter No.

THE CONSTITUTION

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING

Information

CLOSING HOURS

Want Ads are accepted up to 9 p. m. for publication the next day. The closing hour for the Sunday edition is 8:30 p. m. Saturday.

CLASSIFIED RATES

Daily and Sunday rates per line for consecutive insertions:

One time ..... 20 cents
Three times ..... 17 cents
Seven times ..... 15 cents
Minimum, 2 lines (12 words).

In estimating the space of an ad figure at 10 average words to a line.

Ads ordered for three or seven days and stopped before expiration will only be charged for the number of times the ad appeared and adjustments made at the time earned.

Errors in advertisements should be reported immediately. The Constitution will not be responsible for more than one incorrect insertion.

All want ads are restricted to their proper classification and The Constitution reserves the right to revise or reject any advertisement.

Ads ordered by telephone are accepted from persons listed in the telephone or city directory on memorandum charge only. In return for this courtesy the advertiser is expected to remit promptly.

To Phone An Ad
Call Walnut 6565

Ask for an Ad-Taker

RAILROAD SCHEDULES

Schedules Published as Information.
(Central Standard Time.)

TERMINAL STATION

Arrives—A. R. & B. R. R. Leaves

7:10 a.m. Cordele-Waycross 7:50 a.m.

8:00 a.m. Waycross-Thomson 8:45 a.m.

Arrives—A. & W. P. R. R. Leaves

11:35 a.m. New Orleans-Montgomery 6:10 a.m.

6:20 a.m. Montgomery Local 1:00 p.m.

7:00 a.m. New Orleans-Montgomery 6:30 p.m.

11:40 a.m. New Orleans-Montgomery 6:05 p.m.

8:05 a.m. West Point-Mt. Vernon 11:15 p.m.

Arrives—D. O. G. R. R. Leaves

5:55 a.m. Mac-Sav-Aib 7:30 a.m.

10:00 a.m. Columbus 9:25 a.m.

3:55 p.m. Mac-Sav-Aib 7:25 a.m.

10:00 a.m. Mac-Sav-Aib 7:25 a.m.

6:40 p.m. Columbus 9:25 a.m.

8:45 a.m. Mac-Sav-Aib 7:25 a.m.

8:40 a.m. Tampa-St. Pete 11:10 a.m.

3:15 p.m. Mac-Sav-Aib 7:25 a.m.

Arrives—SOUTHERN RAILWAY Leaves

5:00 a.m. Co. W. S. R. R. 12:00 a.m.

6:45 p.m. Greenville-Charlotte 6:25 a.m.

1:00 p.m. Valdosta 12:00 a.m.

8:20 p.m. Detroit-Chi-Cleve 7:00 a.m.

3:40 p.m. Beaumont-Houston 7:00 a.m.

4:00 p.m. Beaumont-Houston 7:00 a.m.

5:45 p.m. Beaumont-Houston 7:00 a.m.

6:00 p.m. Beaumont-Houston 7:00 a.m.

6:40 p.m. Beaumont-Houston 7:00 a.m.

6:50 p.m. Beaumont-Houston 7:00 a.m.

7:00 p.m. Beaumont-Houston 7:00 a.m.

7:10 p.m. Beaumont-Houston 7:00 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Beaumont-Houston 7:00 a.m.

7:30 p.m. Beaumont-Houston 7:00 a.m.

7:40 p.m. Beaumont-Houston 7:00 a.m.

7:50 p.m. Beaumont-Houston 7:00 a.m.

8:00 p.m. Beaumont-Houston 7:00 a.m.

8:10 p.m. Beaumont-Houston 7:00 a.m.

8:20 p.m. Beaumont-Houston 7:00 a.m.

8:30 p.m. Beaumont-Houston 7:00 a.m.

8:40 p.m. Beaumont-Houston 7:00 a.m.

8:50 p.m. Beaumont-Houston 7:00 a.m.

9:00 p.m. Beaumont-Houston 7:00 a.m.

9:10 p.m. Beaumont-Houston 7:00 a.m.

9:20 p.m. Beaumont-Houston 7:00 a.m.

9:30 p.m. Beaumont-Houston 7:00 a.m.

9:40 p.m. Beaumont-Houston 7:00 a.m.

9:50 p.m. Beaumont-Houston 7:00 a.m.

10:00 p.m. Beaumont-Houston 7:00 a.m.

10:10 p.m. Beaumont-Houston 7:00 a.m.

10:20 p.m. Beaumont-Houston 7:00 a.m.

10:30 p.m. Beaumont-Houston 7:00 a.m.

10:40 p.m. Beaumont-Houston 7:00 a.m.

10:50 p.m. Beaumont-Houston 7:00 a.m.

11:00 p.m. Beaumont-Houston 7:00 a.m.

11:10 p.m. Beaumont-Houston 7:00 a.m.

11:20 p.m. Beaumont-Houston 7:00 a.m.

11:30 p.m. Beaumont-Houston 7:00 a.m.

11:40 p.m. Beaumont-Houston 7:00 a.m.

11:50 p.m. Beaumont-Houston 7:00 a.m.

12:00 p.m. Beaumont-Houston 7:00 a.m.

12:10 p.m. Beaumont-Houston 7:00 a.m.

12:20 p.m. Beaumont-Houston 7:00 a.m.

12:30 p.m. Beaumont-Houston 7:00 a.m.

12:40 p.m. Beaumont-Houston 7:00 a.m.

12:50 p.m. Beaumont-Houston 7:00 a.m.

1:00 p.m. Beaumont-Houston 7:00 a.m.

1:10 p.m. Beaumont-Houston 7:00 a.m.

1:20 p.m. Beaumont-Houston 7:00 a.m.

1:30 p.m. Beaumont-Houston 7:00 a.m.

1:40 p.m. Beaumont-Houston 7:00 a.m.

1:50 p.m. Beaumont-Houston 7:00 a.m.

2:00 p.m. Beaumont-Houston 7:00 a.m.

2:10 p.m. Beaumont-Houston 7:00 a.m.

2:20 p.m. Beaumont-Houston 7:00 a.m.

2:30 p.m. Beaumont-Houston 7:00 a.m.

2:40 p.m. Beaumont-Houston 7:00 a.m.

2:50 p.m. Beaumont-Houston 7:00 a.m.

3:00 p.m. Beaumont-Houston 7:00 a.m.

3:10 p.m. Beaumont-Houston 7:00 a.m.

3:20 p.m. Beaumont-Houston 7:00 a.m.

3:30 p.m. Beaumont-Houston 7:00 a.m.

3:40 p.m. Beaumont-Houston 7:00 a.m.

3:50 p.m. Beaumont-Houston 7:00 a.m.

4:00 p.m. Beaumont-Houston 7:00 a.m.

4:10 p.m. Beaumont-Houston 7:00 a.m.

4:20 p.m. Beaumont-Houston 7:00 a.m.

4:30 p.m. Beaumont-Houston 7:00 a.m.

TARZAN THE UNTAMED No. 82

By Maxon

Tarzan, searching Karzenoff's uniform, recovered his diamond-studded golden locket. "Now give me the papers!" he demanded of the girl. Without a word Olga handed him a folded document. For several minutes the ape-man seemed——lost in thought. Then he said: "I came for you, too. It would be difficult to take you prisoner from here, so I was going to kill you as I have vowed to kill all your kind. But I am not such a beast as your Red Comrades, I cannot——kill a woman." He crossed to the window, and disappeared into the night. And then the dark-eyed ape stepped quickly to the body upon the floor. Slipping her hand inside Karzenoff's blouse, she——drew forth a little sheaf of papers which she tucked into a secret pocket before she went to the window and called for help. Nor did Tarzan of the Apes discover how again she had tricked him until it was too late.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Beauty Aids

JOSEPH'S Beauty Shop, now located at 702 Ponce de Leon, HE. 9332.
ARTISTIC ROUGHENED WAVES.
WALNUT 4536.

Dancing

Jack Rand Tap, ballet, acrobatic, ballroom, 173 Edgewood, MA. 9213.

Educational

PIANO lessons in your home. Experienced teacher, Mrs. McGraw, HE. 7014-W.

Personal

ALL DENTAL work reduced to $50 set for $25; $10 set of teeth $5; $20 set, $10. Extractions free for plate. Broken plates repaired $1. Dr. Kelley, 1014 Whitehall St., 353 Windsor St., Atlanta.

KIRKLAND & PURCELL have opened their old shop at 261 North Broad. Popular prices. 35-36.

CONVALESCENTS, elderly people cared for in private home. Graduate nurse, R.A. 3614.

Contract Bridge—Beginners. Advanced classes; supervised practice. Results guaranteed. HE. 1616.

DR. MOWERY, Chiropractor, removing to 8471 Gordon St. Afternoon and evening hours.

SWEDISH massage for reducing or developing. Relaxation treatments. Miss Manning, MA. 3590.

CONVALESCENTS, invalids, aged people boarded; rest; nurse in charge; ref. Ed. 1924.

STREAM radiator cover bargains. G. A. Manning, JA. 7844, 1414 Linden Ave., N.E.

FREE for moving, 15 or 20 beds dirt. Jarrett, MA. 1478, Thursday before 10.

INFLUENZA, cold serum, $1. Dr. Geo. Brown, Specialist, 10 Forsyth St. Bldg.

CURTAINS, hand-dyed, beautiful, 15c up. Work room, call det. Mrs. Estes, Ed. 4241.

FURS remodeled; hand cleaned; tailoring; coats, suits, fur. Fairbanks, MA. 6155.

DR. DUNCAN, Chiropractor, 1215 W. 12th St., 1215 Whitehall St. MA. 4537.

Curtains, Laundered, fluted, spec. prices. Mrs. Nelson, HE. 9964.

LOST—Leather pocketbook, containing $50. five $1 bills. Please return $39 Pearl St. Reward, RA. 5311.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AT HIGH MILES, m. gold spectacles; return front couple. Constitution; reward.

AUTOMOTIVE

Auto Trucks for Sale

USED TRUCK BARGAINS.
THE WHITE COMPANY, WA. 8242.

Auto Repairing

RALPH CANNON AUTO SERVICE,
41 North Ave., Between P'tree, HE. 6136.

Wanted Automobiles

WANTED
WHITEALL CHEVROLET
CO., 329 Whitehall St., MA. 1412.

CASH FOR USED CARS

CAMPBELL'S, 50 Calhoun St., N. E. 9830.

CASH FOR USED CARS

WHITEALL CHEVROLET
CO., 329 Whitehall St., MA. 1412.

WANTED—A good Chevrolet coach; must look and be good; $50 cash, balance monthly. Mr. Sears, 232 Richardson, S. W.

WILL pay cash for used cars Franklin Motor Co., 481 W. Peachtree St. 4204.

DR. MOWERY, Chiropractor, removing to 8471 Gordon St. Afternoon and evening hours.

CASH for used Fords and Chevrolets. C. M. Hall, 23 Alexander, N. E. JA. 1745.

FINAL TRIBUTE PAID MOTHER OF GARNER

DETROIT, Texas, Sept. 21.—(AP)—In the quiet of a village cemetery, final rites were said today for the pioneer mother of John Nance Garner, democratic vice presidential nominee.

The mother, Mrs. Sarah Jane Garner, passed quietly away in her old home here yesterday, surrounded by her five living children, three sons and two daughters.

The body of the 81-year-old lady was placed in the family vault to rest beside her husband and two children, a daughter and a son.

The services were said by the Rev. T. F. Herndon, pastor of the First Christian church of Paris, and eight acquaintances of many years were her pallbearers.

In addition to the rites here, memorial services were held at Uvalde, Texas, where Mr. Garner has lived for many years.

Mr. Garner started his return trip to Washington shortly after the funeral services were over. Accom-

$1,000 in Counterfeits Found in Tomb Prison

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—(AP)—United States secret service agents were investigating to determine the source of $1,000 in counterfeit $10 bills found yesterday on the floor of the detention room on the second floor of Tomb prison.

Warden Robert Barr said that before the bogus bills were found approximately 150 prisoners passed through the room to be relieved of their money and other personal property before assignment to cells.

He will arrive in St. Louis at 8:20 a. m. tomorrow, and in Washington about 7 a. m. Friday.

He will arrive in St. Louis at 8:20 a. m. tomorrow, and in Washington about 7 a. m. Friday.

He will arrive in St. Louis at 8:20 a. m. tomorrow, and in Washington about 7 a. m. Friday.

He will arrive in St. Louis at 8:20 a. m. tomorrow, and in Washington about 7 a. m. Friday.

He will arrive in St. Louis at 8:20 a. m. tomorrow, and in Washington about 7 a. m. Friday.

Cross Sections of Life In Gate City of South

William Simmons, 16, son of Mayor J. W. Simmons, of Bainbridge, Wednesday was brought to Atlanta to undergo an operation resulting from a compound fracture of the right arm sustained in football practice. Mayor and Mrs. Simmons accompanied their son here. The operation will be performed at the Piedmont sanatorium today.

Post B. Travel Protective Association, will hold its monthly meeting at 8 o'clock Saturday night at Hall No. 2, Chamber of Commerce building. Hugh Couch will be the speaker of the night.

Marion H. Allen, co-author of the legislative plan of 1931 which authorized the sale of W. & A. warrants to reduce the state's back debt to the schools and institutions, Wednesday announced that he would be a candidate for speaker of the 1933 house. Already announced candidates are former State Senator E. D. Rivers, L. T. (Pat) Gillen, of Bibb, and E. M. Davis, of Mitchell.

Mrs. Sallie Allen, 22, of 602 Shelton avenue, gave street car operators and police a scare early Wednesday when she fell asleep on a Whitehall-Beecher car en route from the station to her home. She was rushed to Grady hospital by Patrolman E. N. Hicks, where she was awakened. She said she merely was taking a nap and could not account for the fact that the operator of the street car and patrolman were unable to arouse her.

Harold Priles, 5-year-old kindergarten pupil at Formwalt Street school, was injured Wednesday morning when he was struck down at Pryor and Richardson streets by an automobile driven by W. N. Neal, of 27 Rhodessa street. The child, accompanied by an older brother, was on his way to school when the accident occurred. At Grady hospital he was found to have received cuts on the head and face. No arrest was made.

LeRoy Osborne, 4-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Osborne, 421 Boulevard N. E. who has been a patient at Grady hospital for three years as the result of an attack of diphtheria suffered when an infant, Mr. Wednesday was pronounced sufficiently recovered to be dismissed. The child was removed to the home of his parents, Grady doctors expressing the belief that it will recover.

Rabbi Abraham Shusterman, of the Congregation Children of Israel, of Athens, will speak at the opening meeting of the East Point auditorium at 7:30 o'clock Friday and Saturday nights. J. A. E. of East Point, is directing the convention and the public was invited to attend.

William G. McRae, former member of the legislature and recently unsuccessful candidate for solicitor-general, will address the Cedarhurst Exchange Club tonight at Cedarhurst. His subject will be "Law Enforcement."

Dr. A. C. Ayers was elected president of the West End Business Men's Club at the last monthly meeting Monday and Dan Burgess was named Notice. From this date and hereafter I will not be responsible for any debts made and charged to me by any person, except upon written order bearing my signature. This September 21st, 1932. GROVER N. MEINKE.

The WEST POINT ROUTE Announces Continuation of SPECIAL BARGAIN WEEK-END EXCURSION FARES. WA. 2726 MA. 0800.

vice president: A. G. Matthews, treasurer, and T. Settle, secretary. New directors are C. P. Catlin, Dr. J. B. Webster, Guy Henderson, J. B. Brooks, J. H. Merritt, Dr. A. B. McDonald, Charles Babb, Hewitt Chambers and Guy Moore.

Dean S. V. Sanford, president of the University of Georgia, was guest of honor and principal speaker of the evening. Dr. Sanford paid Scott one of the most glowing and scholarly tributes ever to be accorded a writer, according to members of the club, which has a large group of literary figures.

Professor W. F. Melton, of Oglethorpe University, editor of "Verscraft," compared the thoroughness of Scott's to the individual excellence of contemporary writers of short stories. "Washington Irving," Professor Melton said, "glorified the short story. Bret Harte localized it. Edgar Allan Poe standardized it. And Joel Chandler Harris folk-lorized it. Scott did all these things to the English novel."

The meeting was presided over by John M. Graham, president, and the occasion was the reading of a joint resolution of the Burns Club and the Atlanta Scottish Association. Among those who spoke were Judge A. W. Cozart, of Columbus, E. H. Cabaniss, of the Atlanta Journal; Chief Justice Richard B. Russell Sr. and Mr. Graham.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Emory's blue and gold freshmen caps again will dot Atlanta's streets today as some 200 new undergraduates begin their courses at the university. The new men will report for the first time at 1 o'clock this afternoon in the Theology chapel.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Burns Club Hears Dean Sanford Pay Tribute to Sir Walter Scott

The prose of Sir Walter Scott was lauded as the greatest of historical fiction in the English language at a meeting of the Atlanta Burns Club Wednesday night, attended by one of the largest gatherings in recent years. A group of citizens high in the life of Atlanta and Georgia were among those present, and spoke briefly, eulogizing the memory of "The Wizard of the North," the beloved Scottish writer died 100 years ago Wednesday.

Dean S. V. Sanford, president of the University of Georgia, was guest of honor and principal speaker of the evening. Dr. Sanford paid Scott one of the most glowing and scholarly tributes ever to be accorded a writer, according to members of the club, which has a large group of literary figures.

Professor W. F. Melton, of Oglethorpe University, editor of "Verscraft," compared the thoroughness of Scott's to the individual excellence of contemporary writers of short stories. "Washington Irving," Professor Melton said, "glorified the short story. Bret Harte localized it. Edgar Allan Poe standardized it. And Joel Chandler Harris folk-lorized it. Scott did all these things to the English novel."

The meeting was presided over by John M. Graham, president, and the occasion was the reading of a joint resolution of the Burns Club and the Atlanta Scottish Association. Among those who spoke were Judge A. W. Cozart, of Columbus, E. H. Cabaniss, of the Atlanta Journal; Chief Justice Richard B. Russell Sr. and Mr. Graham.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

Women's auxiliary of the Westminster Presbyterian church will sponsor a manufacturers' and distributors' dinner at 6:30 o'clock tonight at the church. Admission will be by ticket only. The tickets are available from the circle chairman or at the church office.

MOTHER OF NEGRO MUST LEAVE BULGARIA

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia, Sept. 21.—(AP)—Reports from Sofia tonight said the Bulgarian government had compelled Ada Wright to leave the country on account of increased communist activities since her arrival last week.

Ada Wright is the mother of one of several negro youths under sentence of death in Alabama on a charge of attacking white girls.

The woman has been touring Europe ostensibly to obtain signatures to a petition for the negroes. She had been expelled from several countries previously.

WOMAN POISONS SELF
AND 4-YEAR-OLD BOY
TORONTO, Ont., Sept. 21.—(UP)—A woman who registered as Mrs. Kitty Whalen, of East Dorset, Vt., poisoned herself and four-year-old boy today at the King Edward hotel. Both victims are in a critical condition.

In Memoriam.
In loving memory of our dear husband and father who departed this life four years ago today, September 22, 1928. MRS. CHAS. A. HENSON AND CHILDREN.

In Memoriam.
In loving remembrance of my beloved one, who departed this life two years ago today, September 22, 1930. ANN NEWBORN WILLIAMS.

In Memoriam.
In loving remembrance of my beloved one, who departed this life two years ago today, September 22, 1930. ANN NEWBORN WILLIAMS.

In Memoriam.
In loving remembrance of my beloved one, who departed this life two years ago today, September 22, 1930. ANN NEWBORN WILLIAMS.

In Memoriam.
In loving remembrance of my beloved one, who departed this life two years ago today, September 22, 1930. ANN NEWBORN WILLIAMS.

In Memoriam.
In loving remembrance of my beloved one, who departed this life two years ago today, September 22, 1930. ANN NEWBORN WILLIAMS.

In Memoriam.
In loving remembrance of my beloved one, who departed this life two years ago today, September 22, 1930. ANN NEWBORN WILLIAMS.

In Memoriam.
In loving remembrance of my beloved one, who departed this life two years ago today, September 22, 1930. ANN NEWBORN WILLIAMS.

In Memoriam.
In loving remembrance of my beloved one, who departed this life two years ago today, September 22, 1930. ANN NEWBORN WILLIAMS.

In Memoriam.
In loving remembrance of my beloved one, who departed this life two years ago today, September 22, 1930. ANN NEWBORN WILLIAMS.

In Memoriam.
In loving remembrance of my beloved one, who departed this life two years ago today, September 22, 1930. ANN NEWBORN WILLIAMS.

In Memoriam.
In loving remembrance of my beloved one, who departed this life two years ago today, September 22, 1930. ANN NEWBORN WILLIAMS.

In Memoriam.
In loving remembrance of my beloved one, who departed this life two years ago today, September 22, 1930. ANN NEWBORN WILLIAMS.

In Memoriam.
In loving remembrance of my beloved one, who departed this life two years ago today, September 22, 1930. ANN NEWBORN WILLIAMS.

In Memoriam.
In loving remembrance of my beloved one, who departed this life two years ago today, September 22, 1930. ANN NEWBORN WILLIAMS.

In Memoriam.
In loving remembrance of my beloved one, who departed this life two years ago today, September 22, 1930. ANN NEWBORN